Did you know about the Saints: On February 3, we celebrate the feast of Saint Blaise. Blaise was a doctor and Bishop of Sebastia which is in modern day Turkey. Many miracles were documented showing the intercession of Saint Blaise in the "Acts of Saint Blaise" which was written approximately 400 years after his death. Blaise also showed great kindness to animals which is why he is often depicted alongside wild animals. Tradition is that he would go into the woods frequently to feed and heal any wounded animals. In the year 316, Blaise was arrested for being a Christian. While in the hands of his captors, a woman laid her son who had a fishbone stuck in his throat at the Saint's feet. The child was cured but Blaise was still put to death for not renouncing his faith. The relics of Saint Blaise are located in the Cathedral at Dubrovnik, Croatia. "Saint Blaise, holy Bishop and Martyr, friend of animals great and small, intercede for us. Through thy prayers, may God preserve us from sickness and all other evils. Amen."

Pope Leo XIV said: Sacred Scripture, which is the inspired Word of God, and Sacred Tradition, the living memory of the Church, are intimately bound together. They form the one Deposit of Faith, which helps us navigate the complexities of life to reach our eternal home in Heaven.

Pastor's Note: Called to humble service.... Jesus began his public ministry courageously proclaiming the arrival of the Kingdom of Heaven and then inviting others to join forces with him, to proclaim the Good News of Salvation. In this Sunday's reading, we focus on how Jesus is reinterpreting the Jewish law, giving its real meaning and inviting people to have a new outlook on their faith and the way they live out that faith. The incarnation of Jesus was an act of humility, where he who is God takes human form and came down to save the people. All the readings speak about humility and presents humility as a virtue that wins the favor of God. The first reading is an extract from the Book of the Prophet Zephaniah. It calls on the people to seek justice and humility. It goes on to say that the Lord will protect the people who trust in him, and these people will be humble and reliant on the power of God, always striving to do what is right and who will always speak the truth. The Responsorial Psalm extolls the virtues of our God who always cares for the people who are in need, who will trust in the power of God and rely on God for their protection. In the second reading, St. Paul reminds us that the Lord chooses the humble to deal with the mighty and the powerful. God's ways are in direct contrast to the ways of the world, where the powerful receive honor and glory. God chooses the powerless to shame the powerful, and to strengthen the reputation of the weak. In the Gospel, Jesus, like Moses, who gave the Law, gives a new set of laws, where he highlights the blessings that will come upon the ones who are humble and use their lives to serve others. The ones who are messengers of peace, and the agents of goodness to people around them, will receive abundant blessings from the Lord. These Beatitudes became the hallmark of the attitude of Jesus' disciples.

HAVE A LAUGH: Last year, my wife and I traveled to Europe for a Christian conference. At customs, an agent held out his hand and said, "Papers." I replied, "Scissors," and was glad I won that round.
