CELESTIAL HIGHLIGHTS

January 6 | Mars Retrograde Enters Cancer

Mars, which has been retrograde since December 6, 2024, transitions from Leo into Cancer. This movement may bring a focus on family matters and emotional introspection. It's a time to center emotions and be mindful of the best way to proceed in personal affairs.

January 11 | New Moon in Capricorn

This New Moon invites us to lay solid foundations for the year ahead. Capricorn's grounded and disciplined energy helps with goal setting, planning, and focusing on long-term ambitions. Use this time to reflect on your priorities and take the first steps toward achieving them.

January 11 | 1/11 Portal

The 1/11 Portal is a powerful energetic gateway supporting spiritual alignment and manifestation. Focus on clarity, intention-setting, and stepping into higher vibrational frequencies. Meditate, journal, or book a Tantra Reading to align fully with this potent energy.

January 11 | Nodes of Destiny Shift

The Nodes of Destiny move into the Pisces-Virgo axis, emphasizing themes of healing, spirituality, and higher-minded endeavors. This shift encourages us to focus on our intuition and desires to transform into the people we aspire to be.

January 25 | Full Moon in Leo

The vibrant energy of Leo encourages self-expression and celebration. This is a time to let your light shine and embrace your creative passions. Reflect on your growth, share your talents, and step confidently into the spotlight.

January 25 | Planetary Alignment

On this day, Mercury, Venus, Mars, Jupiter, Saturn, Uranus, and Neptune align in a rare celestial event. This alignment symbolizes harmony and connection to the greater cosmic flow, inviting reflection on balance and unity.

January 29 | New Moon in Aquarius

This New Moon emphasizes themes like friendships, community, and social activities. It's an ideal time to set intentions related to personal growth and community involvement.

ONGOING ENERGIES

Uranus Retrograde in Taurus (September 1, 2024 – January 30, 2025)

Break free from outdated beliefs about money, security, & self-worth. As this retrograde concludes, reflect on where you've felt "stuck" and embrace innovative solutions to build a more aligned foundation for stability.

Pluto Retrograde in Capricorn (September 2, 2024 – February 1, 2025)

This retrograde invites deep transformation. Release control, allow old structures to dissolve, and step into personal empowerment. As Pluto nears the end of its retrograde, reflect on the lessons learned and embrace the opportunity for renewal.

Mars Retrograde (December 6, 2024 – February 23, 2025)

Mars continues its retrograde motion, urging reflection on desires and motivations. This period is ideal for reassessing personal goals and ensuring they align with true passions.

Solar Activity & X-Class Solar Flares

The sun continues its heightened activity, with X-Class Solar Flares releasing bursts of electromagnetic energy toward Earth. If you've been experiencing fatigue, heightened emotions, or vivid dreams, this may be why. Prioritize grounding practices, rest, and mindfulness to balance these energies.

Schumann Resonance Fluctuations

Fluctuations in the Earth's resonance can impact energy levels, emotions, and sleep. When these shifts occur, you may feel sudden fatigue or emotional intensity. Stay grounded by meditating, spending time in nature, or engaging in Tantra practices to balance your energy.
