IMPORTANT NOTES

I realize there are a lot of areas of this document that could be time consuming to fill in (the image holders). In some cases, buyers love to customize it and make their own so I have left the image holders blank.

I have also included the following pages which contain the completed image holders for textile and materials information.

If you prefer to use the completed pages, delete the blank ones. Click and drag the completed pages to the correct place.

If you prefer to add your own images, simply delete the following pages.
