

Endless Food Options Await

Complete Financial Check-In so you can Baskin (Robbins) all your dining options

There's a lot to look forward to during your time at Liberty University. And we're not going to lie — the food on campus is pretty great.

When you complete Financial Check-In, you'll receive your meal plan, which is your golden ticket to on-campus dining. In addition to more than 20 options provided by Liberty Dining Services, you'll also be able to use your meal plan to purchase some of your favorite brands, including:

- Baskin-Robbins
- Chick-fil-A
- Dunkin' Donuts
- Pizza Hut
- Starbucks

This fall, we're even introducing a restaurant into the mix. Einstein Bros. Bagels will be a new resident of the Jerry Falwell Library's Tinney Café.

Your stomach is calling — complete Financial Check-In today!
