1 EXT. IMPERIAL CARGO CRUISER - SPACE 1

We view the Imperial Cargo Cruiser from an angle that reveals the under belly. There's a blue force field that ships come and go through...

A TRANSPORTER SHIP, a smaller ship that is used for moving materials and cargo, approaches the Cruiser. We follow it as it goes through the blue force field.

INT. IMPERIAL CARGO CRUISER - CARGO BAY

This where the Empire stores some of their most valuable cargo. How it's set up is the safes (which protect the cargo) are set up around a massive open area so transporter ships like the one we follow can latch to a railing and unload the cargo. Our transporter ship latches to the railing and opens it's hatch.

2 INT/EXT. SAFE 77 2

A couple of droids remove the 4 by 4 BLACK CONTAINER from the transpo ship and push it into the safe. COMMANDER, an older man, with sleek white hair, walks up to the safe then holds is thumb to the finger print scanner on it.

The safe TSSS as it opens, and some mist falls from it. The Commander looks inside and grins. He shuts the safe and exits.

We pull back outside the safe as the Commander exits. The doors seal shut.

Two STORMTROOPERS stand guard 2778 and 2779. These are the most basic of basic stormtroopers. They do as they're told and don't think twice to ask why...

2778 SNEEZES.

2779

Bless you

2778

Thanks.

2779

You got the virus that's going around?

2778

(sighs)

I hope not. It knocked 89 on his back for 2 weeks.

(wipes visor)

UGH it's all in the helmet.

2779

That's the worst, you get spots in the visor, then it smells.

2778

I can smell it already. I got to take this thing off.

2779

Don't.

2778

Just keep an eye out will ya?

We stay on 2779 as 2778 takes off his helmet.

2779

All clear.

2778 puts his helmet back on.

2778

That's better...Any idea what's behind these doors?

2779

(hits the door)

Well, it isn't alive.

2778

(chuckles)

You remember when they had us outside the door of a Condor Dragon.

2779

(chuckles)

Oh yeah, everyday we thought it was gonna break out...It's probably just some credits.

2778

Then why are we here? I mean isn't it all electronic now?

2779

We haven't gotten the upgrades to make those transfers yet.

2778

That makes no sense. How do we of all ships not have that?

2779

We're still laying low, and rebuilding. Can't have the whole galaxy know we're alive.

2778

True.

(then)

Probably just some credits.

2778 hits the door with his blaster. BANG.

MAIN CREDITS

3

INT. N-1 STARFIGHTER - SPACE

3

MANDO exits hyperspace. His message button blinks. He presses it. A holographic GREEF KARGA speaks.

GREEF

Mando! I've got some intel that will interest you. Let's talk about it over a couple drinks, my treat.

The message clicks off.

MANDO

Nevarro it is.

He sets his navigations to...

4

EXT. SPACE - PLANET NEVARRO

4

The N-1 Starfighter approaches Nevarro.

5

EXT. NEVARRO - DAY

5

The N-1 Starfighter lands into the ship bay. Mando exits his ship.

6

INT. DINER - CONTINUOUS

6

Mando and Greef sit in a corner of the busy diner. There's gambling, music, dancing. The place is popping.

GREEF

What happened to the little fellah?

MANDO

Returned him to his kind.

GREEF

He saved my life you know. Gosh, I miss him.

MANDO

Grogu.

GREEF

What now?

MANDO

The kid, that's his name.

GREEF

The little fellah had a name!
(raises a toast)
To Grogu.

A WAITER leaves a tray of drinks on the table.

GREEF (CONT'D)

Have one, they're on me.

(off Mando's silence)

Right, the whole never show your face. Well, I'm not giving you the intel unless you have a drink. Come on.

Mando stands to leave. Greef grabs his arm.

MANDO

What does the intel have to do with me?

Mando pulls his arm away.

GREEF

(whispers)

There's word of 50,000 slates of beskar.

MANDO

Where?

Greef slides a drink to Mando.

Mando looks at it.

MANDO (CONT'D)

Fine.

They cheers their drinks, and Mando raises his helmet just enough revealing his mouth.

GREEF

I'll close my eyes.

Mando drinks it.

MANDO

50,000 slates?

GREEF

Yes, one of my scouts received word that an Imperial cruiser has a load of beskar, and they plan to make some new Death Trooper with it.

MANDO

What's your plan?

GREEF

Get a team together and steal it.

MANDO

What do you want with it?

GREEF

I could use it to repair some buildings, this city still has some work to do. I mean, anywhere that isn't Imperial-hands and I can sleep at night.

MANDO

Any idea how they got it?

GREEF

Can't say I know...So, you in?

MANDO

I'm in, but we're gonna need some more help.

GREEF

You're right about that.

MANDO

We are going to need someone that knows the ins and outs of a cruiser.

GREEF

We taking your ship or mine?

MANDO

My ship isn't big enough.

GREEF

What happened to the Razor Crest?

MANDO

Got blown up.

7 EXT. SPACE - PLANET MORAK 7

GREEF KARGA'S GUNSHIP exits hyper space.

8 INT. GREEF'S SHIP - CONTINUOUS 8

Greef sits in pilot seat while Mando wanders around.

GREEF

Smooth ain't she? Had one of my mechanics install the newest hyperdrive and it works like a charm! Who do you know on this planet anyways?

Off Mando we move to...

9 INT. BAR - PLANET MORAK - DAY 9

The place is packed with everyone's attention drawn to a galactic-dart game. It looks like a regular dart board, but the numbers are all in the wrong places and the darts are small aliens with pointy heads.

MAYFIELD is in a heated game with ARABORN, think of him as one of Malibu's elites.

MAYFIELD

How much did we say was on the line?

ARABORN

Our speeders.

MAYFIELD

Why don't we raise that? Say uhh your ship too? She looks mighty fine.

The crowd OOOOOs.

Araborn looks at the scoreboard, he's got a big lead with 10

You've got 170 points left, to my 10. I like my odds, you're on.

Mayfield takes his stance, one of the aliens BITES his finger.

MAYFIELD

OW.

(readjust himself)
What is it I need? Two triple twenties?

He hits both triple twenties.

At the entrance Mando and Greef enter.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)

You know what's funny about odds my friend? When you're this good, they don't matter.

He hits bullseye. Game over. Araborn starts to head out.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)

Where you going? You lost fair and square!

