Introduction¹

More than any prophet to date, one man has provoked worldwide interest by accurately predicting the future. Michel de Nostradame, popularly known as Nostradamus, was a 16th century French prophet who published a vast collection of predictions that claimed to predict the major events of the next two thousand years. Successful predictions in his own time made Nostradamus famous throughout Europe and revered by the contemporary French monarchy, nobility and intelligentsia as a prescient genius. Nostradamus' successful predictions of events after his time have galvanized his global notoriety up through the present day.

One of the central issues in the 400 year-old debate over Nostradamus' prophecies concerns the nebulous nature of his language. Nostradamus' writings are intensely poetic, rife with metaphors, word play, allusions and temporal incongruities. Although he clearly mentions names, dates, locations and events in a number of prophecies, these predictions are engulfed by the sea of nebulous language. Like poetry, the interpretations of his writings are partly the author's understanding of the prophecies and not necessarily Nostradamus' intended predictions. While most of his prophecies allow great flexibility in interpretation, some of the most important predictions explicitly describe future events to a degree that greatly exceeds the accuracy that could be reasonably expected from blind guesses. The debate over Nostradamus has mostly been sustained by the uncanny accuracy of these clearest prophecies. The onset of the millennial 9/11 War has rekindled the debate over Nostradamus' most startling predictions about a final world war.

The central focus of Nostradamus' prophecies are three "antichrists" whom he predicted would, over the course of a few centuries, consecutively lead humanity towards the Final War of the Apocalypse. The general consensus of Nostradamus scholars is that the first two antichrists were Napoleon and Hitler, and that the third antichrist is a shadowy world leader who would begin the holy war of the Apocalypse at the onset of the third millennium on the pretext of the conflict between Islam and the West¹. The provocation of a millennial world war by Usama bin Laden has strongly suggested that this man might be the culmination of Nostradamus' epic story of the Antichrist.

THE VERACITY OF NOSTRADAMUS

Understanding Nostradamus' Success

In the 450 years since Nostradamus penned his prophecies, he has become the most widely heralded prophet in history because of the accuracy of his prognostications. Despite the continuous worldwide acclaim of his prophecies since the Middle Ages up through the modern era, there has also existed a vocal group of Nostradamus detractors who adamantly refuse to concede that he accurately predicted the future. The unfortunate perspective of these unwavering Nostradamus skeptics is necessarily limited by a handicapped motivation to understand the prophecies. These skeptics base their study of Nostradamus on the notion that they are investigating a fraud that is devoid of any supernatural influence. On the other hand, Nostradamus believers are led towards intensive study of the prophecies by their amazement at his prophetic ability and by a belief that any individual has the potential to correctly interpret the predictions and prevent some of the cataclysmic events therein detailed. Whereas the study by Nostradamus believers is energized to allow them the perseverance to overcome the traditional stumbling blocks to understanding Nostradamus, the study by Nostradamus skeptics is not propelled by the wonder and altruism that is necessary to understand Nostradamus' veracity.

The arguments of these Nostradamus skeptics reveal severe limitations in their understanding of this subject. Most commonly, Nostradamus skeptics emphasize that over the past two thousand years false prophets have repeatedly incorrectly predicted an imminent Apocalypse that never happened, and therefore any one doomsayer is most likely another fraud. Among skeptics more familiar with Nostradamus' writings, there has long been the speculation that he used cryptic and vague language in his prophecies to mask a fraud he was perpetrating on humanity. Why, they emphatically ask, would not Nostradamus simply state all his prophecies in clear and precise language? Through imprecise language, this theory maintains, Nostradamus never made a concrete prediction and instead made nebulous prophecies that could apply to any number of events. Nevertheless, these same skeptics have buttressed their indictment of Nostradamus as a fraudulent prophet with the contradictory notion that Nostradamus did in fact make some clear, precise predictions that did not come true.

The various arguments of Nostradamus skeptics display both a conspicuous failure in logical coherence and an ignorance of the clearest evidence of Nostradamus' amazing prophetic ability.

Judgment by Association to False Prophets

One amazing feature of the general public's regard of prophets is the willingness to classify all prophets as frauds because of the failures of some self-proclaimed prophets. It would certainly seem ludicrous to these same detractors if all musicians were judged to be devoid of musical talent because some self-proclaimed musicians were obvious failures. Furthermore, the art of prophecy is such a difficult skill to master that over the course of a century only a handful will succeed in gaining notoriety for this talent. Given the difficulty of the task, it is not surprising that many have failed and few have succeeded. The failures of some self-proclaimed prophets do not negate the veracity of prophecy, rather, they indicate the awesome scope of the achievement of those few who succeed in prophecy. Nostradamus' own preeminence as a continuously successful prophet demands a special inquisition into his prophecies before they can be lumped into the large body of the incorrect prophecies of the ages. The eagerness that many prophecy skeptics have displayed to impugn all prophets as false is not reflective of the fraudulent nature of prophecy, but instead indicates the deep emotional reservations people have in conceding how little we understand and control this world.

The Nebulous Language of His Prophecies

The preeminent criticism levied by Nostradamus skeptics concerns the nebulous language of most of his prophecies. If he were indeed predicting the future, why wouldn't he explicitly describe events in clear language so humanity could easily understand the predictions and avoid the catastrophes he predicts? The fact that Nostradamus cloaked most of his prophecies in obscure language, these skeptics maintain, is proof that he could not foretell the future and actually was just a fraud.

Firstly, this argument overlooks the fact that Nostradamus clearly and accurately predicted some future events (see below). Secondly, the logic of this argument is riddled by a major flaw: if Nostradamus had made his predictions so unobtrusively clear that anyone could easily grasp their meaning, our current reality, including the lives of these Nostradamus skeptics, would most probably not exist because humanity's future course would have been so dramatically altered. In the Preface to his prophecies Nostradamus explains the necessity for vague language in prophecy in order to avoid producing alternate timelines². He maintains that if the future leaders of nations knew what was to come, these facts would be so different from their own pet fantasies that they would alter the natural course of history to humanity's detriment.

If evil leaders such as Hitler, who had a well-known interest in Nostradamus' prophecies, had discovered their natural future, they could have altered the natural timeline to humanity's detriment. If Nostradamus had clearly revealed the projected future of Hitler's war in unclouded language, Hitler could have accordingly altered his war plans. For example, from 1940-1942 Hitler terminated state-sponsored research and development of special military projects because he believed he had effectively won the war. If Hitler knew the projected outcome of his war, he could have instead taken advantage of Germany's early lead in creating such "wonder weapons" as the atomic bomb and the intercontinental ballistic missile. If Hitler had used Nostradamus' prophetic insight to make such modifications to the prosecution of his war, he could well have won and conquered the world.

By using cryptic language, Nostradamus hoped to conceal his foreknowledge from the arrogant rulers of the earth while revealing it to humble messengers of God who would study his writings for love of humanity. In walking this tightrope of his prophetic responsibility, Nostradamus could only partially rely on his linguistic skill to obscure the true meaning of his prophecies from most but not all people. Invariably, as Nostradamus explains, he had to rely on his faith that God would only reveal crucial facts about future events to messengers who would not use the information to humanity's detriment. Nostradamus cloaked his valuable prophetic insights because he was acutely aware that he was charged with this enormous responsibility to warn humanity about future calamity while not adversely effecting humanity's future.

Since Nostradamus cloaked his prophecies so well that most, if not all, of them were only understood retroactively, Nostradamus' purpose in making the prophecies at all is not immediately clear. While it is not impossible that Nostradamus' prophecies could have been correctly understood and used to prevent a disaster at some point in history in a manner readily apparent to the general public, there is no known record of such an occurrence. However, an overview of the large body of Nostradamus' prophecies concerning future disasters reveals that every such prophecy is cloaked in particularly obscure language, with the exception of his prophecies on the Apocalypse. Based on these facts it can be understood that Nostradamus' purpose in making prophecies, at least up until the age of the Apocalypse, has not been to warn humanity about specific events. Instead, these pre-Apocalypse prophecies have served other purposes, such as:

- Conveying a strongly-supported general warning to humanity that we are on a course to self-destruction,
- Providing retroactive proof of predestination,
- Offering a retroactive historical account from an entirely unique and enlightened perspective that can educate humanity to understand the course of human history and better prepare for the time of the Apocalypse, and
- Existing as a preamble to Nostradamus' much clearer prophecies about the Apocalypse that can be used to thwart the most horrendous cataclysms that will occur in human history.

Whatever his purposes for the prophecies of events in ages past might have been, the clarity with which Nostradamus predicted the advent of Usama bin Laden and the 9/11 attack (see below) clearly reveals his intention to help prevent the disasters facing humanity today.

Incorrect Prophecies

Beyond decrying his use of nebulous language, Nostradamus skeptics also highlight the fact that he made a few clearly incorrect prophecies. If a self-proclaimed prophet makes erroneous predictions, they ask, is he not a fraud? Notably, this criticism overlooks Nostradamus' clearly correct prophecies as well as the ambiguous meaning of the majority of his prophecies in order to disparage his entire body of prophetic work because of the failures of a small fraction of his predictions.

Like the aforementioned criticism that condemns Nostradamus for the spurious predictions made by false prophets over the ages, this criticism of Nostradamus' incorrect prophecies ignores the fact that the art of prophecy is very difficult. It is ridiculous to expect that prophets, who are attempting what is arguably the most difficult human endeavor, must perform perfectly or else their entire body of work will be disregarded as fallacious. Instead of holding such unreasonable expectations of prophets, a rational judgment would accept prophets as human beings and expect some inevitable failures. In this way, the public's expectations of prophets would be similar to expectations of humanity's incipient space travel program, a seemingly insurmountable goal that was not ruled out as a hopeless feat despite the numerous successive failures that preceded the first successes. As certainly as humanity did not scrap the space program after its many failures, we cannot scrap all of Nostradamus' prophecies because a handful of the hundreds of predictions he made did not come true.

Nostradamus' repeated demonstrations of his ability as a true prophet indicate that the intrinsic difficulties of prophecy could likely be the true cause for his few missed prophecies. Nostradamus' missed prophecies are distinguished from his clearly correct prophecies by a description of a divergent timeline, such as an entirely different final outcome for an individual than described in another of his prophecies. Nostradamus describes the art of making prophecy as leaving the self and all its preoccupations in order to perceive the timeline of universal existence. If Nostradamus could not fully leave behind the preoccupations of his ego, his vision of future history might well have been blurred into double or triple vision. Instead of seeing one timeline, he might have seen multiple timelines that diverged on the point of this ego factor that he could not fully escape. Perhaps Nostradamus' most pressing preoccupation with his self at the time of his visions concerned whether he would be heard for all his intensive efforts at prophecy. Would Nostradamus be able to change the future for the better, for the worse, or would he be simply condemned to know the future and be impotent to change it at all? In not leaving this utterly confounding worry behind, might Nostradamus have opened his mind to many channels of possible futures, all linked in that they are based on the human response, or lack thereof, to Nostradamus' prophecies? An example of this divergent timeline in his prophecies was seen in his lifetime when he accurately predicted in vivid detail the death of his king. Nostradamus also made prophecies of the life France's King Henry II would have led had he heeded Nostradamus' explicit warning to him. In addition to this event, there were many other instances when Nostradamus' words were disregarded or misinterpreted, as with Hitler and the Nazis during WWII. Nostradamus' numerous opportunities to alter the future could conceivably have opened his prophetic sight to numerous alternate future timelines.

Beyond this possibility of Nostradamus' divergent visions, common human error could also have contributed to his few clear failures. Nostradamus was a human being, imperfect by nature, and could certainly have prophetically erred in ways other than perceiving a divergent timeline, such as in transcription. There could also be errors in the interpretations of his prophecies by Nostradamus scholars. One such error could be based on the widespread under-appreciation for the notion that Nostradamus intentionally included false and otherwise garbled prophecies to further his purposeful obfuscation of his true prophecies, as discussed above. Regardless of the causes of his prophetic inaccuracies, when his failures are regarded together with his successes Nostradamus undoubtedly stands the test of time as a true prophet.

Correct Prophecies: A Statistical Analysis

Nostradamus' stellar record of accurate prophecy is the preeminent feature of his legacy that has inspired mass appeal for nearly half a millennium. True appreciation for Nostradamus' unparalleled achievement in correctly predicting detailed events of the distant future must be founded on an understanding of the nature of prophecy. Unlike predictions based on trends analysis, such as weather forecasting, Nostradamus did not base his prognostications on any visible trends. Rather, he predicted events that were naturally unpredictable, such as the detailed happenings during a specific timeframe five hundred years into his future involving people not yet born in his lifetime.

Nostradamus' success as a prophet is most accurately gauged by a statistical analysis of the probability that his accurate predictions could have been blindly guessed. The smaller the probability that he could have blindly guessed the correct predictions, the greater the likelihood that he was a true prophet and not a lucky guesser. Nostradamus' clearest predictions would be virtually impossible to guess in a single chance. For example, Nostradamus clearly predicted that England, a minor naval power in his day, would have a sea-based empire that would be the most powerful in the world for three hundred years (see below). From the mid-seventeenth century to the mid-twentieth century England did have this empire. Nostradamus would have made an exceedingly improbable guess to have foreseen this detailed, highly significant event in his distant future, particularly to have pinpointed the specific country that would be the world's foremost power, the specific time span of this dominion and the nature of its power.

In another prophecy, Nostradamus clearly predicted that in October of 1727 Persia's loss to the rulers of Egypt in a war would be completed and this would in turn benefit Islam over the Christian West (see below). In October of 1727 Persia ended a war and concluded a peace treaty with the Ottoman Empire, the rulers of Egypt, in which Persia ceded territory to the Ottomans. This event strengthened the internal cohesion of the Islamic region, particularly by fortifying the Ottoman Empire, in the context of its perennial conflict with the Christian West.

The specific and numerous details of this prophecy allow for an even more definitive statistical analysis of the probability that this event could have been guessed. Nostradamus clearly states that his prophecies cover the timeframe from his own time (1555) until 3797, a period of 2,242 years³. Nostradamus would have a 1:2,242 chance in blindly guessing the year, 1727, this event occurred. He would have a 1:12 chance of guessing the correct month. Even if there were only ten nations in the world at this time, Nostradamus would have a 1:45 chance of guessing the right two nations involved in the conflict that this prophecy foresees. To have correctly guessed the victor is another 1:2 chance, and to have correctly guessed the beneficiary of this in terms of the Christian-Muslim conflict is another 1:2 chance. Overall, for Nostradamus to have blindly guessed this one prophecy would involve a chance probability of $1:2,242 * 12 * 45 * 2 * 2 = 1:4,842,720$. This analysis does not even consider the improbable chances of guessing the nature of the predicted event. For Nostradamus to have correctly guessed just two such correct predictions, the probability would exceed one in two trillion odds. This would be like winning an international lottery's grand prize twice! If Nostradamus had simply blindly guessed all of the numerous future events that he clearly and correctly predicted, including the narrow timeframe dating and the detailed descriptions of names, places and unprecedented actions, this would amount to an unimaginably lucky guess.

The statistical analysis used to judge a prophet's success not only considers the probability of the specific event occurring, but also the number of predictions the prophet made. The more predictions someone makes, the greater likelihood at least one of the predictions will come true, and therefore the greater likelihood the prediction could have been a blind guess. Nostradamus penned no more than two thousand prophecies, the main body of which consists of his characteristic four-line quatrains. The majority of these prophecies can be excluded from this analysis because they are absolutely too vague to definitively predict any one event (whether these excessively nebulous prophecies were truly predictions of future events or merely tools to better obscure the minority of clear prophecies is a matter of speculation). Of Nostradamus' prophecies that are clear enough to be judged as successes or failures, a sizable number were correct. This book presents a number of clear examples of his predictions coming true, over twenty such prophecies, and that is just a sampling of Nostradamus' accurate predictions. Giving the benefit of the doubt to skeptics in this analysis, let us postulate that Nostradamus made 1,000 clear predictions and had only 10 successes, giving him a 1% success rate. This would mean Nostradamus predicted a series of events that could be blindly guessed with far less than a one in one trillion chance of success, basically no chance of success at all, and instead had a success rate of one in one hundred. By this conservative estimate Nostradamus was at least ten billion times more accurate in predicting the future than could be expected by blind guesses. Nostradamus' foresight far exceeds what can be reasonably accepted as blind luck, allowing for only one logical deduction: he was a true prophet.

