Observing Maundy Thursday and Good Friday

Pastor Gena and I offer to all of you these services for your 'in home' observance of the two Holy Days of this Holy Week. We offer two different services for Maundy Thursday. One is more traditional and the other is an interactive service. We hope you will find one or both helpful in your observances. The Good Friday Service is more contemplative, recalling various occasions in the life of Jesus on his path to the cross. This is intended to be used either as a single time of the day or may be spread throughout Good Friday. Our prayer is that these will be spiritually beneficial in your sequestered time, even as we long to return and share in worship together.

Blessings in this Holy Week! Pastor Darwin

Special Opportunity to Gather as a congregation on Holy Saturday

For those of you who wish to see and share with one another through a video/audio conference call, we are planning for a Zoom Conference gathering on Saturday, April 11 at 4 PM. This will provide those who join with a chance to see one another and to share updates on our personal situations. We will also use this time to offer an intercessory prayer together. You can find the invitation and instructions for joining this gathering below. You can join us through a smartphone, a tablet or laptop connected to the internet. You may also join this gathering by calling in with any phone. If you have questions about how to connect, please contact either Pastor Gena (724) 263-0033 or Pastor Darwin (412) 337-4293.