Araborn runs into Mando and Greef at the entrance.

The crowd noise quiets.

MANDO

Better give the man what you bet.

Mando holds his hand out. The Araborn doesn't budge.

ARABORN

Get out of my way.

Mando points his blaster to Araborn's chest.

Araborn then darts for the door! Mando snatches him with his grappling line, and pulls him back in.

MANDO

The keys.

Araborn GULPS, and then drops the keys to the ship and speeder into Mando's hand, then runs away.

MAYFIELD

Drinks on me!

The place ERUPTS.

Mayfield grabs his drink then makes his way through the crowd to Mando and Greef.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)

I'll take those, thank you.

MANDO

Fair and square?

MAYFIELD

Why does everyone think I'm a cheat! It's a little thing called talent, maybe you've heard of it. Who's this?

MANDO

Greef Karga, an old friend of mine.

MAYFIELD

Ahhh the big man that's turning Nevarro around. Pleasure to meet you...So, what brings you here?

(chuckles)

You didn't come here to kill me did ya? If you did, at least give me a head start.

MANDO

We've got proposition for you.

TIMECUT: Now, Mando, Greef, and Mayfield sit at a table with drinks.

MAYFIELD

You plan to steal from an Imperial Cruiser? HA! Mando, I knew you had balls man, but this is ridiculous.

GREEF

They're going to build a new Death Trooper! They'll be able to take over the galaxy.

MAYFIELD

Last I checked I'm dead to the galaxy, and I like it that way.

GREEF

Millions will die.

MAYFIELD

Like I said, I'm dead. I like where I am.

MANDO

Look, there's no one else that knows an Imperial ship like you do. If we don't get this beskar, and they make that new Death-trooper, this planet and others will be Imperial territory within weeks. Kiss your little retirement home goodbye.

Mayfield bites his tongue. Mando's right.

GREEF

AND, maybe after we leave here, word gets out that Mayfield, an ex Imperial officer, isn't dead. Instead, he's hiding out on some planet.

MAYFIELD

(rolls eyes)

You really gonna let him play that card, Mando? After all we've been through.

(bites lip)

AHHHH fine. FINE. I'll do it, but only because I'm getting blackmailed...In order to do this we're gonna need some more help.

Off Mando we move too...

10

INT. IMPERIAL CARGO CRUISE SHIP - OUTSIDE SAFE 55

10

2778 and 2779 stand guard. A couple troopers pass by them.

2778

How long have we been doing this?

2779

Doing what?

2778

This.

2779

Standing here?

2778

No, being stormtroopers, but yes why are we standing here?

2779

What does it matter? We're getting paid. I mean would you rather be here, or cleaning the pipes?

2778

Here, but-- 2779

Look, we're stormtroopers. From the moment we're cloned, we're taught to do what we're told.

2778

Yeah but don't you ever want to do something because you want to? I mean what's the point of us even standing here? Who is gonna steal from the Empire? There's over 1,000 troopers on board, and this place is a maze. I still get lost from time to time.

2779

How do you get lost? They have signs.

2778

Actually?

2779

(points to sign)

Yep.

2778

Ohhhhh.

(then)

But we've been doing this for what 18 years? Don't you think you could be doing something better?

2779

Like what?

2778

Like running a diner, or even a ship shop.

2779

I like what we do.

TWO STORMTROOPERS approach them and take their position.

2778 and 2779 exit.

2778

How did I never notice these signs?

11 EXT. SPACE - PLANET TATOOINE 11

Greef Karga's ship exits hyperspace and heads to Tatooine.

12 INT. BOBA FETT'S PALACE - PLANET TATOOINE - DAY 12

BOBA receives a tribute from a FARMER. Beside Boba is FENNEC.

FARMER

Those filthy Tuscans keep raiding my farm. I need protection.

BOBA

(stern)

Do not call them filthy. The Tuscans were here long before any of us were. This is their planet as much it is ours.

FENNEC

(whispers to Boba)

Boba, cool it. This is one of your people, remember you protect them too.

Boba takes a deep breath.

BOBA

(less angry)

Okay, I will help you negotiate a deal with the Tuscans.

FARMER

Thank you.

BOBA

In exchange you will learn their ways, and how to live with them, not against them.

The Farmer nods, kneels, and leaves.

Mando, Mayfield, and Greef strut in. Boba comes down from his throne and greets them.

BOBA (CONT'D)

Mando! It is good to see you again, and I see you've brought friends.

FENNEC

(to Mayfield)

Decided to come out of retirement?

MAYFIELD

Not exactly.

BOBA

Greef Karga, I've heard great things of you on Nevarro. Ex-Bounty lord turned town savior.

GREEF

Please it is my honor to meet THE Boba Fett. I have heard the legends.

BOBA

Yes, but that was a lifetime ago. So, what brings you here?

MANDO

Well, we've got a problem, and need your help. The Empire has a shipment of beskar and they're planning to create a Death Trooper with it.

FENNEC

I thought Moff Gideon was in a New Republic prison?

GREEF

He is but it seems the remaining ships from his fleet are still functioning.

BOBA

With a trooper made out of beskar, they could take over the galaxy.

Off Boba's look we wipe to...

INT. CRUISE SHIP, CAFETERIA - CONTINUOUS

13

Picture a nicer highschool cafeteria. Stormtroopers stand in line to get their food. 2778 and 2779 wait.

2778

What've we got today?

2779

It's the same thing every time.

2778

I know, I just like to think one time it'll be different.

2778 looks around the tables. He notices a SHOCKTROOPER sitting alone.

He looks back and forth at the line, then back to the Shocktrooper.

Finally, he steps out of line.

2779

What're you doing?

2778

Getting us some more responsibility.

2778 struts and 2779 follows him. They get to the Shocktrooper who chows down his food.

2778 (CONT'D)

Excuse me?

SHOCKTROOPER

Do you have orders to speak to me?

2778

SHOCKTROOPER

Then leave before this gets ugly.

2778

Look, we were wondering--

SHOCKTROOPER

Did you not hear what I said?

As he stands up his chair SQUEAKS. He is almost twice 2778 and 2779's size. Everyone turns their heads.

We hold in the tension for a moment...

SHOCKTROOPER (CONT'D)
(chuckles)
I'm messing with ya! Come on, sit, sit.

2778 and 2779 take seats.