Greatest Hits: 1559-1991

Middle Ages

A number of Nostradamus prophecies persuasively evince his amazing prophetic ability⁴. In his own time, Nostradamus became renown for his astonishingly accurate description of the death of his king, Henry II, in a jousting accident.

1q35 - The young lion will overcome the older one,

On the field of combat in single battle:

He will pierce his eyes through a golden cage,

Two wounds made one, then he dies a cruel death.

Nostradamus repeatedly warned his king that he would die in a fateful jousting match. Queen Catherine D'Medici, a fervent believer in Nostradamus' prophetic ability, also implored her husband to avoid a planned jousting tournament. Disregarding these warnings, King Henry II subsequently entered a jousting tournament, a ritual field of combat in single battle. Both jousters bore shields with a lion crested on them. The king's younger opponent speared him through a golden visor of Henry's helmet (a head cage for protection of the eyes, face and head). The spear pierced his eye and stabbed his brain, two wounds made one fatal wound. Henry II died an agonizingly cruel death over the next ten days from infection of the wound. So clear were Nostradamus' words of warning that after the king's death the Inquisition tried to kill the prophet for cursing the king to die in the fashion he so prominently and precisely foretold.

Beyond his own time, Nostradamus made clear predictions about major events fulfilled in his distant future.

3q77 - The third climate included under Aries,

In the year 1727, in October:

The Shah of Persia, captured by those of Egypt:

Conflict, death, loss: great shame to the cross.

Nostradamus begins this prophecy with a reference to the climate of Aries, the Greek god of war, indicating that the events described here take place in the climate of a war.

In October of 1727 the Shah of Persia concluded a war against the Ottoman Empire, the rulers of Egypt, with a major peace treaty in which he ceded land to the Ottomans. In this prophecy Egypt, an Ottoman province, is a synecdoche for the Ottoman Empire.

The description of conflict, death and loss refers to the Ottoman-Persian war that led up to the loss that occurred in October 1727. Nostradamus indicates two losses occurred at this time, one suffered by Persia and the other suffered by "the cross". Persia's loss to the Ottomans in the war forced the Shah to cede territory to the Ottoman Empire. As a result of this war, Persian territory was captured by the Ottoman Empire (Egypt) via this October 1727 treaty. The Shah of Persia, the representative of the Persian land and people, was figuratively captured in a manner similar to the "capture" of Neville Chamberlain by Hitler's will during the infamous Munich Conference, in that he was coerced by military threats to allow his enemy to capture territory.

The other major party affected by this October 1727 treaty, the Christian West (those of the cross), was weakened (shamed) by the strengthening in relations between Persia and the Ottoman Empire that resulted from the end of the war and the joint recognition of each other's dynastic legitimacy that was forged by this treaty. In particular, the strongest source of Islamic opposition to the Christian West, the Ottoman Empire, was bolstered by this October 1727 event. Instead of the Islamic lands being dismantled by internal conflict, this treaty solidified Islam in its long-standing conflict with the Christian West, preventing the West from launching more Crusades in the Middle East and ensuring the Ottoman Empire's existence into the twentieth century. In this amazingly clear and accurate prophecy Nostradamus states the exact time, the major participants, the circumstances and results of a significant event in world history.

Rise of the West

In addition to the victories of Islam, Nostradamus foresaw major events that led to the advent of Western global domination. A pivotal episode in the modern evolution of absolute monarchies into democracies, England's Glorious Revolution, is described in detail by the great prophet.

*4q89 - Thirty of London will conspire secretly, Against their King, the enterprise on the sea,
He and his satellites will feel disgust for death.
A blond King elected, native of Holland.*

As prophesized by the index number, the Glorious Revolution was completed in 1689 with the unprecedented election of a British king. The revolution began the previous year when twenty-nine British Lords and a British rear admiral (thirty of London) conspired secretly against their king to support William of Orange in a Parliamentary coup to overthrow the English monarchy. William traveled by sea to England with his army in a fleet commanded by the British rear admiral. William arrived in London to join a bloodless coup as James II fled for his life with his court (he and his satellites will feel disgust for death). As a child William's hair was blond and he was of blond, or fair, complexion. Notably, the color blond includes light auburn, a shade of orange, which may allude to William's name, William of Orange. William was the first English king who was a native of Holland, an unprecedented idea in Nostradamus' day of hereditary monarchies. Also unheard of in Nostradamus' day, William was elected King. This milestone event that Nostradamus so fastidiously predicted set Europe and the world in motion towards the modern age of democracy.

Nostradamus further details the dawning of the age of democracy over two centuries after his time.

4q96 - The elder sister of the British Isles,

Will be born fifteen years before her brother;

Because his promise proves to be true,

She will succeed to the kingdom of the balance.

The American Revolution was born approximately a decade and a half, fifteen years, before the French Revolution began in America's destined brother in republicanism, France. Because the French promise of military support proved to be true, the American colonies bested the British military colossus and gained independence from Britain. The United States succeeded to the republican democracy, symbolized by Lady Liberty's balance of justice. By realizing a wiser, truer form of democracy than practiced in England, the nation that coalesced from Britain's thirteen American colonies proved herself to be the elder sister of Britain. America would later define herself as the elder sister of Britain by mobilizing its unique democratic republic to usurp Britain's position as the foremost world power.

Nostradamus very clearly and precisely dated the timeframe of England's unmatched domination of the sea that preceded America's ascent to undisputed leadership of the West.

10q100 - A great empire will be for England,

The all-powerful one through the sea for more than 300 years:

Great forces will pass by land and sea,

The Portuguese will not be satisfied.

In Nostradamus' time England was not a major sea power, but Portugal was. Over the next hundred years England began to rapidly develop a sea-based empire that displaced other's, including Portugal, and made England the world's most dominant sea-based power (the all-powerful one through the sea). This empire lasted for three hundred years until it was stripped by the twentieth century world wars. With incredible precision Nostradamus indicated the timeframes and dates of the future developments of the major world powers.

Another amazing prediction that reveals Nostradamus' precision for prophetic dating concerns a major development in science and medicine.

1q25 - The lost thing is found, hidden for so many centuries,

Pasteur will be honored as a demigod:

This happens when the moon completes her great cycle,

He will dishonored by other rumors as foul as farting.

Nostradamus uses an astronomical alignment, the completion of the moon's great cycle of revolutions around the earth, to date the occurrence of this prophecy. After the writing of this prophecy, the great lunar cycle was completed in 1889. In this year the French scientist Pasteur, fresh from his epic discovery of microorganisms and germs, opened his Institute Pasteur and officially began the scientific revolution of microbiology. The hidden world of microbiology, responsible for the countless diseases that ravaged humanity for so many centuries, was a vitally important piece of knowledge that was lost to humanity until Pasteur found it. After the founding of the Institute Pasteur in 1889, Pasteur was widely honored as a demigod among scientists, particularly for his germ theory and study of virulent diseases and immunization techniques. Despite his notoriety, in some circles Pasteur was dishonored by rumors of sloppiness in the laboratory. Nostradamus' detailed knowledge of this Frenchman who discovered the cause of most infectious diseases might well have led him to combat the Black Plague as a traveling doctor with modern infection-control techniques, a medical career that made him famous throughout France⁵. The discoveries of the French scientist Pasteur were one of a series of developments signaling the rise of Western power that Nostradamus so accurately foresaw.

World War II

In the twentieth century Nostradamus foresaw many of the world's defining events, such as some of the pivotal developments of World War II. One shocking prophecy provides a wealth of information on the rise of Hitler.

5q29 - Liberty will not be regained,

It will be occupied by a black, proud, villainous and unjust man:

When the matter of the pontiff is opened,

The Republic of Venice will be vexed by Hister.

The final word of this quatrain, Hister, serves as an unclouded anagram for Hitler. Replacing and rearranging one letter, "s", with "l", as permitted by Nostradamus' system of anagrams⁶, easily reveals the name "Hitler". The name "Hister" also is Latin for the Danube River, along the frontiers of which Hitler was born and raised. It is important to note that Nostradamus uses the name "Dannube", as in 6q49, to refer primarily to the Danube River, while he reserves the name "Hister" to refer primarily to Hitler, as in the Hister of 2q24 who is described as a failed leader of Germany.

Beyond naming Hitler and his birthplace, this prophecy describes Hitler's character and his rule, and, most amazingly, indicates three critical dates in the rise of Hitler. Hitler was a black, proud, villainous and unjust man who caused liberty to not be regained within and without Germany during his rule. The index number, 5q29, reveals the date 1929, the year marking the onset of the Great Depression that destroyed the German economy, shattered the democratic Weimar government and initiated the descent into anarchy, despotism and martial law that continued inevitably into the rise of Nazism and the permanent loss of liberty (liberty will not be regained) in Germany.

This prophecy explicitly states that this loss of liberty occurs when the matter of the pontiff is opened, indicating two possible dates. In terms of Hitler's relation to the Catholic papacy, the matter of the pontiff was opened in 1933 when Hitler requested and concluded his infamous Concordat with the Catholic Pope, negotiated by the future Pope Pius XII. This dating precisely indicates the year, 1933, when Hitler caused liberty to not be regained in Germany by his permanent implementation of martial law and suspension of individual civil rights with the infamous Emergency Powers Act. In terms of the ascendancy of the Catholic Pope, during Hitler's rule the matter of the pontiff was raised in March 1939 when Pope Pius XII was elected. In the very same month, March 1939, Hitler began his aggressive war by breaking the Munich Pact and invading the rump of Czechoslovakia, and then proceeding to invade Poland in the latter half of this year and precipitating WWII. The reign of terror and destruction of liberty by Hitler both inside Germany and inside Germany's conquered territories began at the precise time indicated in this prophecy.

The destruction of liberty (liberty not regained) within and without Germany was greatly aided by Pope Pius XII's Concordat (the matter of the pontiff) with Hitler, which assured the Vatican's silence in the face of Nazi atrocities. In particular, this event began the Nazi coercion inside Italy (referred to by the synecdoche "Republic of Venice") that led her to be disastrously vexed by an alliance with Hitler. Interestingly, Nostradamus uses the Old French term "faschee", meaning vexed, to describe Hitler's effect on Italy. This Old French term is a spelling variation of the word "fasces", a weapon used by ancient Roman magistrates to enforce their authority, the symbol of Roman power that was the origin of the word "fascism". Italy did in fact become vexed by the specter of fascism that she created and Hitler remodeled in Germany into the complete termination of liberty and subordination to his destructive desires, a policy he then proceeded to export across Europe, including into Italy.

Nostradamus continues with his detailed description of Hitler in another prophecy.

6q49 - Of the warlike party, by the great Pontiff

Will subjugate the frontiers of the Danube:

To pursue the cross through the crooked cross of iron,

Captives, gold, jewels, more than one hundred thousand rubies.

Using his warlike Nazi Party and his aforementioned Concordat with the Catholic Pope (the great Pontiff), Hitler seized control of the German government and mobilized the traditionally warlike German people to subjugate the frontiers of the Danube River, including the countries of Czechoslovakia, Germany, Austria, Hungary and Romania. Hitler's Nazi Germany attempted to pursue his mad messianic crusade (the cross) across Europe as advocated by the Nazi revolution, symbolized through the swastika (aptly described as the crooked cross). As indicated by Nostradamus' terminology, this crusade was a purely crooked, unholy crusade led by a megalomaniac, Hitler, whose aim was to exalt himself as the King of kings (by the great Pontiff). Nostradamus describes a crooked perversion of the Holy Cross in which Hitler displaced the authority of the papacy and was nefariously extolled as the new great Pontiff, Christ reborn, who would lead Germany to the Promised Land. The Nazi order of the swastika was sinisterly cast in the German culture of blood and iron to lead brainwashed pirates to pillage and enslave its neighbors. Nostradamus concludes this interesting comparison of the Nazi crusade to the Crusades of the Middle Ages by emphasizing the war booty that it reaps for the warlike Nazis, enumerating the various treasures.

In one line of his prophecies Nostradamus clearly highlights the key characteristics of his second antichrist, Hitler.

Epistle to Henry II 177-8⁷ - The second Antichrist, who will persecute the church . . . by means of temporal Kings, who in their ignorance will be seduced by tongues which will cut more sharply than any sword in the hands of a madman.

Hitler's most infamous quality was his gift of seductive speech, by which he hypnotized and deceived (seduced by tongues) his contemporaries to do his bidding. The second antichrist Hitler used his power to persecute the Catholic Church, particularly priests, in a bid to unseat the influence of Catholicism in both worldly and spiritual matters. Five million Christians were purposefully targeted and murdered in the Nazi Holocaust⁸. With sly, eloquent oratory, the second Antichrist seduced ignorant statesmen such as Neville Chamberlain and Benito Mussolini (temporal Kings) to concede to the agenda of his criminally insane regime (in the hands of a madman). By these victories of speech, as displayed in the infamous Munich Conference, Hitler accomplished successes more complete than he could have hoped to achieve by military means (cut more sharply than any sword). Nostradamus clearly describes the second antichrist as a masterful orator who was a madman, pinpointing the two most oft-repeated salient features of Adolf Hitler in a very comprehensive description.

In addition to Hitler's victories, Nostradamus also describes his failures. Explicitly identifying the Spanish leader Francisco Franco by name and description, Nostradamus predicts one of the key turning points in Hitler's war for world domination.

9q16 - From Castille, Franco will bring out the assembly,

The ambassador will not agree and cause a schism:

The people of Rivera will be in the crowd,

And they will refuse entry into the Gulf.

Controlling virtually all of Europe in 1940, Hitler was only one maneuver away from defeating England. Hitler needed to control England's key point of entrance to the Mediterranean, the Gulf of Gibraltar. Control of this Gulf would give Hitler a tighter squeeze on England's life-sustaining trade empire and greater domination of both the underbelly of Europe and North Africa. This strategically crucial British enclave on the coastal point of Spain could only be taken via Spain, and for this military action Hitler needed the consent of Spain's dictator Francisco Franco, a German ally. Hitler sent his chief of military intelligence, Admiral Wilhelm Canaris, Germany's closest contact with the Spanish dictator, as ambassador to convince Franco to allow Germany's army passage through Spain in order to besiege Gibraltar.

Nostradamus begins the prophecy about this ambassador's meeting with Franco by explicitly mentioning its location in Castille, the Spanish heartland region that for centuries has been the center of Spanish government. Castille also acts as a synecdoche for Spain, indicating the identity of Franco's nation. The German ambassador Canaris was a secret opponent of the Nazi regime and secretly did not agree with or support Hitler's war. Instead of attempting to convince Franco to acquiesce to Hitler's request, Canaris caused a schism between Nazi Germany and Spain by privately insisting to Franco that he both reject the request and refuse to enter the war. Canaris declared to Franco that Germany would lose the war, and he even provided Franco with a list of Germany's deficits in war supplies, such as heavy naval artillery, that Franco would use to make impossible requests of Germany for necessary war supplies to justify to Hitler Spain's refusal to join the war. Canaris then emphasized to Hitler spurious logistical problems with German troop transport in Spain to dissuade Hitler from pursuing the Gibraltar siege. Canaris was later executed by Hitler for this and other "treasonous" actions. The people of Rivera, those of Franco's assembly from the former Spanish dictator Rivera's camp, supported the German ambassador's surprising proposition, and so Hitler was refused entry into the Gulf of Gibraltar by Franco and his assembly. Hitler's failure to capture this key strategic site was arguably the turning point in his war with the West, a historic moment when the world was saved from Hitler, a major event of the twentieth century history that Nostradamus predicted with amazing clarity.

