

Hello Buddhaful People,

I'm writing this "Love Note" to you on Saturday, September 27, 2025 — as the Fall Equinox turns the wheel. This sacred season reminds us that balance always returns: light & dark meeting in harmony, inviting renewal, devotion, & reflection.

As the days soften & the nights stretch, the Temple opens wider. It is a time to pause, realign, & step into the glow of your sacred path with deeper intention.

Let's begin with Announcements & transformative Session Spotlights flowing through this season.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Secret Gift

A quiet flame flickers, calling those attuned to step closer. For the next 48 hours, patrons who claim their path will receive a secret gift — tucked like a whisper into the folds of their journey. This invitation is private, time-bound, & revealed only once commitment is sealed. Text to book your session & discover what awaits.

Temple Hours Expanded

Evening sessions now flow until 10PM. Early mornings are also available with 24 hour notice.

Evening availability is designed to align with natural rhythms — the most powerful work often unfolds after the day has quieted. This schedule creates space for deeper focus & sacred energy exchange, honoring both your preparation & mine.