SHOCKTROOPER (CONT'D)
You should've seen the look on your faces I mean.
(imitates expression)
Priceless. So, what did you wanna ask me? What's it like to be a Shocktrooper? Some battle stories?

2778 (stumbling)
Uhh, we were, well--

SHOCKTROOPER
Speak son, ask away.

2778
We were wondering if there were any lower, basic missions coming up that you might need an extra hand with?

SHOCKTROOPER
I admire you're drive kid, what's your TK number?

2778 2778 and this is-- 2779

2779.

They shake hands.

SHOCKTROOPER
I am taking a dropship down to Tatooine to get some desert samples.

2778
Why Tatooine? Don't the people there hate us?

SHOCKTROOPER

We made a deal with Bib Fortuna a while ago, the rest is classified. It's a simple mission, easy clearance. Very low risk. You two wanna come along?

2778

Yes.

2779

No.

SHOCKTROOPER

Boy, are you telling me you don't want to walk upon the sands of Tattoine? I promise you there is nothing like it.

14

INT. BOBA FETT'S. LATER

14

The gang stands around a table. Projected from the table is an Imperial cargo cruiser.

BOBA

Fennec, if I send you, word will get out that I'm a coward. I'll lose my people's respect. I must go, I trust you to take care of things here...So, what's the plan?

Mayfield hits a button on the projector.

MAYFIELD

This is what we're looking at, this model here is pretty old, but the layout should still be pretty similar.

(points)

The safes will be in the middle of the ship. They use smaller transporter vehicles to move the cargo around.

MANDO

You said pretty similar.

MAYFIELD

Yeah, they redesign every couple years. Minor changes, defensive tweaks, nicer lounges those sorts of things. I mean no one has ever actually robbed one of these things.

GREEF

Why not?

MAYFIELD

Cuz it's impossible! I mean one guy, in my whole time with the Empire, tried to and he got caught the second he stepped foot on the ship.

MANDO

How do we get on?

MAYFIELD

That's the tricky part, they don't just let any ship in. It has to be one of their own.

(looks around)

Last I checked I don't see one of their ships lying around, so why don't we just call it a day.

Mayfield turns the projector off.

MANDO

We can't do that.

MAYFIELD

Why not!? This has got to be one of the most ridiculous heist missions I've ever heard. You have any idea what we run into once we get on? The place is a maze! We'll get lost before we even find the beskar! AND by the way pal, we don't have one of their ships!

MANDO

(to Mayfield)

You knew this the whole time!

GREEF

50,000!

MAYFIELD

What?

GREEF

That's how many slates of beskar are in that safe.

MAYFIELD

But, what's it even matter. Go ahead put my name out.

(MORE)

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
Mayfield ex blah blah hiding on planet whatever.

Just before Mayfield walks out 8D8 enters with a Tuscan.

8D8 Sir, an Imperial dropship has just landed in your sands.

TUSCAN (in Tuscan)
I saw stormtroopers.

MANDO What was it we needed to get on the cruiser, Mayfield?

Off Mayfield rolling his eyes...

WIPE TO:

15 EXT. TATOOINE DESERT - DAY

15

An Imperial Dropship sits amongst the empty sands with it's landing door open. The Shocktrooper looks out to the desert, amongst his droids and troopers.

SHOCKTROOPER
(into radio)
Back to base, we're finishing up and are all clear.

2778 and 2779 walk the sands. For 2778 and 2779 it's incredible, peaceful and new.

The Droids, and other Stormtroopers begin to head back to the ramp.

2778
It's so soft.

A swivels his feet in the sand.

2778 (CONT'D)
This is really living.

2779 Yeah, until some creature pops out of the sand and kills you.

2778
You truly like what you do?

2779

Yeah, I do. Sure its mundane, but I feel like I'm part of a bigger whole. This number proves that.

2778

Doesn't it prove the opposite? That they see us as a number like a statistic and not a living being. Ever thought about a name for yourself?

2779

Nope.

2778

I really like the name Klad.

2779

Klad?

2778

Yeah--

Out of nowhere blaster fire from all directions. Droids, and Stormtroopers are down.

2778 and 2779 hustle back to the ship, but the landing door begins to shut.

Mando flies into the dropship.

2778 and 2779 look at each other, then are knocked out by Boba Fett.

INT. IMPERIAL DROPSHIP - CONTINUOUS

Mando blasters two stormtroopers, then quickly heads up the pilot deck. The Shocktrooper stands with his giant blaster, and shoots at Mando.

The lasers ping off his armor and knock him back enough to where the doors shut him out.

The Shocktrooper hops in the pilot seat and starts pressing buttons to get the ship off the ground.

Then BOOM. The door to the pilot deck explodes open. Mando, and Boba stand their with their blasters pointing at the Shocktrooper.

MANDO

Drop your blaster.

The Shocktrooper holds on to his blaster, but then drops it.

18

EXT. DROPSHIP - LATER

18

Mando, Boba, and Mayfield hold 2778, 2779, and the Shocktrooper prisoner. Their hands bound behind their backs. Mando taps each one of their helmets to wake them up.

Fennec and Greef removes the outfits of the dead stormtroopers.

Mando taps each of the prisoners.

MANDO

Wake up.

2778 and 2779 look up, they both panic and wrestle trying to escape.

The Shocktrooper doesn't move, but recognizes Boba Fett.

BOBA

What are you doing on my sands?

SHOCKTROOPER

(to 2778 and 2779)

I'll do all the talking. Don't answer their questions, unless you want to be traitors of the Empire. Like that one.

We see Mayfield.

SHOCKTROOPER (CONT'D)

We had a deal with Fortuna. Look, whoever's paying you Boba we can arrange-

BOBA

As I said these are my sands.

MANDO

Your dropship come from a Cargo Cruiser?

MAYFIELD

It'd be wise to answer our questions, if you give us what we want you'll live, it's that simple.

The Shocktrooper says nothing.

Mando pulls out his blaster.

The Shocktrooper doesn't answer.

Mando sets the barrel to the Shocktrooper's helmet.

MANDO
That deal still stands.

SHOCKTROOPER
Long live the Empire.

We hear a CRUNCH. The Shocktrooper's body starts to shake uncontrollably. He falls to his side and a blue gas flows out from his helmet.

2778
He just die?

Mando kicks the Shocktrooper's body, he's dead.