The Cold War

Perhaps the most famous event of the twentieth century, the rise and fall of the Soviet Union, is also described in Nostradamus' prophecies.

Epistle to Henry II 88-91⁹ - And there shall be in the month of October some great movement and transference of the globe and it will be such that one will think that the earth has lost its natural gravitational movement, and that it will be plunged into the abyss of perpetual darkness; there will be initial omens in the spring, and extraordinary changes in rapid succession thereafter, reversals of kingdoms and mighty earthquakes, with the increase of the new Babylon, the miserable daughter, augmented by the abomination of the first Holocaust, and it will last no less than seventy-three years and seven months.

Nostradamus describes a revolution that begins in October and spawns into a global reign of darkness that lasts seventy-three years and seven months. This incipient movement spreads across the globe and brings humanity into an abyss of darkness characterized by reversals of kingdoms. One such kingdom reversal is the augmentation of a modern day Babylonian empire because of an abominable event known as the "first Holocaust". This passage clearly states a timeframe and key events of the rise and fall of the Soviet Union, a global reign of perpetual darkness that began with the most murderous government in world history and blossomed into the driving force behind the fifty-year threat of global nuclear destruction that was the Cold War. The seventy-three year and seven month lifespan of the Soviet Union began with the Bolshevik Revolution in Russia in late October 1917 and ended with the complete dissolution of the USSR in mid-1991, marked by the direct popular election of Boris Yeltsin to the presidency of the Russian Federation in early June 1991. The Bolshevik's October Revolution began the transference of power and properties to the state as part of the great communist restructuring. Outside of the Soviet Union, the transference of sovereign national power to Soviet rule gained momentum as the USSR accelerated its military conquest. Behind and beyond the iron curtain, humanity and the world were plunged into the abyss of perpetual darkness created by this brutal totalitarian regime with very real ambitions of world domination. The reversals of kingdoms that characterized the spread of Russian communism grossly destabilized the world and initiated a global reign of terror

One of the first nations to fall into this abyss was Germany, which was fractured by a civil war instigated by the Russian communists' attempt to spread the Bolshevik Revolution to Germany and beyond. The result of the attempted communist revolution in Germany was a destabilized nation that paved the way for the rise of Hitler and the enactment of the first Holocaust. The Soviet Union suffered the greatest losses from Hitler's Holocaust, but ironically benefited from this cataclysm as it greatly expanded its empire because of Hitler's failed invasion.

The first Holocaust also augmented Israel, the miserable daughter of the first Holocaust (miserable is a reoccurring cryptogram for Israel in Nostradamus' prophecies, c.f.: 8q96). Israel was created as a direct result of the first Holocaust, which flooded the land with hundreds of thousands of Jewish European refugees that coalesced into the birth of Israel two years after WWII. The world's only Jewish state became a new Babylon that dominates the Middle East and seizes territory in the tradition of this ancient expansionist empire. Consistent with Nostradamus' prophecy about the miserable daughter of the first Holocaust, the Jewish people emerged from a most abject position in WWII to create a state that is the most powerful nation in the most strategically important region in the world.

Another beneficiary of the first Holocaust was modern-day Iraq (new Babylon, the site of ancient Babylon), which was augmented as a leader of the Arab resistance to Israel's Zionist expansion. The Soviet Union funded much of Iraq's military expansion to counter American influence in the Middle East, particularly through Israel. Iraq under Saddam Hussein would threaten a second Jewish Holocaust with its well-known attempts to create a nuclear arsenal to use in a war to destroy Israel. Saddam became the most famous leader of the pan-Arab war against Israel, attacking Israel with thirty-nine Scud missiles during the Gulf War and becoming the most overt state-sponsor of Palestinian terrorism against Israel. As has been recently confirmed, Saddam's nuclear program ended in 1991 with the Gulf War, the same end year of this Soviet Union prophecy's prospective timeline. Consistent with Nostradamus' phrasing in this prophecy, both the Soviet Union and the rise of its Middle East beneficiary ended in the same year.

The economic and industrial failures of the Soviet Union in the Cold War that led to its loss to America were exemplified by the space race to the moon, an epic event in human history that Nostradamus describes in certain detail.

9q65 - He will come to take himself to the corner of the moon,

Where he will be taken and placed on alien land,

The unripe fruit will be the source of great scandal,

Great blame, to the other great praise.

Nostradamus clearly describes the moon landing, framing it as an event that confers to one party (America) great praise and to another (the Soviet Union) great blame. Taken by spacecraft to the alien land of the moon, the United States received great praise for this symbol of victory in the Cold War. Juxtaposed to America's success, the foreboding failure of the disaster-ridden Soviet space program (the unripe fruit) to be the first to the moon was a source of great scandal and blame to the other major party of the space race. It was the continuation of this costly technological contest, particularly with the space-based national missile defense programs, that led directly to the collapse of the Soviet Union. Nostradamus predicted the moon landing and highlighted the importance of this pinnacle of human achievement in the context of the contemporary Cold War.

From the death of his king to the rise of Western democracies, from the age of Hitler to the fall of the Soviet Union, Nostradamus precisely forecasted the most momentous events of the modern age. The multitude of accurate prophecies in Nostradamus' collected works constitutes concrete proof that he was a true prophet and that his predictions for today must be seriously regarded as one of humanity's most valuable treasures.

II.

THE 9/11 WAR

3.

Dating the Events of the 9/11 War

More than any other single event, Nostradamus seems to fastidiously describe the 9/11 attack. Amazingly, Nostradamus identifies the precise day that the post-9/11 war would begin, the millennial day of September 17th.

9q17 - The third one first does worse than Nero,

Soulless and valiant, how much human blood flows:

He will cause the oven to be rebuilt,

Golden Age, dead, new King, great scandal.

In numerous instances Nostradamus uses the indexing numbers of the prophecy to date the day, month and/or year of the events he is describing, as in the prophecy 5q45 where he accurately dates the collapse of the Nazi Empire in May 1945. In 9q17 Nostradamus dates the beginning of America's war on terror on the 17th day of the 9th month of the opening year of the third millennium. On September 17, 2001, after a three-day war council with his national security team at Camp David, President Bush promulgated his post-9/11 national security doctrine in a three-page top-secret document. This presidential directive outlined Bush's plan for a world war on terror, beginning with an invasion of Afghanistan and continuing with an invasion of Iraq¹⁰. Coordination with the United Nations for this military action is not mentioned in the document. This Bush directive reveals the most unprecedented hallmark of the post-9/11 Bush doctrine, unilateral, preemptive war against nations without a terrorist association with Al Qaeda. Exactly one year after the signing of this presidential directive, on September 17, 2002, Bush publicly declared this official national security strategy. Only with Bush's outrageous retaliation for the 9/11 attack, promulgated on September 17, 2001, could Bin Laden further escalate his war into the War of the Apocalypse. With this prophecy, Nostradamus dated the beginning of the Final War.

As a first step towards implementing Bush's authorization for war with Afghanistan, on September 17, 2001 the United States officially gave the Taliban the ultimatum to release Bin Laden to America's custody or face an American invasion¹¹. Considering that there was essentially no chance of the Taliban arresting and extraditing Bin Laden, both because of Bin Laden's control of the Taliban and the religious duty this fundamentalist Islamic government felt obligated by to protect him, the American ultimatum amounted to a declaration of war on Afghanistan. This date, 9/17/01, marked the beginning of the U.S. War on Terror that was the critical impetus for the unfolding Final War.

Just as it was the beginning of America's war, this historic day was also the beginning of America's demonization in world opinion. On September 17, 2001 Bin Laden proclaimed to the world his first public denial of responsibility for the 9/11 attack¹². This event sculpted Bush's post-9/11 war, particularly the diplomatic front, most fundamentally. By raising early doubts about his own guilt for 9/11 in world opinion, Bin Laden both fostered doubts about the legitimacy of America's retaliation and allowed the Bush Administration to more easily use the 9/11 attack as a pretext to broadly invade the Middle East. This event signaled the beginning of an important trend in Bush's war, the vilification of America and the glorification of Al Qaeda. Bin Laden's early denial of responsibility for 9/11 began to portray an apocalyptic drama of a righteous messianic group battling an evil empire. This public denial of guilt on September 17, 2001 marked the onset of the public relations war between America and Al Qaeda, the most important dimension of the conflict. The indication of 9q17 that the Apocalypse War would begin at the onset of the third millennium is supported by other Nostradamus prophecies, such as 10q72 and 2q46 (see below).

Nostradamus' precise dating of the Final War is buttressed by a detailed description of its prosecution. Considering that the central focus of Nostradamus' prophecies is the personification of evil in the personage of the antichrist, particularly the millennial third antichrist, the "third one" who does "worse than Nero" most probably refers to Nostradamus' third antichrist. In the legacy of the mad Roman emperor Nero, the third one of Nostradamus' antichrists portrays a mad modern Rome Pretender who instigates a war of unprecedented death and destruction. Current events reveal this modern Rome Pretender to be the Bush Administration under the manipulation of Bin Laden, who goads Bush into predictable military responses to Al Qaeda's terrorist attacks on America. Bush's madness is revealed by the fact that he would dare to enrage the international community with a Rome Pretender's military adventurism in the nuclear age, a global outrage that most probably will translate into future nuclear attacks on America. As a further testament to his madness, Bush has blatantly emphasized his evangelical Christian faith in his leadership of a world war he describes as a global campaign to eradicate evil, a public depiction revealing that Bush believes he is the central figure of his religion, the millennial Messiah of the Apocalypse. Bush's insane conception of America as an invincible empire and himself as the Messiah couples with the covert usurpation of the American presidency by an even more insane world leader. Nostradamus aptly describes this nexus of power as "worse than Nero".

Bin Laden most glaringly demonstrated this power nexus by assisting Bush's election and reelection with October surprises that boosted his support inside America on the eve of the 2000 and 2004 elections, specifically, with the 2000 bombing of the USS Cole and the release of his 2004 videotape that ostensibly endorsed Kerry. After Bush's first election, Bin Laden provoked Bush into a predictable military invasion of the Middle East that has demonized America, setting the stage for the nuclear holocaust of the United States. Bin Laden's suicide bomber army is soulless and valiant because they willingly sacrifice their lives in order to murder thousands of civilians, to instigate the War of the Apocalypse and to portray Bin Laden as the Messiah who destroys the Great Satan.

Bush's criminal crusade is also fought by an army of soulless and valiant men, the American armed forces, a soulless army that willingly has slaughtered thousands of innocent civilians (up to 100,000 in Iraq alone) and, albeit unwittingly, has prosecuted a war motivated by Bush's Messiah Pretension that will eventually destroy the American homeland. The American armed forces are undoubtedly valiant because they dare to battle a globally entrenched guerilla army that is fueled by widespread support, enjoys a strategic nuclear advantage over America as a stateless empire, and is led by an ingenious terrorist emperor, Bin Laden, also known as Nostradamus' third antichrist.

The third one first did worse than Nero-Bush in that the 9/11 attack, Bin Laden's first attack that provoked America's world war on terrorism, outshined any of Bush's crimes up to that point. Bush's subsequent War on Terror in Afghanistan and Iraq has killed over ten times as many innocent civilians than Bin Laden killed on 9/11, inevitable innocent Afghan and Iraqi deaths that Bush accepted prior to the invasions in order to achieve his strategic objectives. President Bush's evangelical Christian crusade to rid the world of evil and thoroughly establish America's world dominance has led him to initiate a war of unprecedented death and destruction that will precipitate a nuclear holocaust. This slaughter will greatly exceed any of the murderous exploits of the mad Roman Emperor Nero, and thus in another sense will be "worse than Nero".

Nostradamus' "third one" seeks to provoke the neo-Nero Bush Administration into predictable aggressions and thereby co-start the war of the Apocalypse. Bin Laden will publicly reveal himself to be the maddest of all emperors when he relights the ovens of the Holocaust of Nostradamus' second Antichrist, Adolf Hitler, with the nuclear weapons of today's world. Fittingly, the phrase "the third one" not only describes Bin Laden as Nostradamus' third antichrist but also describes Bush, Bin Laden's most valuable chess piece. Following his grandfather and father, G.W. Bush is the third internationally renowned statesman of his family to direct America's destiny. The ego and alter ego of Nostradamus' third antichrist, represented by Bin Laden and Bush, respectively, ironically are working together to restart the Holocaust of Bin Laden's predecessor.

In another sense, the third one will first do worse than Nero in that the third antichrist will do worse than the second antichrist. Nostradamus explicitly describes his second antichrist, Adolf Hitler, as "a madman" who uses seductive oratory to rise to world domination (Epistle to Henry II, verses 177-178 as indexed by John Hogue). In the final insane days of the Third Reich, Hitler issued his infamous Nero Order of 1945, which ordered the self-destruction of his German nation, including the eradication of Germany's infrastructure and capacity to feed itself. Ever since, Hitler has been viewed worldwide as the epitome of a modern Nero, a mad Rome Pretender emperor. As suggested by 9q17, Bin Laden's unprecedented 9/11 terrorist attack provoked World War III, a world war for the nuclear age that promises to relight the oven of Hitler's Holocaust with a nuclear holocaust that will be far worse than any of Hitler's horrendous crimes.

The last line of 9q17 provides details of two major contemporary events, the death of the golden age of internal security and prosperity for the world's sole superpower at the turn of the millennium, and the great scandal concerning the ascension of a "new King" in the controversial millennial American Presidential Election. The use of the word "King" harkens to an inherited bloodline dynasty, an accurate description of the only American president whose ascendancy to the nation's highest throne is primarily based on the fact that his father was president. Bush's inherited presidency, as well as the scandal of his ascension, also reinforces the depiction of him as an unfit modern Roman emperor in the tradition of Nero. Fittingly, the term "new King" can also apply to Bin Laden, who assumed the role of undisputed leadership of international terrorism by ending America's golden age with the great scandal of that millennial day's terrorist attack. Furthermore, Bin Laden became a new King during this millennial period when he became ruler of the most powerful military force in the world, another great scandal when Al Qaeda was transformed into the world's strongest nuclear power by probably acquiring a nuclear arsenal and then instigating Bush to make Al Qaeda a stateless empire. The wealth of information provided in 9q17 offers a highly specific depiction of the 9/11 war.

Coupled with Nostradamus' description of the results of the 9/11 plot in 9q17, in his most widely heralded prophecy about the third antichrist, Nostradamus describes and dates the initiation of the 9/11 plot.

10q72 - In July of 1999,
the great King of Terror will come from the sky.

Accurately describing the third antichrist as the undisputed leader of global terrorism, the great King of Terror, Nostradamus foretells the unprecedented millennial 9/11 terrorist aerial plot that would "come from the sky". The use of the word "King" to describe Nostradamus' millennial third antichrist clearly harkens to the "King" and the "third one" of 9q17. In the context of a millennial war of terrorism, the word "King" also harkens to the King Destroyer described in Revelation 9:11, the man who presides over a global reign of terror and instigates the War of the Apocalypse. This equation of the great King of Terror of 10q72 with Nostradamus' final antichrist and the Revelation 9:11 Destroyer is furthered by the appearance of the hidden image of the mark of the beast of Revelation 13:18, 666, in the year 1999, a symbol traditionally associated with the Antichrist of the Apocalypse.

Most amazingly, in this prophecy Nostradamus precisely dates the month the modern great King of Terror set in motion the millennial War on Terror². In the fateful year 1999, Bin Laden set in motion the 9/11 plot by starting the funding and training of the 9/11 hijackers and completing the plot's operational planning¹³. In terms of the revelation of Bin Laden's 9/11 plot, as indicated by the revelatory phrase "will come from the sky", in 1999 America witnessed the first widely circulated intelligence reports warning that Bin Laden would attack landmarks and government buildings in Washington, D.C. and the Wall Street district of New York with kamikaze airplane attacks in the near future¹⁴. Additionally, in 1999 the American public was first widely alerted about a Bin Laden attempt to attack inside America, popularly known as the "Millennium Bomb Plot". The great King of Terror was first revealed to the world in the precise year Nostradamus clearly predicted.

