Pope Francis says:

Our Lenten prayer can take any number of different forms, but what truly matters in God's eyes is that it penetrates deep within us and chips away at our hardness of heart, in order to convert us to Him.

Hope House

The Ladies of St Joseph are collecting baby items for Corpus Christi Hope House. This organization offers shelter and assistance to families and their children regardless of race, age, ethnicity, religion, or disability. There is a bassinet in the foyer of the church for baby supplies (i.e., diapers: newborn to size 6, baby formula: Similac Sensitive, new and gently used maternity and baby clothes, and baby care items). Thank you, we appreciate your help!

Pastor's Note: Life-giving waters to keep us going....

The second Sunday of Lent focused on the glory that awaits us, and inspired us to walk the path of discipleship with courage. What should urge us on, as we follow Jesus, withstanding all the temptations that come our way, is the assurance that we will be rewarded with a much more glorified life than what we experience now. And yet this journey requires the energy to keep going, especially when the going is tough. Today the focus is on this energy. Jesus talks about the life giving waters that he will give to those who believe in him. This water will then become the source of life for the disciple who seeks to do the will of the Father. The 'living water' which Jesus gives, will enable those who believe in him, to keep going in the direction in which Jesus guides them. The water Jesus is talking about is not a material thing, but a spiritual gift. When one is filled with the power of love, which Jesus puts in those who believe in him, it makes it easier for them to do what is right, even when they face difficult circumstances. Like Moses, who gave water to the people of Israel, when they were dying of thirst in the desert, Jesus gives his followers the power of love. As we continue on our Lenten journey, we are called to be filled with the power of love, the source of energy for our walk with Jesus.

Please Pray For the Sick:

Alyn Snell, Clayton Gard, Mike McBreen, Emily McBreen, Clay Fedak, and all who are in need of prayer. If you would like to add someone to the prayer list, please call: (361)749-5825.

Have A Laugh . . . Maria Told Her Mother Gladly

Maria came home from Sunday School on Palm Sunday and told her mother that she had learned a new song about a cross-eyed bear named Gladly.

It took her mother a while before she realized that the hymn Maria had been singing was really: "Gladly The Cross I'd Bear."