2778 (CONT'D)
(panics)
I didn't sign up for this!

2779
This whole thing was your idea!

2778
I just wanted to get off the ship!
Not get ambushed!

BOBA
What ship?

2778
Huh?

MANDO
You just said ship.

2779
No, he didn't.

Mando points his gun to 2778 and 2779.

2778
Ok ok ok, yes I said ship.

Mayfield pushes Mando's gun down, and approaches them.

MAYFIELD
Calm down you two. How much do you guys know?

2778 Nothing, we're the basic of basic stormtroopers.

MAYFIELD
Did you come from a cargo cruiser?

2778 withholds, but then...

2778
Yeah.

2779
Traitor.

2778
I wanna live man!
(nods to the body)
He just killed himself. You'd rather die for the Empire who were too lazy to even give you a real name.

2779
2779, is my name.

2778
That's a number!

MAYFIELD
Quit it all right! The Empire doesn't give a crap about you.

2779
And you do?

MAYFIELD
These are eh-hh for the most part honorable people. Their word is true. They will let you live.

2778, and 2779 both nod.

MANDO
So, that ship?

2778
It's a Cargo Cruiser.

MANDO
Is there beskar on the ship?

2778

We just guard the safes. We aren't told what's inside.

MANDO

Sounds good enough to me.

MAYFIELD

You kidding me? You're going all in on a maybe?

MANDO

Yeah, and they're coming with us. We'll need their help navigating around the ship.

MAYFIELD

I thought that's what I was here for!

MANDO

You said it yourself, the place could be a maze.

Mayfield grudgingly nods.

MAYFIELD

Right. Okay, okay, fine.

(to 2778 and 2779)

If either one of you even thinks about turning on us, my blaster will be the last thing you hear.

19 EXT. DROPSHIP - CONTINUOUS

19

Fennec and the Tuscan board their speeders as the ship's engines rev up. The landing legs retract into the ship, and they're off.

We follow the ship as it exits Tatooine.

20 INT. LANDING DECK - CONTINUOUS

20

Through a small window, 2778 watches as the planet gets smaller, and smaller, while 2779 sits against the wall. Boba, now in a stormtrooper suit, keeps an eye on them.

BOBA

Beautiful isn't it?

2778

I've never seen anything like it.

BOBA
My home planet, Kamino was beautiful. Covered in water.

2778
What happened to it?

BOBA
Kamino was home to the clone trooper program. By the end of the Clone Wars, the Empire no longer saw it as an asset. So, they destroyed it. They rained down Star-Cruiser missiles and demolished any and all living things that were left...Their own people...dead.

2778's posture slumps. Boba places his hand on his shoulder.

BOBA (CONT'D)
That is who the Empire is at its core. Once something is no longer of value to them, they obliterate it...We are not so different, I was a clone like yourself, so was Mayfield, but what makes a so-called clone is not thinking for oneself.

21 INT. DROPSHIP - COCKPIT - CONTINUOUS

21

Mayfield flies the ship while Mando and Greef walk about the cockpit. All three are in stormtrooper outfits. Greef reaches for a button.

MAYFIELD
Don't touch that.

Greef pulls his hand away.

GREEF Why?

MAYFIELD
Cuz I said so...and I don't know what would happen but don't touch anything.

Through the windshield they now have eyes on the Cargo Cruiser...

The ship is a monstrous. Boba, and the two troopers enter.

MANDO

You two know your around this ship, right?

Then the ship shakes as the Cargo Cruiser's tractor beam pulls the ship in.

Mayfield takes his hands off the wheel.

BASE OPERATOR

Dropship 23347, you're good to go in sector 35, prepare for boarding upon arrival.

22 INT. CARGO CRUISER - LANDING DOCK - CONTINUOUS 22

The dropship lands and is approached by an OFFICER and three stormtroopers.

23 INT. DROPSHIP - CONTINUOUS 23

Mando and the gang stand in two lines behind Mayfield.

MAYFIELD

Follow my lead.
(to 78 and 79)
Remember what I said.

He taps his blaster.

OFFICER (O.S.)

Open the door.

Mayfield hits a button and the door opens, but it stops halfway. Mayfield hits the button again, the door closes, and Mayfield hits the button again.

MAYFIELD

Sorry, Officer, it must've gotten damaged in the ambush.

The door opens halfway and stops again.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)

(to himself)
Piece of Tauntuan crap.

OFFICER

Open the damn door!

Mayfield spams the button and the door just wiggles up and down.

MANDO

Are you pressing it all the way?

MAYFIELD

It's a button, yes I'm pressing it all the--

He presses the button in a bit more, and the door TSSSSS as it opens.

The officer and troopers board the ship. The Troopers immediately start looking around the ship for evidence.

STORMTROOPER

All clear, sir.

OFFICER

Someone want to tell me how a simple extraction turned into a damn ambush!?

MAYFIELD

Yessir, see--

2778

Everything was going normal sir until we got ambushed by some pirates, who said they worked for Boba Fett.

OFFICER

Boba Fett?

2778

Yes officer, Bib Fortuna is dead.
They informed us that--

BOBA

Those are Fett's sands now.

The look on the Officer's face is surprised.

OFFICER

What of the droids?

2779

All down sir, we were lucky to escape with our lives. Shocktrooper 55 risked his life for us. He should be remembered as a hero, sir.

OFFICER (salutes)
Long live the Empire.

One of the Stormtroopers whispers something to the Officer's ear. The Officer's eyes widen as he nods.

OFFICER (CONT'D)
Well, it's good to have you all back. Assume your normal positions at once.

Mando and the gang salute the Officer as he exits.

24

INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS

24

The gang turns a corner, so they can strategize.

MANDO
We need to split up, cover more ground.

MAYFIELD
I need to get to a command console.

He looks to 2778 and 2779, who don't know what he's talking about.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
You two don't know what I'm talking about do ya.

They shake their heads no.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
(under his breath)
Idiots...Okay, there's normally one outside the prison bay, can one of you get me there?

2778
I can.

MANDO
Good. You'll take us to the safes.

Two stormtroopers walk by. Mando and the gang act normal.

MAYFIELD
(whispers)
Remember, as discrete as possible.
Let's go.

2778 and Mayfield head down one end of the hallway, while Mando, Greef, Boba, and 2779 head the opposite way.