Even more precisely, Nostradamus clearly dated the precise month that the pivotal events of Bin Laden's incipient revelation occurred. In July of 1999 the Hamburg terrorist cell that led the 9/11 attack formed, consisting of ringleader Mohammed Atta and two of the three other leaders/pilots of the plot¹⁵. The first 9/11 pilot to obtain his commercial pilot's license did so in the couple month's prior to his travel visa's expiration in July of 1999, receiving the power to "come from the sky" as an agent of the great King of Terror by this deadline¹⁶. Financing for the Atta Hamburg cell began in July of 1999 via an account established by the 9/11 pilot Al-Shehhi in the United Arab Emirates¹⁷. Interestingly, the Taliban made a special announcement in 1999 claiming that the Afghan government was unaware of Usama bin Laden's whereabouts and activities from early spring until early July of 1999, indicating that he was engaged in particularly nefarious activity up through this time. The Taliban's justification for providing refuge to Bin Laden was always that they closely monitored his activities and did not permit him to engage in terrorist activities. Nevertheless, despite the Taliban's publicly stated ignorance of Bin Laden's activities during these critical months when America was pressuring Afghanistan to extradite the terrorist mastermind after his first overt attack on America, the African embassy bombings, the Taliban continued to openly shelter Bin Laden beginning in July 1999. By the very logic of the Taliban's justification for harboring Bin Laden, this revelation in July of 1999 both justified and encouraged an American invasion. In July of 1999, the great King of Terror revealed to the world (came from the sky) that he was being provided state-sponsorship by the Taliban, in effect, that he was in control of both Afghanistan and an unrivaled global terrorist empire.

Also in July of 1999, President Clinton received startling intelligence that led him to sign an executive order radically changing America's Al Qaeda/Taliban policy, declaring the Taliban to be a state-sponsor of terrorism and authorizing the CIA to capture or kill Bin Laden. Consistent with America's increased alarm about the Bin Laden threat, July of 1999 was the first month Bin Laden was on the FBI's notorious Ten Most Wanted list, perhaps the most public revelation (coming from the sky) of the great King of Terror.

At this time, the American government received some very alarming intelligence that likely contributed to the administration's important change in Bin Laden's threat status. In July of 1999, America received one of the most convincingly authentic intelligence reports that clearly stated Al Qaeda's intention to destroy the Twin Towers.

A U.S. government sting operation recorded a Pakistani intelligence agent in a July 1999 meeting to buy stinger missiles that took place in view of the Twin Towers. The Pakistani Intelligence agency, known as ISI, is a well-known organizational affiliate of Al Qaeda. In fact, Al Qaeda, responsible for the first World Trade Center bombing as well as every major foreign terrorist attack on America since, is the only organizational affiliate of ISI that has attacked America. On the audio recording of the meeting, the Pakistani agent clearly referenced an attack on the World Trade Center, the site of Al Qaeda's first attack on America in 1993, and then pointed to the buildings, saying, "Those towers are coming down"¹⁸. While it is unclear whether this and other July 1999 evidence of Bin Laden's 9/11 plot was part of the classified intelligence that motivated Clinton to change America's Al Qaeda policy, it is very clear that in July of 1999 Bin Laden came out from his nebulous background (came from the sky) by revealing his identity as Al Qaeda's mastermind and initiating the plot that would reveal himself to the world as the great King of Terror. Precisely as Nostradamus clearly stated, in July of 1999 the great King of Terror, the third antichrist, set in motion the colossal aerial terrorist attack that would catalyze his imminent millennial War of the Apocalypse.

July of 1999 was also a pivotal month in the career of George W. Bush, the man who would empower Bin Laden as the great King of Terror through his future provocative escalation of the world war and anti-American sentiment. In fact, the ease with which Bin Laden intentionally provoked President Bush to invade Afghanistan and Iraq demonstrated that he was Bin Laden's American puppet president¹⁹. By becoming arguably the most feared and loathed man in history, as witnessed by the largest global protest against a single man in history in March 2003, Bush portrayed an alter ego of the great King of Terror that would greatly facilitate Bin Laden's primary goal of fomenting anti-American sentiment globally. Today Bush is arguably viewed globally as the preeminent great King of Terror, a man whose military crusade has killed over ten times as many innocent civilians as were killed in the 9/11 attack, who still threatens a greater world war, and continues to destabilize the world community through pursuit of a doctrine of preemptive war that includes preemptive nuclear war. The preemptive advent of Bush's presidency in July of 1999, which evolved into Bin Laden's apocalyptic alter ego, represents a dual confirmation of 10q72. Along with Bin Laden's other plans for the world war, his shadowy usurpation of the American administration also began in the pivotal month of July 1999.

July of 1999 was the first month of Bush's official campaign for the presidency. The Bush Campaign also reaped its first major victory in July of 1999 when the public revelation (came from the sky) of his unprecedented campaign finances swayed many analysts to conclude that Bush had effectively already won the Republican nomination. The first quarterly fundraising report for the presidential candidates revealed that Bush had raised more than double the combined finances of all of his Republican opponents, more than any other candidate ever raised in an entire election campaign, let alone in a six-month period before the first primary vote. By exceeding the primary fundraising limit of $34 million in July 1999, Bush was allowed to spend an unlimited sum on his campaign for the primaries, the first major party candidate ever to accomplish this feat²⁰. Also in July of 1999, Bush revealed (came from the sky) the identities of the top members of his campaign's Pioneer Club, the top-tier of his fundraisers who were responsible for over half of his campaign finances²¹. This first and only publication of the identity of the powerful interests backing his candidacy amounted to a public declaration of the high probability Bush would win the presidency of a government dominated by special interests.

The foundation of the Bush Campaign on this major victory in July of 1999 placed Bush in contention with the pseudo-incumbent Gore Administration, a democratic candidacy crippled from its inception by the final scandalous years of the Clinton/Gore Administration. In July of 1999, the Clinton-Lewinsky scandal came to a climactic conclusion when, following his acquittal in the impeachment hearings, Clinton became the first president to be held in contempt of court when he was fined $90,000 for lying about his relationship with Lewinsky during his deposition in the Paula Jones sexual harassment investigation. This event served to link the Clinton-Lewinsky and Clinton-Jones sexual scandals in the minds of many voters, acting as a final official judgment and punishment of Clinton's presidency. Bush's election was greatly assisted by Clinton's sexual scandals, which led many Americans to reject Gore in the 2000 election merely because of his association with Clinton's tumultuous presidency³. In retrospect, a perspective reserved for prophets and people of the future, the developments in July of 1999 revealed that Bush was destined to win the presidency. Coupled with Bin Laden's initiation in this month of the 9/11 plot to subvert American power and the revelation of his preeminent role in Afghanistan, the dawn of Bush's future presidency in July of 1999 signaled the advent of the age of global domination by Nostradamus' great King of Terror.

In addition to the pivotal month of July 1999, Nostradamus reveals the other crucial date of the 9/11 plot in this prophecy. An often-employed tactic in Nostradamus' prophecies is to display key details about the major historical events, including dates and names, in reverse form. The reverse image of the prophecy index number 10q72 about the "great King of Terror", read 27q01, reveals the two most prominent numbers related to Nostradamus' third antichrist and his 9/11 attack. The number "01" dates the year of the execution of the millennial antichrist's 9/11 plot, 2001, the first year of the millennium. The other number revealed in the mirror image of quatrain number 10q72, 27, is the length in years of the third antichrist's war that Nostradamus explicitly states in his other most heralded prophecy about the third antichrist.

8q77 - The third antichrist very soon annihilated,

Twenty-seven years his bloody war will last.

Not only does the number "27" in the prophecy 10q72 identify by cross reference the "great King of Terror" as Nostradamus' millennial third antichrist, it supports the confirmation of 10q72 and the parallel career chronology of Napoleon, Hitler and Bin Laden (see below) that Bin Laden's war to conquer the world will last twenty-seven years (1979-2005). This famous prophecy provides a wealth of information on the third antichrist's 9/11 plot, dating the beginning of the 9/11 plot, July 1999, its completion in the first year of the third millennium and the length of Bin Laden's war.

Nostradamus indicates elsewhere that the War of the Apocalypse will occur at the turn of the millennium.

2q46 - After a great misery for mankind an even greater approaches.

The great motor of the centuries is renewed:

It will rain blood, milk, famine, iron and pestilence,

In the sky will be seen a fire, dragging a trail of sparks.

The greatest misery for mankind in the modern world to date was World War II and the Holocaust. The quatrain index number, 2q46, indicates the first year after WWII, the 46th year of the 20th century, as the beginning of humanity's procession to a greater misery. A greater world war, WWIII, and a greater holocaust, a nuclear holocaust, are dated to begin at the time of the processional renewal of the centuries, the millennium. The millennial onset of Bin Laden's global reign of terror threatens to develop into the apocalyptic war Nostradamus describes, including the raining death of nuclear missiles, flying iron bombs of fire dragging a trail of sparks, and the mass famine and pestilence (including radiation sickness) that will result from a global nuclear war. Interestingly, the date indicated by the index number 2q46, 1946, marked the opening year of the Cold War race to build these Intercontinental Ballistic Nuclear Missiles that will figure prominently in an American nuclear war. 1946 is also the date of birth of the puppet American president who is on course to enable Bin Laden's nuclear war through his provocative 9/11 retaliation.

Another interpretation of the phrase "the great motor of the centuries is renewed" indirectly confirms the millennial dating of this greater misery for mankind. The title of Nostradamus' primary volume of prophecies is "The Centuries". The renewal of the "motor" of his prophetic work could represent the fruition of important events he clearly predicted, a global revelation of Nostradamus' prophetic ability that allows humanity to finally heed his dire warnings. This revelation of Nostradamus' prophecies is the focus of a widely scrutinized prophecy, 3q94, in which he dates this occurrence at five hundred years after his birth, or in 2003. If Nostradamus' dire prophecies were ever intended to change the natural course of history, the time period most likely targeted for this change would be the age of greatest peril to humanity, the age of the Apocalypse. The precision of Nostradamus' predictions about the apocalyptic events of the current millennial period, particularly concerning the 9/11 War, could possibly provoke this long-awaited revelation unto humanity.

The Details of the 9/11 Attack

Nostradamus describes in detail the events of his third antichrist's most famous attack to date, the 9/11 attack.

6q97 - At forty and five degrees the sky will burn,

Fire approaches the great new city,

Immediately a huge scattered flame leaps up,

When they want to have verification from the French.

He phrase forty and five degrees is traditionally interpreted as meaning 45 degrees latitude, the major parallel that intersects New York State. However, this phrase can also mean 40.5 degrees, the precise parallel that intersects New York City. In either case, this geographic data identifies the site of the 9/11 attack. The great new city of the modern era is New York City, the world's largest and most famous urban area, the center of modern civilization that is the economic and cultural cornerstone of the world. On that fateful millennial day, the great new city was approached by two unconventional missiles and struck by fiery explosions. The first plane hit the North Tower at a descending angle of forty-five degrees²². After each impact, immediately a huge scattered flame leapt up from each stricken Twin Tower about the sides of the building. Until the Twin Towers collapsed, the famous New York skyline burned with the wrecks. For weeks after the collapses, the skyline was inundated with smoke from the burning, smoldering wreckage.

In the three weeks prior to the 9/11 attack, American intelligence sought verification from the French about reports that an Al Qaeda terrorist attack on the U.S. homeland was imminent. Specifically, this intelligence effort involved a detained French citizen, Zacarias Moussoui, a suspected Islamic terrorist whom FBI agents suspected of plotting the hijacking of 747 airliners and "crashing into the World Trade Center"²³. The greatest attack ever on America was the Antichrist's 9-1-1 emergency call marking Al Qaeda's looming death threat to the United States, a warning Nostradamus penned five hundred years ago. Unfortunately, American intelligence did not seek verification from the writings of the Frenchman most knowledgeable of this future attack.

The index number of this prophecy, 6q97, presents two numbers, 6, the traditional number representing Satan (as 5 is to man and 7 is to God), and 97, indicating the year two years prior to the year of the advent of the great King of Terror explicitly stated in 10q72. In 1997, Bin Laden changed his public persona from an apparent financier of terrorism to an apparent mastermind of a global terrorist empire charged with destroying America, a transformation that culminated in his public declaration of global war against America in February 1998²⁴. Acting on this change in his public demeanor, in 1997 America began pressuring the Taliban to expel Bin Laden and his Al Qaeda organization²⁵. Bin Laden's revelation of himself as the great King of Terror would soon lead him to convert his apocalyptic words into satanic deeds by unequivocally initiating this world war with the 9/11 attack.

Nostradamus' description of the dates and events surrounding Bin Laden's 9/11 attack in 9q17, 10q72, and 6q97 is continued in yet another of his prophecies.

1q87 - Earth-shaking fire from the center of the earth.

Will cause the towers of the New City to shake:

Two great rocks for a long time will make war,

And then Arethusa will color a new river red.

As in the other detailed description of the 9/11 attack in 6q97, Nostradamus describes a warlike fiery assault on "the New City", the great New York City. The targets of this attack are identified as the towers of the New City, the Twin Towers, the most famous towers in the world, located in the world's preeminent "New City". Nostradamus notes that the Twin Towers shake from this attack, which they did upon the planes' collision and then some ninety minutes later upon the Towers' collapse.

The force of the impact of the two airliners crashing into the twin towers caused negligible destruction compared to the explosion of the fully fueled wings. This fuel had its origins in the oil fields deep underground the earth, and thus it was literally earth-shaking fire from the center of the earth that caused the towers of the New City to shake and collapse in a colossal earth-shaking maelstrom. Beyond this shockingly precise description of the cause and effect of the destruction of the Twin Towers, the fiery 9/11 attack was an earth-shaking event in that its effects reverberated across the globe on a scale reminiscent of the fall of the Berlin Wall. Bin Laden used the 9/11 attack to provoke an American administration led by two Texas oil millionaires devoted to the interests of Big Oil. Predictably, the 9/11 attack instigated the Bush Administration to launch a military crusade to secure the Middle East's underground oil reserves (from the center of the earth). This oil fuels the modern combustion (fire) economy that shakes the earth with trillions of combustion engine micro-explosions every day. America's two foremost oil millionaires attempted to secure this fiery earth-shaking energy source by using the earth-shaking fire of America's military colossus.

The result of the 9/11 attack was a fiery, earth-shaking American world war to control the world's oil supplies

The two rocks of the Twin Towers have been the symbol of America's tireless pursuit of economic world domination that has for a long time made war across the world. Equally, the phrase "two rocks" could refer to the economic and military colossus of America represented by the World Trade Center and the Pentagon, the two targets attacked on 9/11. The force represented by these two rocks has guided America's warlike history, from the imperialism of America's wars of westward expansion, to the aggressive Spanish-American War, to America's repeated invasions of Panama, to her economic interests in WWI and WWII, to America's support of the repressive Iranian Shah, to America's support of Saddam Hussein's preemptive WMD war with the Islamic Republic of Iran, to America's first Gulf War, to America's No-Fly Zone War and the Invasion of Iraq, to name some of the most prominent examples. Through this long history of provocative warfare for economic gain, America has generated the global indignation Bin Laden nefariously used to justify destroying the two towers. The destruction of the Twin Towers, in turn, inspired the United States to launch Bush's world war on terrorism, yet another protracted war on behalf of these two rocks.

