ROOM WITH A VIEW

I was born on Mother's Day — my timing's been elite since day one. Even my emails know when to drop.

GenX shaped me — part mixtape, part memo, all timing.

Voted Most Organized in 3rd Grade — I've been running logistics since recess.

Organic and farm-to-table leaning — still deeply committed to matcha, chocolate, cheese, and carbs.

Mindfulness-trained energy coach — I read the room before the room knows I'm coming.

I time strategy like a billion-dollar launch: with data, instinct, and a little kung woo.

My leadership balances meta clarity with metta intention — strategy with heart.