25 INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS 25

2778 and Mayfield come to a crossroads. 2778 stops and looks around.

MAYFIELD
Which way?

2778
Uhh, uhh this way.

They head down a hallway, while we cut back to the sign. There's a logo that signals a prison.

26 INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS 26

Mando, Greef, and Boba follow behind 2779. They pass a group of Stormtroopers, then peel off down a new hallway. Smooth sailing.

27 INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS 27

2778 and Mayfield approach a turn. Around the corner is a COMMANDER and three officers, one Officer is the same from earlier.

2778 and Mayfield approach the corner, but just before 2778 steps into view, Mayfield pulls him back.

Mayfield peeks around the corner to try and hear the conversation.

COMMANDER
Boba Fett?

OFFICER
Yes, that's what the trooper said.

COMMANDER
Find this trooper, now!

The Commander struts towards Mayfield and 2778. They quickly post up, and salute as the Commander as he walks past.

The Commander exits.

MAYFIELD
 (into comm)
 We've got a problem.

INTERCUT: Mando and his crew as they navigate the halls.

MANDO
 What is it?

MAYFIELD
 The Commander wants to speak to one of us.

MANDO
 How long does that give us?

MAYFIELD
 I don't know, but we gotta hurry.

Mayfield and 2778 pick up their pace.

They turn corner after corner after corner until they come to a familiar crossroads.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
 We just went in a circle!

2778
 I'm trying alright. This place is a maze.

MAYFIELD
 You said you could get me to the prison bay.

2778 looks at the signs.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
 What are you looking at?

Mayfield looks up and sees the signs. He looks to each of the halls.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
 About time they added these...This way.

2778 follows.

Commander struts in. An officer approaches him.

OFFICER 2
Sir you have a message from...

Officer 2 whispers into the Commander's ear. He nods and heads to a separate room.

He shuts the door, presses a button, and a figure appears on the screen. It's cowl covers it's face.

FIGURE
Is the beskar secured?

COMMANDER
Yessir.

FIGURE
We shall prep the furnaces.
Remember to pay our confidant please.

COMMANDER
Yessir. Long live the empire.

FIGURE
Long live the empire.

The Figure CLICKS off.

29

INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS

29

2779 leads the way for Mando, Greef, and Boba.

GREEF
Are we almost there?

2779 Yes, we--

A squadron of 20 troopers crosses in-front of them.

They wait for them to pass.

As the last couple troopers pass, behind them is Officer Three.

OFFICER THREE
Troopers, file in line.

They pause, but then follow along.

30

INT. SHIP BAY - CONTINUOUS

30

Storm troopers stand in single file lines that face a podium. Giant flags with the Empire's logo hang around.

The last couple squadrons of troopers fill in.

2779, Mando, Greef, and Boba stand next to each other.

In the line ahead of them, two troopers converse.

STORMTROOPER
Quite the turnout.

STORMTROOPER 2
Gotta say I like the flags.

All the commotion quiets as the Commander takes the stage.

COMMANDER
The galaxy thinks the Empire is dead. But, we are still alive. We are not just living, but we are thriving!

The crowd YEAAAHS!

Commander raises his hand and the crowd quiets.

COMMANDER (CONT'D)
We grow stronger, more powerful by the day...

Mando looks to Boba, then back up.

COMMANDER (CONT'D)
The Empire will rise again, and that rising will be because of you!

Off the Commander we transition to...

31

INT. PRISON BAY - CONTINUOUS

31

2778 and Mayfield turn down the hall to see a command console with two stormtroopers operating it.

MAYFIELD Finally.
(into comm)
Mando, we made it to the console.
Where are you?

INTERCUT: Mando and his gang at the Commanders motivational speech.

MANDO
In the middle of something.

In the background from Mando, Mayfield hears the commotion.

MAYFIELD
Are you at a speech?

BOBA
Seems that way.

GREEF
Definitely, some speech.

Mando looks around for an exit.

MANDO
If we move, we'll stick out like a sore thumb.

MAYFIELD
You want us to hold still?

MANDO
Yes.

Mayfield looks at the two Stormtroopers at the console, one of them comm's with someone.

MAYFIELD
Can't do that boss, I'm getting a bad feeling.

MANDO
Mayfield, hold off.

Mayfield steps down the hallway.

MANDO (CONT'D)
Just wait!

This causes some troopers to turn and look at Mando.

MANDO (CONT'D)
(coughs)
Wow, what a speech.

The troopers turn to their normal position.

32 INT. PRISON BAY - CONTINUOUS 32

2778 and Mayfield approach the console.

STORMTROOPER 1
Orders?

MAYFIELD
Yeah, we've got orders to uhhh what was his name?

2778
It was uhh, Fraitor?

MAYFIELD
No, no, no it was--

BANG. BANG. Mayfield shoots both stormtroopers behind the console.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
Keep a lookout will ya.

Mayfield moves the dead bodies out of his way and gets to work.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
Alright, where are you beskar?
(into comm)
Mando, I'm in.

33 INT. SHIP BAY - CONTINUOUS 33

COMMANDER
We will be on top again! Long live the Empire!

The crowd CHANTS back

CROWD
Long live the Empire! Long live the Empire!

Mando, Boba, and Greef don't chant it back.

Officer Three at the end of their line looks down at them and takes notice.

34 INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS 34

Troopers head back to their positions. Mando, 2779, Greef, and Boba exit the pack.

MANDO
 (into comm)
 Mayfield, how're we doing?

MAYFIELD (O.S.)
 I'm working on it.

Officer Three approaches them.

OFFICER THREE
 Some speech wasn't it.

2779
 Yessir.

GREEF Yessir.

BOBA
 I've never felt so inspired.

OFFICER THREE
 Right, right...You two come with me
 please.

He turns and walks away, but none of them follow.

He turns back.

OFFICER
 Come along, now...Don't make me call your commanding officers.

GREEF
 To where, sir?

OFFICER
 That's classified trooper. Come along now.

BOBA
 No.

2779 looks at Boba, what have you done?

The Officer walks back.

OFFICER THREE
 (stern)
 That word is not in your vocabulary trooper.

MANDO We've got orders to return to our post.

OFFICER
Yes, and now your post is with me...ALL OF YOU follow me, now!

The Officer turns. He doesn't hear any of them move.

OFFICER THREE
I said...