Beyond referring to the Twin Towers (or the World Trade Center and the Pentagon), the term "two rocks" can refer to the two Cold War superpowers. The bedrocks of global power for fifty years, America and the Soviet Union had for a long time made war in a contest for world domination that threatened a global nuclear holocaust and created the apocalyptic terrorist cult Al Qaeda from the Cold War front in 1980's Afghanistan. The American-Soviet Cold War generated earth-shaking fire from the center of the earth, both in terms of the vast nuclear arsenal of uranium ore weapons created during the Cold War and the apocalyptic potential of Al Qaeda that spawned from the deep Afghan caves in the twilight of the Cold War. The fall of one of these superpower rocks, the Soviet Union, inspired Bin Laden to subsequently topple the other rock, America, as certainly as the collapse of the South Tower catalyzed the collapse of the North Tower. With his poetic descriptions, Nostradamus precisely describes the end of the two superpower rocks' Cold War and the generation of Bin Laden's ongoing world war.

Equally, the two rocks can also symbolize America and Israel, the respective dominant powers of the West and the Middle East. Since the onset of the Cold War, the joint American-Israeli alliance has for a long time made war in the Middle East to secure Israel's existence and expansion, as well as oil supplies (the earth-shaking-fire from the center of the earth). In the past, the American-Israeli war targeted the conventional Arab armies of the Middle East, and currently this war targets Islamic terrorists from the Middle East. Both this past war and the current war of these two tightly allied rocks have inflamed global outrage at American-Israeli imperialism and empowered Bin Laden with the army he used to destroy the two rocks of the Twin Towers.

Out of the long war of the two rocks, be they the Twin Towers, the Cold War superpowers, or the American-Israeli alliance, Nostradamus' third antichrist was born to then begin a whole new era of bloody global violence (to color a new river red). The name "Arethusa" nominally refers to a classical Greek goddess whose story closely parallels that of Bin Laden's empire. Like Al Qaeda she was a huntress, that is, she lived to be a mass murderer of other life forms. Arethusa detested love, qualifying her as a hate-filled entity like the Al Qaeda empire. One fateful day Arethusa met a god-like entity that became obsessed with her. The moment that the god-like entity first became love-struck with Arethusa is analogous to the 9/11 attack described in this Nostradamus prophecy, an operation that the plotters designated with the codename "the Big Wedding"²⁶. Al Qaeda conceived an unholy wedding with America on that fateful day, irrevocably establishing itself as a shadow empire to America that became America's obsession. Arethusa fled and hid from the god-like entity that earnestly pursued her, much as Al Qaeda flees and hides from the superpower America that earnestly pursues these killers. The god-like entity is motivated to pursue Arethusa out of love, as America is motivated to pursue Al Qaeda out of love for the Americans and the American security that these killers threaten. By pursuing Arethusa, the god-like entity forced the huntress to elude him by becoming invisible and traveling underground, much as America has destroyed Al Qaeda's state-sponsorship and forced the empire underground. As a result, Al Qaeda is now invisible, much harder to catch and definitely immune to nuclear counterattack. Nostradamus' reference to Arethusa turning a river red nominally alludes to Arethusa's magical evasive ability to turn into a liquid and blend into water, implying that her natural color is red. Al Qaeda's color is red, the traditional color of bloody vengeance, and the color that the 9/11 hijackers prominently displayed as head bandanas during the 9/11 hijackings²⁷. Despite Arethusa's skillful elusiveness, the god-like entity never relents in his pursuit of her, just as America will never relent in its post-9/11 pursuit of Al Qaeda. Nostradamus' classical allusion to the Greek myth of Arethusa aptly describes the nature of Bin Laden and his relationship with America that was founded on the 9/11 attack.

The name "Arethusa" also is an anagram for the third antichrist Usama, the mastermind of the 9/11 attack identified in 9q17 and 10q72. Rearranging the letters of the name "Arethusa" and substituting one letter, "h", with "m", as permitted by Nostradamus' system of anagrams²⁸, reveals "Usama tre" or "Usama the third". In the context of Nostradamus' other prophecies on 9/11, this prophecy refers to Usama as the third one or the third antichrist. The name of Nostradamus' second antichrist, Hitler, has been traditionally arrived deciphered in Nostradamus' prophecies by precisely the same anagram technique of substituting one letter in the name of an anagram referring to the man. The name Hister, a classical allusion to Hitler's birthplace on the Danube River, becomes Hitler using this technique (in 2q24 and 5q29, two prophecies that very accurately describe Hitler and his war). Nostradamus hits a prophetic bull's-eye in 1q87, revealing the name of the man who orchestrated the 9/11 attack in the context of a detailed description of the earth-shaking event.

In response to the new world war of the two rocks, the 9/11 war, the third antichrist Usama retaliates with an orgy of mass murder. The line "then Arethusa will color a new river red" figuratively describes the bloody results of Bin Laden's retaliation to the perennial war of the two rocks, be it Al Qaeda's post-Cold War terrorist campaign, the unprecedented increase in Al Qaeda attacks globally since the onset of America's War on Terror or future attacks. In particular, the 9/11 attack described 1q87 represented a new direction in global terrorism, the first successful major foreign terrorist attack on the American homeland. In sight of the famous Hudson River, Bin Laden launched his most bloody assault on the victorious belligerent of the Cold War.

A battle over a red river in the context of the Western-Islamic conflict harkens to one of the most famous modern battles between the West and Islam, the Suez Canal crisis in the Red Sea region. The Suez Canal is a man-made river connecting the domain of the traditionally European-dominated Mediterranean and the traditionally Muslim-dominated Red Sea, a vivid symbol of the territorial clash between the two cultures. At the onset of the Cold War, the new Israeli-Palestinian conflict and the increasing importance of Middle Eastern oil catalyzed a brewing conflict between the West and Islam over control of the vital Suez Canal trade route. A Western coalition of England, France and Israel invaded Egypt to seize control of the canal and oust the anti-Israeli Egyptian regime in 1957. This conspicuous attempt at Western colonialism in the Middle East failed miserably. The results of this much heralded Muslim victory over the West, particularly in the context of the America-Israeli alliance of the Cold War in the Middle East, was an increase in America's unilateral support for Israel and a rejuvenation of Muslim confidence in thwarting the perceived modern Western crusade. Additionally, the Muslim outrage at this aggressive military invasion by the West fueled support for the brewing Islamic holy war against the West. The battles on the Suez Canal during this crisis sunk many vessels and killed many men, turning the river red figuratively if not literally, an assault Islamic extremists use as a rallying call to this day. This pivotal battle in the long war of the two rocks, be they the Twin Towers representing American global economic pursuits, the Cold War superpowers or the American-Israeli alliance against Islam, set the stage for Bin Laden's 9/11 attack described in this prophecy.

Nostradamus allusion to the Red Sea conflict of the Suez Canal Crisis in the context of Arethusa coloring a new river red indicates that Bin Laden has or will attempt another major Islamic victory over the West, be it the successful 9/11 attack so vividly described or a future attack. Interestingly, the famous Suez Canal crisis was resolved in the year Usama bin Laden was born, 1957. Nostradamus' allusion to this conflict therefore dates the birth of his third antichrist who commits the 9/11 attack. While not personally involved in the Suez Canal Crisis, Bin Laden did second this Islamic victory when he launched a successful millennial attack on the waters of the Red Sea region. Signaling the advent of the millennial antichrist, Nostradamus' Arethusa bombed the USS Destroyer Cole in the port of Aden, which intersects the Suez Canal-Red Sea Route. This 2000 attack represented a bloodying of these Islamic waters and identified Bin Laden as the millennial Destroyer of Revelation 9:11 who was reclaiming this territory for his Islamic empire (see "Appendix B: The Story of Revelation 9:11" for a detailed analysis of this biblical prophecy about Bin Laden's 9/11 attack). Bin Laden's vengeful retaliation to the Western crusade in the Middle East, symbolized by the 1956-57 quarrel over control of the Red Sea, climaxed with the 9/11 attack so accurately predicted by Nostradamus.

The date most explicitly revealed by the prophecy 1q87 is 1987. 1987 was a pivotal year in the defining events leading up to Al Qaeda's 9/11 attack described in this prophecy. Al Qaeda was created and christened in 1987 in Bin Laden's Afghan base camp following the beginning of the Soviet withdrawal from Afghanistan²⁹. In 1987 humanity also witnessed the first Palestinian uprising (intifada) against Israeli occupation, the first foundation for Al Qaeda's primary war justification. Al Qaeda would foment this uprising, which began anew during the millennium, by taking the war to the supposed foundation of Israeli power in the American economic and military might represented by the "two rocks" of the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

Also in 1987, the critical precursor to the Bush II Administration, Bush Sr.'s presidency, began its procession to fruition when Bush I announced his presidential candidacy. The successful election of Bush I was the critical foundation for Bush II's presidency, whose colossal underestimation of Al Qaeda enabled the 9/11 attack and who thereafter would become Al Qaeda's most valuable asset in demonizing America in world opinion in prelude to Bin Laden's future nuclear war. Bush I's campaign largely owed its success to his participation in the wildly popular Reagan/Bush Administration and its victory in the Cold War, a fact that became apparent in 1987 with the beginning of the Soviet withdrawal from Afghanistan and the Soviet policy of integration with America's Western culture (Glasnost). This year marked the onset of the cultural and military disintegration of the Soviet Union that initiated its collapse. The global power vacuum formed in 1987 by the onset of the collapse of the Soviet Union would be filled overtly by America and covertly by Al Qaeda, the two key belligerents of the current world war.

This year also marked the end of the Cold War nuclear arms race when America and the Soviet Union signed the Intermediate-Range Nuclear Forces Treaty, an unprecedented halt to the superpowers' nuclear proliferation through the first elimination of an entire class of nuclear weapons and the first in-depth verification program for a nuclear arms treaty. As a stateless empire immune to nuclear counterattack, particularly after the 2001 fall of its sole state sponsorship, Al Qaeda has filled the void left by the Soviet Union's withdrawal from the global nuclear conflict. 1987 signaled the passing of the nuclear torch from a defeated Cold War belligerent to the newly created Al Qaeda, which would most likely acquire its future nuclear arsenal from the vast USSR stockpiles. Considering Bin Laden's strategic genius, it was likely his acquisition of this vast nuclear arsenal that finally emboldened him to provoke America into the world war with the 9/11 attack, which Nostradamus so accurately and precisely described.

Post-9/11 Events

Beyond the 9/11 attack, Nostradamus accurately describes major successive developments of his third antichrist's world war. Since the 9/11 attack, America's most reliable ally in Bush's War on Terror has been England. Nostradamus describes this critical alliance against the final antichrist involving the deferment of the British head of state to American power, and the catastrophic results for England that result.

10q66 - The chief of London through the rule of America,

Will burden England with a cold thing:

Roy Reb will have so false an Antichrist,

As to bring them all into the conflict.

This prophecy describes the subordination of England to a foreign power. The quatrain number 10q66 explicitly harkens to the date 1066, the last time England was successfully invaded and conquered. Following 9/11, Prime Minister Tony Blair, the chief of London, was pressured through the rule of America to burden England with an alliance led by a reckless world leader, President George Bush. Just as England was conquered a millennium ago, England was conquered in the opening year of the third millennium when President Bush hijacked the British government and forced England into collusion with his criminal post-9/11 attacks.

By cooling and eventual freezing America's friendly international relations (a cold thing), President Bush has placed a burden on England through its American alliance. This diplomatic disaster has recast England as a magnet for a tidal wave of anti-American sentiment that will descend on England in the form of catastrophic terrorist attacks and the subjugation of England to Al Qaeda's will. Considering that the soft power of friendly global relations is the critical factor in eliminating the Al Qaeda movement and fortifying American and British security, the destruction of this power-base by Bush's alienation of the international community is the most important feature of the current American-Anglo alliance in Bush's War on Terror.

The enigmatic name "Roy Reb" signifies President Bush Jr., who is confronted with "so false an Antichrist" as Bin Laden. The word "Roy" is Nostradamus' native Old French/French for the title "King", and the word "Reb" is an abbreviation both for the Old French/French word "Rebelle" and the English word "Rebel". The epithet "King Rebel", or "the rebel King", aptly describes the rebellious President George Bush. Harkening to the King of 9q17 (see above), this title accurately describes the controversial ascendancy of the superpower's leader who owes his presidency primarily to inheritance. Having lived a notoriously rebellious youth, including infamous partying exploits, a number of drinking and driving citations and cocaine abuse, George Bush eventually grew up to be an American president who rebelled from the international community. Withdrawing America from a plethora of international treaties, such as the Kyoto Pact, the Nuclear Non-Proliferation Treaty, the Anti-Ballistic Missile Treaty and the World Court, President George W. Bush, culminated his rebellion from the international community when he abandoned the will of the United Nations and the majority of the world opinion by invading Iraq in the face of the largest global protest in history. Bush's rebellious actions have unwittingly played into the master scheme of the third Antichrist by demonizing the United States in world opinion as a rich, arrogant and apathetic rebel empire. By portraying America as an international outlaw, Bush has virtually assured America's eternal vilification as a Great Satan empire.

A primary motivation for Bush's rebellion from the international community has been his unspoken belief that he is the millennial Messiah of the Apocalypse. An evangelical Christian who arose to the throne of the world's only superpower precisely at the turn of the millennium, Bush has publicly revealed the influence of his evangelical faith on his policies more than any other American president. In particular, Bush has framed himself as the leader of a war to "eradicate evil in the world", an ambition of unprecedented proportions that vividly harkens to the war of the Messiah of the Apocalypse, a long-awaited man who figures most prominently in the evangelical Christian faith. The Messiah is described biblically as the King of the Jews, their Lord Protector, a role Bush has unabashedly assumed with his withdrawal of American mediation in the Middle East and unequivocal support for the Israeli government in its war against the Palestinians. Interestingly, Nostradamus' epithet "Roy Reb" can also translate as "the King Rabbi", or "the King of the Jews", since "Reb" is a Yiddish word for the title of Rabbi. Nostradamus, who was a Jew well studied in Jewish texts, used the double meaning behind this epithet for President Bush to describe the evangelical Christian Messiah Pretender whose rebellious foreign policy would convince the world community of the veracity of Bin Laden's indictment of America as a Great Satan empire.

The effect of Bush's Messiah Pretension has been to mask the identity of the most abominable villain in the current world war. Bin Laden has been so false an Antichrist by cunningly instigating a world war in order to fulfill his covert ambition of portraying to the world the Messiah of the Apocalypse who destroys the Great Satan. Nostradamus' most false Antichrist has attempted to accomplish this goal by launching the 9/11 attack primarily to provoke Bush into demonizing America with an outlandish, globally destabilizing retaliation⁴. Instead of declaring his belligerent intentions outright, Bin Laden has guilefully revealed the scope of his world war gradually to humanity. As is evident now through the benefit of history's eye, Bin Laden has intended since founding Al Qaeda to bring them all into the conflict, to start a world war that would involve America, England and the rest of the world. Bin Laden first overtly targeted the American presence in Saudi Arabia, then expanded his terrorist campaign to target the American empire abroad, then the American homeland, then the homelands and global presence of America's allies, all the while concealing his direction of terrorist attacks in Muslim lands and neighboring countries such as Pakistan-India, Chechnya-Russia, the Philippines, Indonesia and post-Saddam Iraq. Only many years after the fact did Bin Laden reveal his involvement in such terrorist attacks as the 1983 bombing of the U.S. Marine Barracks in Lebanon, the first World Trade Center bombing and the 1993 attack on American forces in Somalia. Since the Iraq invasion, Bin Laden has particularly revealed his intention to dominate Europe, including Tony Blair's England, with a reign of terror that he had been planning for at least a decade.

The index number, 10q66, of this prophecy about England's cataclysmic deferment to American power reveals the two critical dates of Bin Laden's rise to power. The upside-down image of the number, read 99 and 01, reveals the respective dates of the initiation and the execution of the 9/11 attack, 1999 (see 10q72 explanation, above) and ⁴ An assertion supported by The 9/11 Commission Report, electronic version (Microsoft Reader format), p.502.

