Did you know about the Saints ... On May 26th, we celebrate the Feast of Saint Philip Neri (1515–1595). Philip's personality was engaging, attractive, and magnetic. Before being ordained as a priest, he spent 13 years as a layperson who focused on prayer and the apostolate. His personality afforded him the opportunity to influence many people where he stressed the importance of living visibly as a Catholic. Philip would routinely greet others with the statement, "Well, brothers, when shall we begin to do good." Philip became an excellent confessor and also started the Congregation of the Oratory. He was commonly referred to as the "Apostle of Rome." The Lord provided Philip many mystical experiences including the insight into souls.

PRAYER FOR THE SYNOD: We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name. With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts; Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it. We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder. Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right. All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever. Amen

Different Articulations of Synodality

The second perspective considers how the People of God journey together with the entire human family. Thus, our gaze will focus on the state of relations dialogue, and possible common initiatives with believers of other religions, with people who are distant from the faith, as well as with specific social environments and groups, with their institutions (the world of politics, culture, economics, finance, labor, trade unions, and business associations, non-governmental and civil society organizations, popular movements, minorities of various kinds, the poor and the excluded, etc.).

Please Pray For the Sick: Patti Hyland, John Chesshir, Raymond Stanley, Cheryl Hole, Bob Wallace, Debbie Wallace, George Snell, Elvia Tamayo, Shirley Culp, Sandy Clark, Roco Logiodice, Jim Koenig, Betty Paschal, Tony Paschal, Mike Gibbs, Larry Tipler, Clayton Gard, Deodato Ruiz, Jr., and all who are in need of prayer.

Please Pray For the Deceased:

Pope Francis says:

Beatitude, holiness, is not a life plan made up only of effort and renunciation, but is above all the joyful discovery of being God's beloved children.

GOSPEL: Jn 14: 23-29

Jesus said to his disciples:
 "Whoever loves me will keep my word,
 and my Father will love him,
 and we will come to him and make our dwelling with him.

Whoever does not love me does not
 keep my words;

yet the word you hear is not mine
 but that of the Father who sent me.

"I have told you this while I am with
 you.

The Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name,

will teach you everything

and remind you of all that I told you.

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.

Not as the world gives do I give it to
 you.

Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid.

You heard me tell you,

"I am going away and I will come back to you."

If you loved me,

you would rejoice that I am going to the Father;

for the Father is greater than I.

And now I have told you this before it happens,

so that when it happens you may believe."

HAVE A LAUGH: A farmer named Muldoon lived alone in the countryside with a wee dog that he loved and doted on. After many long years of faithful companionship, the dog finally died, so Muldoon went to the parish priest.

"Father, my dear old dog is dead. Could you be saying a Mass for him?"

Father Patrick replied, "I am so very sorry to hear about your dog's death. But, unfortunately I can't say Mass for the poor creature."

Muldoon said, "I understand, Father, I do. I guess I'll go to this new denomination down the road; no tellin' what they believe. Do you think $5000 is enough to donate for the service?"

Father Patrick: "Why didn't you tell me your wee dog was Catholic?!"