He slides his hand to his blaster holster.

OFFICER THREE (CONT'D) Follow--

BANG. Mando kills the Officer before he can turn.

At the end of the hall a couple Troopers stop, and look directly at them.

There's a pause.

MANDO Run.

The gang takes off as they run away from a flurry of blaster fire.

MANDO (CONT'D)
(into comm)
Mayfield, we could use a distraction.

INT. PRISON BAY - INTERCUT

MAYFIELD
I thought we said as quiet as possible.

MANDO Yeah, well we need something...something big.

Mayfield continues to hack into the control system.

MAYFIELD
I've almost got it.

2778 turns and watches Mayfield work.

On the console screen, we see Mayfield's hands swipe things off the screen, then he pulls up a menu of things in the safes. He scrolls through them. No beskar, but four are labeled Classified.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)
All right, I've got four safes labeled classified.

MANDO
Where's the beskar?

MAYFIELD
It's gotta be in one of the classified safes. 33, 55, 77, and 101.

MANDO
You can't just give us THE one.

MAYFIELD
That's the best I got boss--

Two Stormtroopers stand at the doorway

STORMTROOPER Stop!

MAYFIELD
I thought I told you keep watch!

Mayfield shoots one them and quickly ducks behind the console, while 2778 shoots the other one. Both escape uninjured.

MANDO
We need that distraction.

Mayfield looks at the prison cells.

MAYFIELD
(into comm)
I got a distraction, and uhhh you're not gonna like it.

MANDO
Just do it!

Mayfield hops back onto the console and pulls up an "open all cells" button on the screen.

BOOP. He presses the screen.

All the prison cells doors open, one opens to reveal a rugged looking dude, DREDGE.

The alarms SOUND.

MAYFIELD

Let's go!

2778 and Mayfield sprint off down the hall.

We stay outside the prison for a beat as the prisoners exit their cells.

36 INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS

36

Mando, Greef, Boba, and 2779 run from stormtroopers. They approach a crossroads.

2779

This way.

They start to head down the hall, but a group of stormtroopers step in the way.

The gang is forced to find cover along the walls.

The alarm RINGS, the shooting stops. All the troopers look to the speakers.

ALARM (O.S.)

Prisoners released, repeat, all personnel report to the prison bay.

STORMTROOPER

What the hell?

The troopers look back down the hall...Mando and his gang are gone.

37 INT. COMMAND CENTER - CONTINUOUS

37

The Commander stands tall amongst the officers.

COMMANDER

Someone want to tell me what the hell is going on!?

OFFICER

(points to his screen)

It seems we've got a couple rogue stormtroopers, sir.

On his tv screen, we see Mando and his gang running down the hallway.

COMMANDER
What sector are they in?

OFFICER
This footage is just outside the cargo sector.

The Commanders eyes widen.

COMMANDER
Get all troopers to the cargo bay.

OFFICER
What about the prisoners?

COMMANDER
Kill them. But, I want those troopers captured alive.

38 INT. HALLWAY - CONTINUOUS

38

Mayfield and 2778 make their way to the cargo bay sector.

MAYFIELD
(into comm)
Mando, where are you?

INT. HALLWAY - INTERCUT

Mando and his gang get closer the cargo bay.

MANDO
Just outside the cargo bay sector.

2778
How do you plan to get the beskar off the ship?

MAYFIELD
How do you get it on?

2778
Well, the transportation of the cargo is pretty simple. It's all allocated at the bottom of the ship, that way we can use ships to move the heavier cargo.

MAYFIELD

We'll do the opposite. Mando, you got it?

MANDO

Yep.

MAYFIELD

Where can we get one of those ships?

2778

Now, that I know how to get.

39 INT. HALLWAY

39

The Commander struts with a group of stormtroopers behind him. They hop in an elevator.

40 INT. ELEVATOR

40

They slowly move down the different levels. The elevator makes a BOOP after each floor is passed.

Out of the silence one of the stormtroopers speaks up.

STORMTROOPER

(clears throat)

Just wanna say Commander I thought your speech earlier was phenomenal.

Silence fills the elevator...

DING. The doors open and they exit, but the Stormtrooper that spoke is the last one out. He SIGHS, then exits.

41 INT. CARGO BAY - CONTINUOUS

41

Mando, Greef, 2779, and Boba go through a door which reveals...

GREEF

My god.

It's incredible. The amount of safes, but also the transportation of cargo in and out of the safes with the use of smaller transpo ships. The use of different droids, patrol troopers, the Empire has got it down.

GREEF (CONT'D)

I may need to take notes.

They maneuver their way discreetly.

2779

Don't fall. There's no coming back.

We see the shield which allows ships in and out, not people.

Out of the corner of Mando's eye he spots stormtroopers.

MANDO

Move!

He pulls his blaster and shoots two stormtroopers who fall over the railing and into the coldness of space.

BOBA

Safes 33, 55, 77, and 101.

MANDO

(into comm)

How's that ship coming Mayfield?

INT. HALLWAY - INTERCUT

Mayfield and 2778 as they approach the entryway to the landing deck.

MAYFIELD

We're getting there.

MANDO

What happened to that distraction?

Mayfield shoots a couple of troopers, then him and 2778 take cover behind a pillar.

MAYFIELD

That's a good question.

2778 shoots at some troopers and continues to miss.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)

You can't shoot?

2778

I can, it's just--

He shoots a couple more shots and he misses.

MAYFIELD

Just what?

2778
It's the helmet!

2778 takes his helmet off, and shoots five stormtroopers.

2778 (CONT'D)
See.

But, at the end of the hall is Dredge with his prison gang.
They've got blasters.

MAYFIELD
Let's go.

Mayfield and 2778 take off for the landing dock. Mayfield looks back and witnesses...

Dredge and the prisoners as they battle a group of stormtroopers.

Dredge sparta kicks one trooper, then hits another in the head with the butt-cap of his blaster then shoots both troopers through the eye lens.

42 INT. LANDING DECK - CONTINUOUS 42

Mayfield and 2778 look for the correct ship, there's blaster fire from all directions. Prisoners attempt to hijack ships.

(points)
That's the one.

Among the blaster fire sits a SMALL Imperial TRANSPOR SHIP.

They head towards it, but immediately receive blaster fire.
They duck behind the legs of a ship and shoot back.