2001. Most importantly for England, this index number reveals the date, 2001 when the chief of England formed his alliance with America in Bush's War on Terror. As a result of this alliance, British Prime Minister Tony Blair now teeters on the verge of political disaster because of the widespread condemnation of Bush's outlandish 9/11 retaliation that the British public shares with the international community. Most ominously, England itself now lurches on the brink of a devastating Al Qaeda terrorist campaign because of the nation's support for the Bush war, most glaringly the criminal invasion of Iraq.

Nostradamus, living centuries after the end of the Crusades of the Middle Ages, described a future crusade centered in modern-day Iraq.

3q61 - The great host and sect of the crusaders,

Will be massed in Mesopotamia.

Two days after 9/11, the evangelical Christian President Bush described his post-9/11 War on Terror, the highlight of which has been his preemptive invasion of Iraq (the ancient land of Mesopotamia), as a "crusade" against Islamic terrorists. Harkening to the abhorred preemptive Christian invasion of the Middle East, Bush then proceeded to launch a preemptive invasion of the Middle East with a predominantly Christian army. In fact, Bush's great superpower army is the largest Christian army ever to fight in the Middle East. Much like the Crusades, Bush's crusade represented a multi-generational besiegement of the Middle East that began under the presidency of his father with America's first Gulf War, continued with America's No-Fly Zone War against Iraq and climaxed with Bush's total invasion. The sustained American war against Iraq has caused hundreds of thousands of deaths, unprecedented Iraqi casualties that mirror the unprecedented carnage of the Crusades.

The index number of the prophecy, 3q61, appears to offer two critical dates in America's "crusade" in Iraq. Most prominently, the "3" indicates the 3rd month of the 3rd year of the 3rd millennium, March 2003, the month of the Iraq invasion. The upside-down image of the number "61" is "19", revealing the date 3/19, the day Bush's invasion of Iraq began. The digits of the index number "61" become 91 when rotated upside-down, the date of America's first Gulf War against Iraq. This is a fitting disguise for this date considering that Bush's 2003 invasion represented a 180-degree reversal of America's policy of containing Saddam that was established by his father in 1991. Much of the world, especially Muslims, views Bush's crusade in the Middle East as an aggressive Christian holy war against Muslims in their holiest land.

Nostradamus elaborates on his description of this unprecedented Christian holy war in modern-day Iraq with a depiction of his great King of Terror of 10q72 using Iraq as a launch pad for his terrible designs.

2q30 - One who the infernal gods of Hannibal, will cause to be reborn, terror to all mankind:

Never more horror nor the newspapers tell of worse in the past,

Then will come to the Italians through Babel.

Nostradamus describes the final antichrist's unprecedented global reign of terror (terror to all mankind: Never more horror nor the newspapers tell of worse in the past) from a base in Iraq (Babel). Describing this man as a product of "infernal gods", Nostradamus harkens to the "infernal final antichrist" of the nuclear age (see Nostradamus' Epistle to Henry II, verse 208, below).

Nostradamus refers to Bin Laden by the epithet "one who the infernal gods of Hannibal cause to be reborn", a phrase that indicates his third antichrist's birth region, chief combat region, race and religion. Nostradamus likens the Arab Muslim Bin Laden to the famous super-general Hannibal of Carthage, a Philistine people whose descendants are Arab Muslims. The Carthaginian Empire included Bin Laden's homeland, the Arabian Peninsula, the central focus of Bin Laden's holy war, as well as North Africa, another main theatre of Bin Laden's war from where he first established his international terrorist empire from 1992-1996. Hannibal was the champion of Philistine Carthage in its perennial battle against Western civilization as represented by ancient Rome (modern day Italy). Nostradamus' description of this man as an all-powerful general who terrorizes the world aptly reveals Bin Laden's openly declared goal to bring a final resolution to the ancient conflict between the Arabs and the West.

Nostradamus describes this terrorist-general using the land of ancient Babel, modern-day Iraq, as a staging ground for his terrorist war. Bin Laden's actions before and after the American invasion of Iraq indicate that this event was crucial to his holy war. In each of his three most unprecedented terrorist attacks on America since the Gulf War, the first World Trade Center bombing in 1993, the 1998 African embassy bombings and the 9/11 attack, Bin Laden timed and orchestrated the attacks in such a way as to indicate an alliance with Iraq³⁰. For example, the 1993 attempt to destroy the Twin Towers was executed on the anniversary of Saddam's 1991 Gulf War defeat. An Al Qaeda cell that consisted partly of Iraqi agents, the members of which made numerous phone calls to Iraq, orchestrated the bombing. Since 1993, which is also the year of the first known attempt by Al Qaeda to obtain nuclear weapons, it has been clear that an American invasion of Iraq was central to Bin Laden's plan for a nuclear holocaust.

In response to the American invasion of Iraq, Al Qaeda called for Muslim retaliation against America and followed this call by an unprecedented increase in the frequency of Al Qaeda attacks in the month after the Iraq war ended, including massive multiple car bombings in Saudi Arabia, Morocco and Chechnya. Al Qaeda has since used the Western occupation of Iraq to justify the beginning of its attacks on Europe, beginning with the infamous Madrid Train bombings. Notably, Al Qaeda used its Iraqi branch to direct the execution of this attack³¹. Since the Spain bombings, Al Qaeda has repeatedly threatened every major European ally of America in the Iraq occupation with large-scale attacks, notably singling out Italy for an impending terrorist campaign³². Already, in the most deadly single attack on coalition troops inside Iraq, Al Qaeda's Iraqi branch killed nineteen Italian servicemen in a November 2003 bombing, the deadliest attack on Italian troops since WWII. An unprecedented Al Qaeda attack on Italians inside Italy, consistent with Al Qaeda's current targeting of Europe, would complete this Nostradamus prophecy. As Nostradamus identifies in this prophecy, Iraq is today the central battlefield of the war on terror from where Al Qaeda will expand its global terrorist campaign to new heights.

The reverse of this prophecy's index number 2q30, read 03q2, reveals the decisive month in America's preparation for the invasion of Iraq, 2003 February. In February 2003, Colin Powell's infamous speech to the United Nations Security Council failed to win United Nations support for the Bush Administration's plan to invade Iraq, committing America to a unilateral invasion of Iraq despite unprecedented international protest. This public relations catastrophe provided Al Qaeda with the necessary pretext it has used to escalate its holy war in its breadth, to Europe, and in its depth, to a level of unprecedented destruction inside a single nation. This event will allow Bin Laden, Nostradamus' second antichrist reborn, to foment the global holocaust that Hitler could not complete.

Nostradamus' detailed description of the 9/11 War lends credence to his dire predictions of global apocalyptic destruction arising from the final antichrist's millennial world war. Collectively, Nostradamus' prophecies about this war predict:

- The details of Bin Laden's 9/11 plot, explicitly dating its inception in July 1999, its execution in 2001, America's consequent entry into his world war on September 17, 2001, and the creation of Al Qaeda in 1987,
- President Bush's scandalous millennial election and his colossal mismanagement of the war against Al Qaeda,
- The name of the third antichrist, Usama, and the details of his global holy war,
- The American-Anglo alliance against the third antichrist, and
- The Western invasion of Iraq that has provided the third antichrist with a staging ground for his world war.

Distinguishing himself as humanity's most preeminent prophet, with amazing precision Nostradamus dates and describes the current global conflict.

Linking 9/11 to Napoleon and Hitler

The centerpiece of Nostradamus' prophecies is his detailed description of the three men he labeled "antichrists". Each of the three men is described as a demonic world leader who foments a war of unprecedented death and destruction. Through names, dates and descriptions of events, Nostradamus clearly identifies Napoleon Bonaparte, Adolf Hitler and Usama bin Laden⁵. The prophet's titular designation of these three men accurately identifies each as a megalomaniac mass murderer who used an army of unprecedented power to conquer the world. Furthermore, the name "antichrist" accurately portends that each man attempted to pose as an apocalyptic Christ-like figure who would unite humanity under his flag and recreate civilization into a utopia. Nostradamus' detailed descriptions of the three tyrants depict a thrice-repeated parallel history that combines to direct humanity towards the one true War of the Apocalypse.

Beyond stating widely known facts about these three men, Nostradamus' prophecies reveal a highly enigmatic connection between his three antichrists. One of the most explicit associations Nostradamus makes between Napoleon, Hitler and Bin Laden relates to the timing of their world wars. In one of Nostradamus' prophecies he states that the wars of the three antichrists will be equally long, each lasting a period of approximately twenty-five years.

⁵ While there is consensus among Nostradamus scholars about the identities of his first two antichrists (see Nostradamus: The Complete Prophecies by John Hogue) the identity of his final antichrist is, understandably, hotly debated today.

Epistle to Henry II 208-209³³ - After that the Antichrist will be the infernal prince. Again for the third and last time, all the Kingdoms of Christianity, and even those of the infidels, will tremble for the space of twenty-five years, and there will be more grievous wars and battles.

Nostradamus clearly reveals that the war of the third antichrist will last "again for the third and last time . . . twenty-five years", stating unequivocally that the wars of the three antichrists will last the same length of time, approximately a quarter of a century. In another line of his prophecies Nostradamus specifies that the war of the third antichrist will last exactly twenty-seven years.

8q77 - The third antichrist . . . Twenty-seven years his bloody war will last.

Combining these clear statements from the Epistle prophecy and 8q77, it is reasonable to understand that Nostradamus is stating that the wars of the three antichrists will last exactly twenty-seven years.

The careers of Napoleon, Hitler and Bin Laden each constituted one man's war to conquer the world. Jointly supporting Nostradamus' prophecy about the length of each of the antichrists' wars, Nostradamus scholars widely agree that Napoleon and Hitler were Nostradamus' first two antichrists, and historians of the two men widely agree that Napoleon's and Hitler's career each lasted twenty-seven years (1789-1815 and 1919-1945, respectively). Nostradamus' unequivocal statement that the three antichrist's wars will last twenty-seven years is a most remarkable prophecy.

THE CONSENSUS OF ANCIENT PROPHETS

Corroboration with Global Prophecy

A wide range of ancient prophecy from around the world supports the implication of Nostradamus' prophecies that the modern millennial era is the age of the Apocalypse. The most heralded of humanity's ancient prophets have slated the Apocalypse to occur in the next few years, a forecast that has progressively neared fruition since the onset of the post-9/11 world war. Over the past five thousand years, prophets from no less than five cultures, having no apparent connection with each other, have agreed that these are the last days of modern civilization.

- Ancient Egyptian Prophecy in the Great Pyramid: The Final War of Purification will begin on September 17, 2001. In fulfillment of this prophecy, on this day President Bush promulgated his post-9/11 national security doctrine in a three-page top-secret document. This presidential directive outlined Bush's plan for a world war on terror, beginning with an invasion of Afghanistan and continuing with an invasion of Iraq. This national security directive reveals the most unprecedented hallmark of the post-9/11 Bush doctrine, unilateralist preemptive war against nations without a terrorist association with Al Qaeda. As a first step towards implementing this authorization for war with Afghanistan, on September 17, 2001 the United States officially gave the Taliban the ultimatum to release Bin Laden to America's custody or face an American invasion. Bush declared his world war on terror on the precise day predicted thousands of years of ago to be the day the final war would begin.

- The Bible: The Final War of the Apocalypse will spiral out of a holy war between the newly created state of Israel and the Palestinians. Iraq will be a staging area for this final war. A primary instigator of this war will be a man identified in Revelation as the Destroyer of 9:11. This verse of the final chapter of the bible describes the revelation of this man's identity to the world on the day he executes the first horror of the Apocalypse.
- The Mayans: Civilization will end on December 21, 2012.
- St. Malachy: According to this prophet's list of the future popes, after the current pope there will only be two more popes until the Final Judgment and the end of civilization.
- The Hopi: The final sign that will occur to mark the beginning of the Apocalypse will be the falling to earth of a dwelling that had orbited the planet. The only domiciles that have existed in orbit have been the space stations. The space station MIR fell from its orbit in 2001, the year the world war on terror began.

Considering the stunning accuracy and corroboration of these ancient prophecies in dating the beginning of the War on Terror, logic demands that humanity understand and heed these warnings in order to avoid the annihilation of civilization.

Ancient Egyptian Prophecy in the Great Pyramid

The Great Pyramid at Giza is one of the world's most unexplained creations. The building and design of the Pyramid reveals that an advanced ancient knowledge was behind its construction. Although it is the oldest known structure on earth, it is nevertheless the largest stone building on the planet. The precision of the placement of the mammoth stones relative to each other and the earth is astounding. The Great Pyramid is a wondrous feat of engineering such that, even with today's technology, this building cannot be reconstructed. Beyond its construction, the placement of the Great Pyramid and its measurements demonstrate a precise architectural alignment with the planet. The Pyramid is located at the center of all the land area of the world, positioned precisely at the point where the longest land parallel and the longest land meridian intersect. Equally fascinating, many of the measurements of the Great Pyramid equate precisely to the corresponding measurements of the earth. For example, the sides of the Great Pyramid have an intentionally constructed concavity of a circle whose radius equals the radius of the earth. The Great Pyramid is an ancient marvel of engineering and architecture that stands perennially as a testament to an unknown advanced knowledge base³⁴.

Aside from the amazing architectural ingenuity and understanding of the Earth's physical dimensions, the Great Pyramid demonstrates an ancient knowledge of prophecy. The purpose of this structure has been a hotly debated question for ages because, unlike other ancient Egyptian pyramids, it contains neither a pharaoh's body nor a treasure room. While there is no conclusive evidence that the Great Pyramid served as a tomb, there is substantial evidence that this most extraordinary building had the most extraordinary purpose of preserving a detailed prophetic outline of humanity's future. Within the inner passageways of the Great Pyramid, ancient Egyptians forecasted the future of humanity, a prophecy that slates the Final War to begin on September of 2001. This date is arrived at by an analysis of the two mysterious main passageways within the pyramid. By corresponding the ancient Egyptian unit of measurement, the pyramid-inch, to years, the geometry, stone type and stone design of these two tunnels appear to accurately predict the major events in human history. Such events as the birth of Jesus, the Crusades, the American Declaration of Independence, WWI and WWII, the birth of the nuclear age and the onset of the Cold War all are pinpointed by date and significance. The last day indicated in the Great Pyramid passageways is September 17, 2001. This date is the most prominently represented date in the passageways, distinguished from the others by the anomalous placement of a strange granite marker at this position within the Pyramid. 9/17/01 is the final date indicated before the entrance to the King's Chamber, a room referred to in ancient Egyptian texts by the apocalyptic title "the Room of the Purification of Nations"⁶. Interpreted through apocalyptic lore, this date represents the Final

Purification through war that occurs right before humanity's entrance to the Promised Land, that is, God's Kingdom on earth.

Amazingly, in 9q17 Nostradamus corroborates the ancient Egyptian Great Pyramid prophecy (discovered centuries after Nostradamus' time) that the War of the Apocalypse would begin on the millennial day of September 17th. On this day, Bush promulgated his post-9/11 war plan. This action included the effective declaration of war on Afghanistan and the beginning of Bush's doctrine of preemptive war through the initiation of his plan to invade Iraq in response to the 9/11 attack. September 17, 2001 marked the beginning of the War of the Apocalypse because of Bush's reckless escalation of the conflict that Bin Laden began six days earlier. At least two distinctly different sources independently predicted this momentous event.

The Bible

Biblical prophecy concurs that these are the Last Days. Most notably, a date for the holy war of the Apocalypse is explicitly given in Revelation 9:11. This passage reveals the name of the king Destroyer of the Apocalypse, a presaged revelation that Revelation 9:12 refers to as "the first horror". This revelatory event is the first cataclysmic attack that begins the Final War of the Antichrist, referred to in Revelation as the 9:11 Destroyer and the beast of Revelation 13:18, (see "Appendix A: 666" for a demonstration of how Osama bin Laden's name equates to the name of the beast of Rev 13:18). With unrivaled precision, the 9:11 Revelation passage prophesizes the 9/11 attack, called the "first horror" of the Apocalypse, even pinpointing the day the Final War begins and describing a monumentally horrific airborne attack that signals the global revelation of the identity of the Destroyer of civilization (see "Appendix B: The Story of Revelation 9:11").

