

LikeTweet

"I Love You..."

It's not automatic we know how to love one another. We say, "I love you" but many times if truth be told, we find our love is conditional. The conditions are normally self-centered based on what benefits the receiver. In 1 Corinthians 13:1-13, the Apostle Paul wrote this letter as a reprimand with instructions to the Church in Corinth. The Corinthians were allowing divisions and disagreements to stop loving one another.

It's easy to tell someone you love them when your in agreement. However, "love suffers long and is kind.(vs.4" What matters most, is how we "love" one another in disagreements.

Read 1 Corinthians 13:1-13

Sign Up

Happy Valentine's Day,

Oscar J. West

©2018 Oscar J. West | 1320 Victor II Blvd., Morgan City, LA 70380, US

Web Version

Forward

Unsubscribe

Powered by
GoDaddy Email Marketing®