43 INT. CARGO BAY - INTERCUT 43

Mando and his rag tag bandits (Greef, Boba, and 2779) approach safe 33.

MANDO
This is 33.

He steps to the control pad next to the door.

MANDO (CONT'D)
How do we open it?

He taps a button and finger print scanner pops out.

MANDO (CONT'D)
(into comm)
We need a finger print.

44

INT. LANDING DECK - INTERCUT

44

Mayfield and 2778 move to another place for cover.

MAYFIELD
You just say finger print?

2778 Yeah, you need a finger print to access the safe.

MAYFIELD
Are you trying to sabotage us!?

2778
Well, I thought we'd all be dead by now.

MAYFIELD
You and me both.

2778 shoots a couple more stormtroopers.

45

INT. CARGO BAY - SAFE 33

45

MANDO
(to 2779)
Try your finger.

2779 sets his thumb, the scanner turns red.

BOBA
You defend the safes, but don't have access to them, so who does?

2779
An officer or--

They get cornered by some troopers and attempt to shoot back.
Mando kills a couple troopers, as do Boba, and Greef.

GREEF
We need an Officer's finger print.
Where are we gonna find that!?

A blaster shock ricochets off the metal and hits the finger print scanner causing it to retract.

GREEF (CONT'D)

No no no!

2779

Crap we just triggered the extra protection. We need a passcode too.

The safe reinforces a barrier door for protection.

46 INT. LANDING DECK 46

Mayfield and 2778 make it to the Transpo ship and climb in.

47 INT. TRANSPO SHIP 47

Mayfield gets the ship off the ground, but the engines malfunction a little.

LANDING DECK OPERATOR (O.S.)

Transpo 565, you do not have clearance for take off.

MAYFIELD

(to himself)

Come on.

Mayfield hits the gas but nothing happens.

MAYFIELD (CONT'D)

Come on!

LANDING DECK OPERATOR (O.S.)

I repeat, transpo 565 you do not have clearance for take off. Stand down, or be eliminated.

Mayfield presses button after button.

2778

You take off the emergency break?

Mayfield takes off the emergency brake and bingo ship is up.

48 INT. LANDING DECK 48

Giant blasters begin to lock onto the transpo ship.

49 INT. LANDING DECK - CONTROL ROOM 49

LANDING DECK OPERATOR, sits at his podium.

LANDING DECK OPERATOR
Eliminating in 5,4,3,2--

We hear the door open behind him open. A figure walks up to the operator.

LANDING DECK OPERATOR (CONT'D)
1--

Dredge grabs the operator out of his chair...

50 INT. TRANSPOR SHIP

50

Through the windshield, we see the control room just light up with blaster fire.

MAYFIELD
(into comm)
We've got the ship.

51 INT. CARGO BAY - SAFE 33

51

Mando and his crew fight off stormtroopers, but then the shooting stops.

COMMANDER (O.C.)
Reveal yourselves.

We see the Commander stand in front of a group of stormtroopers.

COMMANDER (CONT'D)
You've caused us enough trouble.
Turn yourselves in now, and your lives will be spared.

BOBA
Don't give us that lie.

COMMANDER
On a Commander's honor, I swear your lives you will be spared...

The Commander proceeds to talk but it fades as Boba and Mando discuss.

MANDO
His print will open the safes.

They both peek around the corner and zero in on his fingers.

Mando nods.

COMMANDER
What's it gonna be fellas?

The Commander slides his hand to his blaster, and awaits a response.

52 INT. TRANSPOR SHIP - INTERCUT 52

They gently come up through the shield.

MAYFIELD
Crap, that's the Commander.

53 INT. CARGO BAY - SAFE 33 53

Mando looks to 2779 who looks flustered.

MANDO
Don't stand.

2779
Why?

MANDO
He'll kill you.

2779
He just offered us our lives.

BOBA
You can't go back.

2779 looks at Mando, then back at the Commander. He sets his blaster down, raises both arms, and stands.

2779
I surrend--

BANG!

2779 looks down at his chest, he's been shot. His footing stumbles closer to the railing.

Boba reaches for his hand, but it's too late! 2779's body topples over the edge and falls towards space.

54 INT. TRANSPOR SHIP 54

Through the windshield we see 2779's body fall.

2778

No!

MAYFIELD

Hang on kid!

Mayfield opens a door then maneuvers the ship so 2779 falls into the ship.

55 INT. CARGO BAY - SAFE 33

55

Mando peeks around and shoots the Commander's finger clean off.

The Commander drops his blaster, and immediately retreats.

COMMANDER

Kill them!

Mando, Boba, and Greef unload their blasters at the troopers as they inch closer to getting the finger.

Amongst the dead troopers is the Commander's finger.

MANDO

Cover me!

Greef and Boba unleash their weapons.

Mando takes off for the finger, grabs it, and hustles back to the safe.

MANDO (CONT'D)

We gotta move!

They fight there way to the next safe.

56 INT. TRANSPO SHIP

56

2778 holds 2779 as his breathing wheezes.

2778

We've gotta get him some help.

MAYFIELD

He'll get it, but we need that beskar first.

57 INT. CARGO BAY - SAFE 55

57

Mando, Greef, and Boba clear out to outside the safe.

MANDO

Here!

He tosses the finger to Greef, and turns to return fire.

Greef scans the finger, the safe opens. He takes a look inside, then quickly shuts it.

GREEF

Now, that's messed up.

He's got the look of a teenager who's just come across some whacky google search...yeah you know exactly what I mean.

BOBA

Not it?

GREEF

That ain't beskar.

We see stormtroopers start to fire at the Transpo ship.

58 INT. TRANSPO SHIP

58

MAYFIELD

Hang on!

Mayfield tries his best to avoid the blaster fire, but takes some damage.

2778 grabs hold of latches in the back, and lies next to his friend.

2778

Stay alive, all right!

MAYFIELD

This thing got any guns?

2778 stands confident.

2778

Give me your blaster, and open the door.

2778 hooks himself up to a cable so he doesn't fly out. Mayfield tosses him his blaster, and opens the door.

2778 unloads on the stormtroopers, causing them to cower away for a little bit.

59 INT. CARGO BAY - SAFE 77

59

Because 2778 has got most of the attention, Mando, Boba, and Greef make their way to the safe.

Once they get there, Mando turns and sees the Transpo ship take some hits, and start to smoke.