Other biblical prophecies identify two specific wars that converge into the War of the Apocalypse. In Ezekiel 38:8, the author slates the age when the Israeli state is born to be in "the latter days" of civilization, a euphemism for the final days before the Apocalypse³⁵. In 1947-1948, the modern state of Israel was created, and, today, the current global conflict has mushroomed out of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. The War of the Apocalypse is predicted to spawn from the concurrent eruption of an Israeli-Palestinian war and an invasion of the land of ancient Babylon, modern day Iraq (Zechariah 12:3, Isaiah 11:11, Rev 9:12-19, Rev 17/18). The ongoing Palestinian uprising against the Israeli occupation and the insurgent war against the American occupation of Iraq meet these two criteria. The fruition of this prophecy in the current millennial age establishes today as a possible time for the Apocalypse.

Interestingly, both the modern state of Israel and the nuclear age began at the same time as a reaction to the Nazi empire. Israel was created from the Jewish Diaspora after Hitler's Holocaust, and the American atomic bomb was created because of fears of the Nazi atomic bomb program. Like Israel, the advent of the nuclear age created the prerequisite for the Apocalypse, described throughout the bible as a global war that involves the fiery destruction of civilization by stars that fall from the sky (Revelation 9:11-9:19, see also 12:4, 13:13). The vast nuclear arsenal of artificial star bombs attached to intercontinental ballistic missiles throughout the world today is the only weapon in human history that could cause this kind of global fiery destruction. The proliferation of nuclear weapons to Islamic terrorists, particularly Al Qaeda via the Russian black market, threatens to spark this fiery Final War from the ongoing Israeli-Palestinian and Iraqi conflicts. The current global situation, including the Israeli-Palestinian war, the American occupation of Iraq and the 9/11 attack, fulfills these biblical prophecies and so pinpoints today as the time of the Apocalypse.

The Mayans

The dead civilization of the Maya used their mastery of astrology to predict the transition to a new age on December 21, 2012. In corroboration with the prophecies of many other Native American peoples, the Mayan's believed humanity goes through a period of cataclysmic destruction and rebirth every 26,000 years. The Mayans further maintain that the climax of this momentous age occurs on a winter solstice of a very particular astrological alignment. On this day, the sun will be in precise alignment with the center of the galaxy. This alignment will create an awesome celestial event known as the Birth Canal of Cosmic Mother. This event, which is projected to occur on December 21, 2012, symbolizes humanity's rebirth and evolution to a higher plain of existence³⁶.

Interestingly, the bible appears to support this Mayan assertion about the importance of the year 2012. The climax of the biblical story of the Apocalypse is the Final Judgment, a day of purification by destruction that coincides with humanity's entrance to the Promised Land. If any one date were to be prophesized by the bible, it would likely be the final climactic stage of the war. Revelation 20:12 is a unique verse in Revelation that singularly describes the Final Judgment and destruction of civilization.

In much the same way that Revelation 9:11 dates the 9/11 attack, Revelation 20:12 dates the Final Judgment of the Apocalypse, in tandem with Mayan prophecy, to be 2012.

St. Malachy

The twelfth century Irish monk St. Malachy prophesized a list of the future Catholic popes that counts only two more popes until Armageddon, confirming the Apocalypse timeframe pinpointed by other ancient prophecies. Using epithets for the popes' names, St. Malachy made startlingly accurate predictions about the lives of many of the popes of the past seven hundred years. John Paul II is called The Labor of the Sun, perhaps reflecting the persistent laboring of the most-traveled pope in history to foster global peace and stave off looming Armageddon by the man-made suns of the nuclear age. The pope following John Paul II is called the Olive Branch, perhaps reflecting this future pope's desperate overtures for peace after the labor of the sun is lost in a major nuclear exchange. The final pope, named Peter, presides during the Final Judgment of the Apocalypse, an event that the current global conflict alone suggests could be imminent³⁷. The frailty of the current pope and the ongoing serious threats to Rome and Vatican City by Al Qaeda suggest that the rapid succession of two more popes and the fulfillment of this Apocalypse prophecy are quite possible.

The Hopi

Since the arrival of white men in the Americas, the Hopi Native Americans have forecasted certain signs that will lead up to the Apocalypse. The Hopi prophecy maintained that one pivotal sign marking the onset of the End Days would be the appearance of a spectacular blue star in the night sky³⁸. In 1987, a blue star appeared in the sky when an extremely rare, previously unknown blue supernova occurred. Widely reported in the top headlines of newspapers worldwide, this was the brightest supernova observed in four centuries. 1987 was a year prominently predicted as the beginning of the End Days of this civilization by other cultures, including Nostradamus in his 1q87 prophecy (see above), the ancient Egyptian prophetic timeline inside the Great Pyramid and the Mayan calendar prophecy³⁹.

A historical analysis reveals that this widely corroborated year initiated the age of the End Days. The year 1987 marked the transition from the Soviet Cold War against America to Bin Laden's global holy war against America, as revealed by the beginning of the collapse of the Soviet Union and the Soviet withdrawal from Afghanistan. After the initiation of the Soviet withdrawal, in 1987 Bin Laden created Al Qaeda to wage a global holy war against Israel and its source of sponsorship in America. Additionally, 1987 marked the beginning of the Palestinians' first Islamic uprising against the Israelis, the first cornerstone of Al Qaeda's justification for holy war against America. As has been witnessed at the onset of the new millennium, the spawning of Bin Laden's global Islamic holy war in the Afghan wasteland of the Cold War in 1987 led directly to the apocalyptic war predicted by numerous ancient prophets.

After the appearance of the blue star in 1987, the final sign of the Apocalypse predicted by the Hopi was the falling to the surface of a human abode that had orbited the earth⁴⁰. The 2001 destruction of the space station MIR (which means "peace" in Russian) in the year the world war on terror began, targets today to be the end to the nuclear peace of the Cold War and the beginning of the Apocalypse predicted by the Hopi.

In addition to these specific signs, the Hopi, in concurrence with most Apocalyptic literature, foresaw the prelude to the Final Destruction of this world by fire as a time of great disturbances, both climatic and civil, including hurricanes, famines and wars. In the current millennial age, the onset of a world war and the increase in hurricanes, floods and droughts⁴¹ has created this very unstable climate of Armageddon.

Conclusion

The prophecies of the ancient Egyptians, the Bible, the Mayans, St. Malachy, and the Hopi agree with the preminent predictions of Nostradamus that this is modern civilization's last decade. Collectively, these prophecies predicted the creation of Al Qaeda and the seeding of its puppet American administration in 1987, the initiation of the millennial plot to provoke World War III by the "great King of Terror" in July of 1999, the revelation of the Destroyer of Revelation 9:11 and his puppet American president in the year 2000, the inception of the Final War with the execution of the 9/11 attack in September of 2001, the beginning of Bush's War on Terror on September 17, 2001, and the concurrent eruption of an Israeli-Palestinian war and an invasion of Iraq. These amazingly accurate global prophecies further predict the rapid succession of two more popes and an imminent global nuclear war that leads to the total destruction of modern civilization by Dec. 21, 2012.

Global recognition of the nature of the threat of Nostradamus' Antichrist could allow humanity to make the necessary course corrections to thwart his demonic plan to conquer the world and portray himself as the Messiah of the Apocalypse. Most urgently, civilization must heed the authoritative prophecies about a Western invasion of Iraq that would set the staging ground for the climax of the third Antichrist's global reign of terror. Bush's invasion of Iraq has provided Bin Laden with a choice battleground for his holy war by which he has expanded his influence and his global terrorist campaign. Bin Laden's designs can only be thwarted by removing the issue of Iraq as a rallying call for

Al Qaeda. More generally, Bin Laden's movement can only be defeated if Al Qaeda is effectively demonized in world opinion and its nemesis, America, is effectively glorified as a generous and miraculous benefactor of civilization.

Regardless of the American administration's success in this effort, there is great reason to rejoice. Beside all the terrible predictions about the Age of the Apocalypse, there is the most widely anticipated aspect of this pivotal era: humanity's entrance into the Promised Land. After the purification of this world by a fiery Final War, humanity will be delivered into a world of perpetual paradise. The evil deeds of Nostradamus' Antichrist, although intended to merely exalt Bin Laden as the king of humanity, have the unintended paradoxical consequence of finally convincing humanity of the fallacy of warfare and violence. Revulsion of the Antichrist and his war will instill humanity with a lasting desire for peace and harmony that coalesces in a new stage of global enlightenment.

The fruition of these prophecies of the Apocalypse will convince a beleaguered humanity, longing for the comfort of God's cradle, that God is truly in total control of the universe. Accepting the fact of predestination, humanity will forsake its ancient quest to dominate the world in exchange for a return to communion with God. This will be an existence of indescribable joy and excitement, a utopia in our minds. All our past sufferings will be well worth the future that God has destined for us all. In the end, there is nothing to fear about Bin Laden and the Apocalypse. These evil agents are merely the bristling fibers of the doormat to God's paradise on earth. We can go there now, if we choose, and forget all worries forever. Ultimately, our arrival in God's Kingdom is inevitable. It was written.

A Traditional Approach to Deciphering the 666 Code

The most famous prophecy about the Antichrist of the Apocalypse concerns the symbol "666". Revelation 13:18 offers a clue to the name of this man who is predicted to start a world war that kills two-thirds of humanity. St. John reveals the mark of this abominable beast to be "666". The mark, three sequential sixes, represents the number that stands for the beast's name. St. John phrases the passage as a riddle and implies that the way in which the mark equates to the beast's name will not be immediately obvious. The traditional approach to solving Rev 13:18 uses classical numerology, which assigns values to letters according to placement in the alphabet (A=1, B=2, Z=26). The number of the beast is calculated by summing the letters of this man's name.

As a person's name can vary from one language to the next, the search for the identity of the beast of Rev 13:18 must be narrowed to one language. Although Revelation was originally written in ancient Greek or Hebrew, the language to be used in the 666 calculation is not necessarily either of these languages, particularly considering that this is a prophecy to be decoded by humanity at the time of the Apocalypse⁷. As a message to all of humanity today, the solution to the mark of the beast would best use the language of the dominant culture, English. As a warning about the threat of the beast, the message is most pertinent to the people this man has targeted for destruction. Bin Laden has above all targeted the English-speaking Western world for destruction. As a revelation of the final king, the 666 calculation uses the language of the greatest kings of the earth, the Western world led by America.

⁷ Some researchers have maintained that the story of the beast of Rev 13:18 was merely intended to serve as a nebulous satire of the Roman Emperor Nero. According to these researchers, 666 is a code for the name of this Roman Emperor. Even if this hotly disputed theory is true, the notion of biblical prefigurement states that biblical events that occurred in ancient times can be repeated in a new context in the modern age. Therefore, the 666 prophecy could apply both to the Roman Emperor Nero and to a new demonic world leader. Certainly, the fulfillment of the prophecy of Rev 9:11 and the absence in ancient times of many of the events described in Revelation suggest that this biblical book was not intended to exclusively describe the happenings of antiquity.

Accepting English as the decoded language, we must now choose a formula to solve the mark of the beast. Approaching Rev 13:18 as a riddle, we can discount the obvious solution and look for a clue to the true solution in the passage. Positing that Rev 13:18 contains within it the equation to be used to calculate the value of the beast's name, one obvious place to investigate is the phrase "Mark of Beast". Equating this name to the value 666 reveals a simple formula.

M A R K O F B E A S T

$$(13+1+18+11+15+6+2+5+1+19+20)\times 6 = (111)\times 6 = 666$$

This clue to the solution of Rev 13:18 suggests that the number 666 is calculated by multiplying the summation of the beast's name (which must be 111) by a factor of 6, the classical number for the Devil that is so prominently emphasized in the mark of the beast.

Using this method (SUMx6), two other central biblical names pertinent to the 666 prophecy equate to six hundred and sixty-six. The other crucially specific Revelation clue to the identity of the Antichrist concerns the Destroyer of Revelation 9:11, Apollyon. The proper name of this self-made world-dominating emperor, "Apollyon I", equates to the number 666 by the same method.

A P O L L Y O N I

$$(1+16+15+12+12+25+15+14+1)\times 6=666$$

Apollyon is predicted to start a nuclear war that immediately kills one third of humanity, an event described in Rev 8:7. This passage concerns the First Angel who blows a trumpet to initiate the Final War, beginning with this nuclear exchange that kills a third of humanity. The name "First Angel" equates to 666 in the same way.

Using this numerological method of multiplying the summation of a name's letters by a factor of six, the public names of all three antichrists equate to 666. The name of the first incarnation of the Antichrist was revealed and became globally renown over a thousand years before his time in Rev 9:11 as Apollyon, a barely-disguised anagram for Napoleon. The revelation of Rev 9:11 is that the Destroyer who started WWIII on 9/11 is the reincarnation of Napoleon. As seen above, the public name of this colossal emperor, Apollyon I, equates to six hundred and sixty-six. By this same method, the public name of the second incarnation of the Antichrist, Adolf Hitler I, equates to the number 666.

$$(1+4+15+12+6+8+9+20+12+5+18+1)\times 6 = 666$$

The public name of the third incarnation of the Antichrist, Osama bin Laden I, also equates to the number 666.

O S A M A B I N L A D E N I

$$(15+19+1+13+1+2+9+14+12+1+4+5+14+1)\times 6 = 666$$

Furthering the implication of the Parallel Career Chronology, the tri-equation of the mark of the beast to the names of Napoleon, Hitler and Bin Laden suggests that these three men are the same identity.

Beyond clues based on mathematical calculations, the sequence 666 reveals symbolic clues about the identity of the Antichrist. The emphasis of the number six, classically regarded as the Devil's number, indicates this beast to be the most evil man that ever was. The number six is also classically regarded as the number of imperfection. The three repeated sixes can represent the three appearances of the Antichrist in the modern world, the cubed destructive effect of the Destroyer's thrice-repeated failure to conquer the world through mass murder and become the Messiah of the Apocalypse. The above equation of the three respective names to the number 666 tightly correlates with this tri-symbolism of the mark of the beast.

A New Approach to Deciphering the 666 Code

Despite these correlations with the number 666, the possibility exists that there is more than one solution to the riddle of Revelation 13:18. Another interpretation of the mark of the beast views the three sequential sixes as a mark representing an entirely different numerical value, 216. Mathematically, there are really two possible values for three sequential sixes. The traditional interpretation assumes the most obvious value for the mark, the number 666, with the assumption that the three sixes are the three digits of the numerical value of the mark. The only mathematical alternative to this value posits that the sequence of three sixes represents the multiplication of three sixes, as multiplication is the only basic mathematical operation that does not require a sign. The alternative numerical value for the mark of the beast is thus 216 (6x6x6).

The time-honored standard in numerology is that a word's value is the summation of its letters. Bin Laden's full name is Osamah bin Mohammed bin Laden I. The value of this name is 216.

$$O \quad s \quad a \quad m \quad a \quad h$$

$$15 + 19 + 1 + 13 + 1 + 8 = \quad \underline{57}$$

$$b \quad i \quad n$$

$$2 + 9 + 14 = \quad \underline{25}$$

$$M \quad o \quad h \quad a \quad m \quad m \quad e \quad d$$

$$13 + 15 + 8 + 1 + 13 + 13 + 5 + 4 = \quad \underline{72}$$

$$b \quad i \quad n$$

$$2 + 9 + 14 = \quad \underline{25}$$

$$L \quad a \quad d \quad e \quad n$$

$$12 + 1 + 4 + 5 + 14 = \quad \underline{36}$$

$$I$$

$$1 = \quad \underline{1}$$

216

There are a number of versions of Bin Laden's Latin name because the Latin and Arabic alphabets are not equivalent (Arabic has 28 letters, for example) and cannot be precisely interchanged. The differences in the various Latin spellings of his name stem from a commingling of the standard Arabic transliteration and the standard Westernized transliteration, Usama(h) bin Muhammad bin Ladin and Osama(h) bin Mohammed bin Laden, respectively. Since Bin Laden has targeted Western civilization for destruction, it is in this language, in the Westernized transliteration of the beast's name, that this prophecy is revealed. The beast was described some two millennia ago as the ruler of an earth-dominating empire and as such bares the customary dynastic Roman numeral in his proper name as written in the annals of history to come.

