Break the language barrier. Keep the assessment intact.

HART™ Translation converts any HART form into a bilingual template — displaying both English and the target language side by side. English-speaking assessors can conduct accurate, complete assessments with survivors regardless of language.

AVAILABLE LANGUAGES

Spanish	Mandarin	Cantonese	Tagalog	Vietnamese	Arabic	French
Korean	Russian	German	Haitian Creole	Hindi	Italian	+ Other Languages Available

Bilingual templates — every translated form displays both English and the target language.

Assessors who speak only English can still conduct assessments with non-English-speaking survivors. Each question and response option appears in both languages within the same form.

Translate any HART form — DV Supplemental, Strangulation Supplement, DV Risk Assessment, and more.

HART™ Translation is not limited to a single form type. Any assessment or supplemental form within the HART platform can be translated and deployed as a bilingual template.

Shared across your jurisdiction — translated templates are available to all community partners.

Once a translation is created, it is made available to every agency and partner organization within the same jurisdiction — law enforcement, DVSPs, and other stakeholders — at no additional cost per agency.

Fully integrated — translated forms retain all HART functionality including conditional logic and data sharing.

Bilingual templates behave identically to standard HART forms. Conditional logic, pre-populated fields, mandatory fields, and real-time data sharing all function the same — in any language.