MANDO

This may be our last one.

Boba and Greef turn and see the same thing.

Mando and Boba each pick up an extra blaster. Greef opens the safe...

Inside sits the 4 by 4 BLACK CONTAINER.

MANDO (CONT'D)

Boba and I will buy Mayfield some time. That ship is our way out of here, beskar or no beskar.

Mando and Boba unload fire and go ham on the stormtroopers. They dodge shots, and leap frog like Navy Seals. An army of two that feels like a hundred.

Dead stormtroopers bodies fall over the rails and to space.

60 INT. SAFE 77

60

Greef approaches the 4x4 slick black container. On it is another finger print scanner. He holds the Commander's finger to it. The crate TSSSS as smoke falls out from it and the top of it opens.

GREEF

My god.

(into comm)

It's here. Mayfield bring the ship up.

Greef gets behind the container and starts to push it, and it barely budes. He pushes harder, and it moves a little.

61 EXT/INT. SAFE 77

61

Mayfield turns the Transpo ship to its side so the container can slide on easily.

2778 hops off with some cables to attach to the container.

Inside the safe he hands one cable to Greef. They each lock it into a whole.

2778
Mayfield, we're clear.

The cables start to retract the container of beskar.

Greef and 2778 hop on the ship.

However along the catwalk, we see Mando and Boba continue to fight off stormtroopers.

Mando sees the first Officer run away.

MANDO
Cover me!

BOBA
Mando, we've gotta go!

But it's too late, Mando's gone after the Officer. Boba covers him.

62 INT. HALLWAY

62

Mando sprints after the Officer. He shoots the Officer in the leg.

But, the Officer limps away. Mando, shoots his other leg. The officers collapses to the ground and drop his blaster.

OFFICER
Please don't kill me. I beg you.

Mando kicks the officer's gun away.

MANDO
Where'd you get the beskar?

OFFICER
I-I don't know!

Mando holds the end of his blaster to the officers head.

MANDO
Tell me and you'll live.

OFFICER
I swear! I don't know!

BOBA (O.C.)
Mando! Let's go, we got what we came for!

Boba stands behind him.

Mando still holds the blaster to the Officer's head.

BOBA (CONT'D)
We've done enough killing.

Mando pulls the blaster away, and follows Boba back to the ship.

We stay with Officer as he cries on the ground. He looks down the hall and there's Dredge with his group of prisoners.

63 EXT. CARGO CRUISER - SPACE 63

We hear the Officer SCEAMS and PLEADS, as we see the Transpo Ship exit the Cargo cruiser.

64 INT. TRANSPO SHIP - CONTINUOUS 64

Mando looks in the safe. Boba watches him.

MANDO
Where did they get this much?

BOBA
The Empire may be dead to the galaxy, but their influence is still very strong.

2778 sits next to his wheezing friend. Greef approaches 2778.

GREEF
You got balls kid.
(to 2779)
Keep breathing.

MAYFIELD
Alright, everyone hang on. I'm not sure how this thing will do breaching atmosphere with this damage.

Everyone either buckles in or grabs on to something.

65 EXT. PLANET TATOOINE - DAY 65

The Transpo ship smokes and even catches fire as it breaks through the atmosphere.

Pieces of metal start to fly off one after another.

They approach closer and closer to the ground.

66 INT. TRANSPO SHIP 66

MANDO

We're coming in too fast!

MAYFIELD

Oh really, I thought we were slowing down!

67 EXT. TATOOINE DESERT 67

The ship gets closer and closer to the ground.

68 INT. TRANSPO SHIP 68

MAYFIELD

Hang on!

69 EXT. TATOOINE DESERT 69

From a Tuscan's view, we see the Transpo ship crash land among the sand. Somehow remaining somewhat together.

EXT. TRANSPO SHIP

The gang exits the transpo ship. Each of them limps.

MANDO

That was the best you could do?

Mayfield SCOFFS...But then turns and looks back at the container of beskar.

He starts to laugh. It becomes contagious. Greef starts, then Boba, 2778, and finally Mando.

A group of Tuscans surrounds them. Everyone reaches for the weapon except Boba.

BOBA
Lower your weapons!
(they don't)
Now!

They lower their weapons.

Boba speaks Tuscan to the leader. He explains who he is. He points to 2779 in the ship.

The Tuscan nods.

70 INT/EXT. BOBA'S PALACE - SUNSET 70

From the balcony, Fennec looks through binoculars and watches the sky's and sands for signs of Boba.

Through the binoculars we see her scan the clouds, and dunes. Nothing...

But wait, there's a shimmer reflection of light from the top of a sand dune. She zooms in...It's Boba!

71 EXT. BOBA'S PALACE - CONTINUOUS 71

2778 and 2779 Greef ride on top of a Bantha. While Mando, Greef, Boba and Mayfield walk next to the beast.

They approach the gate. It opens. Fennec, and KRRSANTAN jog to them.

BOBA
Get this one to the bacta tank,
now.

2778 slides 2779's body to Krrsantan who carries it over his shoulder.

Fennec looks at the container, she's impressed.

FENNEC
All that trouble, for that.

73 INT. BOBA'S PALACE - BACTA TANK - LATER 73

2778 stands beside the bacta tank as 2779 heals inside it. He places his hand on the glass.

2778
We're finally free.

MAYFIELD (O.C.)
How's he doing?

Mayfield approaches 2778 with a bag of beskar

2778 Seems good.

Mayfield places his hand on 2778's shoulder.

MAYFIELD
We decided you both should get a share. Any idea what you'll do with it?

2778
Travel the systems, hopefully.
Start a new life.

MAYFIELD
(smiles)
Why don't you come with me then?

74 INT. BOBA'S PALACE - SHIP BAY - CONTINUOUS

74

Mando and Greef board Greef's ship. Boba and Fennec watch as they go.

BOBA
Leaving so soon?

MANDO
I've got to find out where the Empire got that beskar. If you here anything let me know.

BOBA
You have my word. And what of you Greef?

GREEF
I've gotta get back to my people.
This beskar will allow us to upgrade our security, which means less raids from pirates.

BOBA
I wish you all the best.

They shake hands.

BOBA (CONT'D)
Till we meet again...Mando, do be careful, this journey your wanting may reveal something terrifying.

Mando nods.

Greef and Mando board the ship and exit.

FADE OUT.