If the parallels between the careers of Bin Laden, Hitler and Napoleon continue to hold for the next three years, the United States and Al Qaeda could well be destroyed in 2005. This would mean that the United States, born in 1789, existed 216 years. 2005 is the zero year of this countdown to a nuclear war. The Antichrist's Great War, beginning in 1789 with the French Revolution's genesis of Napoleon's career and ending with the destruction of the US, would too have lasted 216 years. Both the age at which the U.S. is marked for destruction and the length of the projected career of the thrice incarnated Antichrist reveal the identity of the U.S. Destroyer, the beast of Revelation 13:18.

Beyond representing the name of the Destroyer of Revelation 9:11, the length of his career and the age at which he destroys his nemesis, the number 216 can also stand for the year he began his third world war. Considering that the classical number for the devil is six (as five is to man and seven is to God), the sequence 216 can be interpreted as the 21st century Devil (6) in presage of Bin Laden instigating the Final War at the onset of the 21st century.

The Book of Revelation itself corroborates the link between the number 216 and the Antichrist. Revelation 21:17 describes the city of New Jerusalem that is built following the War of the Apocalypse. The Antichrist's primary target during the war was Christ's people, the Jews, and they are forever after shaped by their experience with him. As Israel was a product of Hitler's Holocaust, so New Jerusalem, described as a huge subterranean city, will be a product of Bin Laden's nuclear holocaust. This city that will spawn a new, peaceful civilization owes its existence to the threat of the Antichrist. In Rev 21:17, the traditional symbol of a city's defense, the city wall, measures 216 feet high. Just as a city wall has always reflected the threat from which it is built to protect its people, so the wall of New Jerusalem reflects the identity of the Antichrist. The connotation of the Antichrist in this measurement furthers the notion that the number 216 is the actual mathematical value of the mark of the beast.

In performing the calculation of the numerical value 216, one notable coincidence presents itself. The names that make up Bin Laden's full name have values that correspond to some of the most critical dates that will culminate in Bin Laden's attempted nuclear holocaust, 57, 25, 72 and 36. The name Osamah has the value of 57, the year of Bin Laden's birth in the century preceding his global domination. Furthermore, the value of the name Osamah is equivalent to the value of the first name of the emperor whom Bin Laden shadows and intends to replace, George (57). The recurrent "bin" has a value of 25, the year Bin Laden's future endowment crystallized in the creation of his homeland Saudi Arabia. "Mohammed" has a value of 72, the year of the Munich Olympics terrorism that marked the beginning of the age of global terrorism arising from the Arab/Israeli conflict. Being the name in the middle (the point of symmetry), its mirror value, 27, is suggested. 27 is perhaps the most central number to the Antichrist, marking the length in years of his thrice-repeated career. The name "Laden" equals 36, the crucial year in the formation of Israel marked by the beginning of the general European exodus of Jews to Palestine in response to Hitler's launching the Nazi march on Europe and the beginning of the Arab Revolt against Jews in Palestine. In the numerology of Bin Laden's name, his year of birth, the year of his endowment, the year initiating his brand of warfare and the year of his rallying cause are all revealed.

The series of highly improbable coincidences that link Bin Laden, and to a lesser degree Hitler and Napoleon, to the mark of the beast give further credence to the implication of Nostradamus' prophecies and the Parallel Career Chronology that Bin Laden is the Final Antichrist.

Appendix B

THE STORY OF REVELATION 9:11

The biblical story of the Antichrist (also known as the "fallen angel", the "beast", the "Destroyer", and the "Wicked One") foretells a man who propels civilization towards the unprecedented global destruction of the Apocalypse (Rev 9:11/13:18, 1 John 2:18, 2 Thess 2:3, Dan 7:25/ 8:23/9:27/11:21)⁸. Perhaps the most remarkable prophetic biblical passage about this fallen angel who will deliver humanity to the fiery Abyss is Revelation 9:11. Rev 9:11 describes the 9/11 attack and the man who launched it, named the Destroyer. On 9/11 of the first year of the third millennium, the Revelation of the Destroyer came in the personage of Osama bin Laden, who conclusively revealed his destructive intentions to the world by starting World War III. This is the first cataclysmic attack by the Antichrist that begins the Final War, the Revelation of 9:11 described in Rev 9:12 as "the first horror" of the Apocalypse. In particular, this first horror is identified in the passage as an aerial attack, perpetrated by the Destroyer's army of flying locust-warriors.

The Destroyer is named in two languages, Hebrew and ancient Greek, as Abaddon and Apollyon, respectively. As the name of the Antichrist is revealed in Revelation 9:11 to be Destroyer, so Bin Laden's name and identity were revealed to the world on 9/11. In 2000, the long presaged Beginning of the Final Days, Bin Laden had revealed his identity to the world as the Destroyer of Revelation 9:11 when he bombed a Destroyer of the U.S.. After this brazen attack on U.S. naval forces in Aden, Yemen, his ancestral homeland, Bin Laden was christened Abu Aden ("Father of Aden"). The name Abu Aden, seen in the outside letters of his title Abu Bin Laden, is a phonetic match for Abaddon of Rev 9:11.

⁸ The name Antichrist is only used once in the bible to describe the man who triggers Armageddon (1 John 2:18). The same man is the Destroyer of Revelation 9:11, called "the fallen angel in charge of the Abyss" in Revelation chapter 9 and the beast in Rev 13:18 and in Daniel 7:25 (the name beast is used interchangeably to mean the Antichrist and his multinational empire).

Rev 9:11 also reveals that the Destroyer who starts the Final War is the reincarnation of Napoleon. The name Apollyon is a clear anagram for Napoleon that was recognized in his own time. Napoleon's phonetic name is Neo-Apollyon, the New Destroyer. In his third coming, this evolved Antichrist reveals his identity to humanity as the destroyer of the modern world, primarily targeting the New World of the United States.

Despite the obvious decay into madness over the course of his three lifetimes, the Antichrist was in each incarnation born into this world to be the Destroyer. In his first coming as Napoleon, there were clear signs of his identity. With full knowledge of biblical prophecy foretelling that the creation of Israel as a nation among many nations would usher in the Apocalypse, Napoleon tried to establish Israel as a nation in 1799 and so began the Zionist movement. During this campaign, Napoleon even intentionally waged a battle on the actual site of the prophesized battle of Armageddon (in today's Israel). With this action, he made apparent to the world that he was trying to act out the Final Battle of Revelation as the character of the Second Coming of Christ, the man who wins the Final War and ushers humanity into the Promised Land with his empire that lasts a thousand years. In 1814, when his empire had fallen and all his ambitions for constructing a lasting new world order were dashed, Napoleon at one point exclaimed in fury, "I'm going to bury the world in my ruin!". Napoleon would later insist that Paris fight to the last able-bodied male against the massive army of the victorious Allies, in a presage of Hitler's Berlin Valhalla in 1945.

In his third incarnation in modern times, as the Destroyer of the New World the Antichrist at long last realized his dream of igniting the Final War and was assured the lasting legacy he could not achieve as a constructor of civilization. The story of his final destructive coming that culminates in this eternal legacy is described in detail in the Chapter of Revelation 9:11.

Note on the language, style and form of Revelation: This book is one of the most heavily metaphorical and abstract stories of the Bible. Mirroring the prophecies of Nostradamus, the storyline is rife with symbols and temporal incongruence, more like a stream of consciousness than a chronological narrative. The detailed description of the 9/11 War that ensues is revealed in this context.

9:1 Then the fifth angel blew his trumpet. I saw an angel which had fallen down to the earth, and it was given the key to the abyss.	9:1 -- The star of the Renaissance, the megalithic genius Napoleon Bonaparte, was a colossal superstar of history whose war to conquer the world killed millions of people. This soul is the fallen star who plagued the world with even greater destruction in his life as Adolf Hitler, and has become the Destroyer of the New

9:2 The star opened the abyss, and smoke poured out of it, like the smoke from a	World in his third incarnation in the modern age. He was given the key to the abyss of fire, the power to unleash nuclear hell on earth. Bin Laden received this power through his likely acquisition of a nuclear arsenal prior to the 9/11 attack. Following 9/11, Bush's imprudent strategy in the invasion of Afghanistan totally eliminated Al Qaeda's sole state sponsorship in power and appearance, thereby recreating Bin Laden's terrorist army into a global stateless empire. Now invulnerable to nuclear counterattack, Bin Laden enjoys a strategic nuclear advantage over America because of the fact of Al Qaeda's total invisibility. Bin Laden has been endowed with an unconventional military force of unprecedented power by which he can implement the horrors of the Apocalypse. 9:2 -- Bin Laden has situated and equipped his sleeper cells to instigate a nuclear

holocaust (open the abyss) with the vast nuclear arsenal he was given. Like the furnaces of the First Holocaust, this Second Holocaust will be a plague unto humanity which will send enough smoke and debris into the atmosphere to block (darken) sunlight, creating a nuclear winter. Bin Laden began the global procession towards this holocaust with the 9/11 attack, the first horror of Revelation (see Rev 9:12) that signifies the opening of the abyss with the beginning of the Final War. The massive plumes of smoke from the destruction of the World Trade Center darkened the sunlight of that clear sunny day, foreshadowing the global darkening to come.

9:3 - A critical part of this fated plan of nuclear holocaust that Bin Laden has cursed upon humanity is the delivery system. The suicide soldiers of the fallen star Bin Laden are, like locusts, harbingers

	of terror who, for the fact of their numbers, cannot all be stopped. Furthermore, the majority of deaths caused by Al Qaeda's nuclear war, like locusts, will be the mass famine resulting from multiple years of blocked sunlight. Like locusts, the 9/11 hijackers launched aerial attacks on their highly vulnerable prey, initiating the Final War.
9:4 They were told not to harm the grass or the trees of any other plant; they could harm only the people who did not have the mark of God's seal on their foreheads.	9:4 -- Bin Laden's locust-like terrorists seek to start a holy war to harm people of religions different from their own. The particular religion of these locusts is one for which believers wear a mark of their faith (God's seal) on the forehead, for which the Muslim turban is a suited candidate.
9:5 The locusts were not allowed to kill these people, but only to torture them for five months. . . .	9:5 -- Following the fallen star's opening of the abyss, these locusts are given a peculiar directive; for five months they cannot kill, but can only torture people. Following the

9:10 They have tails and stings like those of a scorpion, and it is with their tails that they have the power to hurt people for five months.	9/11 attack (the opening of the abyss), for five months Al Qaeda did not launch any overt terrorist attacks. This indicated that the numerous unknown Al Qaeda cells were not allowed to kill people in this timeframe. During this five-month period, Al Qaeda only tortured its enemies psychologically with threats of more terrorist attacks. After this period, in March 2002, Al Qaeda publicly released a directive to its operatives to start attacks anew. Soon after, in early April, Al Qaeda launched its first overt terrorist attack since 9/11 in Tunisia. 9:10 -- The way the locust-like terrorists harm people without killing them is by manipulating the climate of fear created by terrorism, and 9/11 in particular. By spreading false rumors of impending attacks, Al Qaeda instigates American aggression without incurring the war guilt of a terrorist attack, displacing guilt for the

This is the aftermath tale of terrorist attacks, the stinging tail of the locust that scares its victims into leaping forward into the Abyss of annihilation. 9:11 -- This passage pinpoints the day, 9/11, of the first horrific attack that began the Final War (the opening of the abyss). As described in this verse, the 9/11 revelation was marked by the unveiling of the name of the Destroyer to the world. This stunning prophecy depicts the 9/11 attack and the revelation of Bin Laden as the Destroyer on this date. Bin Laden was the king of Al Qaeda, the ruling mastermind to whom Al Qaeda operatives were forced to swear allegiance. As the fallen angel in charge of the abyss, Bin Laden directed his empire's fiery attacks from the subterranean shadow domain of his Afghan super-bunkers. In accordance with the index number of this verse, the Destroyer revealed himself to the world on
--	---

9:12 The first horror is over, after this there are still two more horrors to come. 9:13-15 Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet. I heard a voice coming from the four corners of the gold alter standing before God. The voice said to the sixth angel, "Release the four angels who are bound at the great Euphrates River!" The four angels were released; for this very hour of this very day of this very month	9/11 of the first year of the third millennium when his locust-like soldiers launched an aerial attack that opened the abyss of a third world war. 9:12 -- After the Revelation of the Destroyer on 9/11, the first horror, the 9/11 attack, is over. After 9/11, there are two more horrors (horrible catastrophic attacks) for the fallen star Bin Laden to deliver, corroborating with intelligence from Al Qaeda detainees describing Bin Laden's plan for three waves of attacks on the US beginning with 9/11⁴³. 9:13-15 -- The great Euphrates River is a metonymy for ancient Babylon, modern day Iraq. Following the momentous Revelation of 9/11, the Destroyer will use Iraq as a platform to start a nuclear war that will kill a third of all mankind, the second horror. Indeed Bin Laden had been trying to instigate a U.S. invasion of Iraq since
---	--

and year they had been kept ready to kill a third of all mankind.	1993 for this purpose, and in 2003 he finally succeeded⁴⁴.
9:16 I was told the number of the mounted troops: it was two hundred million.	9:16 -- The victims of this apocalyptic attack raise an army of two hundred million to retaliate.
9:17 And in my vision I saw the horses and their riders, they had breastplates red as fire, blue as sapphire, and yellow as sulfur. The horses' heads were like lions heads, and from their mouths came out fire, smoke and sulfur.	9:17 -- This apocalyptic attack is a nuclear attack that triggers global nuclear war. The roar of nuclear war deafens the earth as ICBM nuclear warheads spawn fire, sun-blocking smoke and poisonous radiation (sulfur). This is a very accurate description of the principal effects of nuclear war.
9:18 A third of mankind was killed by those three plagues: the fire, the smoke and the sulfur coming out of the horses' mouths.	9:18 -- A third of humanity dies from this nuclear war, specifically from the nuclear blasts, the mass famine from nuclear winter and the radiation poisoning.
9:19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and also in their tails. Their heads	9:19 -- The horses of nuclear war, ICBMs, do in fact have two power sources, one in

are like snakes with heads, and they use them to hurt people. 9:20 The rest of mankind, all those who had not been killed by these plagues, did not turn away from what they themselves had made. They did not stop worshiping demons, nor the idols of gold, silver, bronze, stone, and wood, which cannot see, hear or walk. 9:21 Nor did they repent of their murders, their magic, their sexual immorality, or their stealing.⁴²	their mouths/heads, the warheads, and one in their tails, the rockets. It is made clear here that, of the two power sources, it is the heads that hurt people. 9:20-21 -- Despite the first two horrors of these mad-made catastrophes, humanity does not end its criminal ways. The worship of millennial Messiah Pretenders like Bush and Bin Laden continue, as does the worship of materialism (gold, silver, bronze, stone and wood). The continuation of idol worship indicates a failure to repent for the murders, the evil magic (such as nuclear weapons), the moral decadence and the thievery that has come to characterize civilization. Humanity's inability to change course leads directly to the third and final horror of the Apocalypse.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Thanks to John Hogue for granting permission to reproduce in this book some of his translations and interpretations of Nostradamus' prophecies. Further thanks to Mr. Hogue for his scholarly analyses that presciently forecasted the problem of millennial Messiah pretenders years before the rise of Bin Laden. Finally, thanks to Mr. Hogue for generously taking the time to review this manuscript.
