1 8:00 A.M. and 6:00 P.M. unless there is reasonable cause to believe that 2 it cannot be executed between those hours because, in the case of an
3 application for a search warrant as defined in paragraph (b) of subdivi-
4 sion two of section 690.05 of this article, the person sought is immi-
5 nently likely to flee or commit another violent felony, or is likely to 6 create an imminent danger to the safety of the executing police officers 7 or another person if not seized forthwith or between the hours of 6:00
8 P.M. and 8:00 A.M., in which event the request must contain facts to

10 or orally on the record or in writing upon the application itself 11 setting forth the factual basis for the issuance of the warrant pursuant 12 to this subdivision.

13 § 3. Subdivision 1 and paragraph (b) of subdivision 4 of section 14 690.35 of the criminal procedure law, subdivision 1 as amended by chap-

16 amended by chapter 424 of the laws of 1998, are amended to read as 17 follows:

18 1. An application for a search warrant may be in writing or oral. If 19 in writing, it must be made, subscribed and sworn to by a public servant 20 specified in subdivision one of section 690.05 of this article. If 21 oral, it must be made by such a public servant and sworn to and recorded
22 in the manner provided in section 690.36 of this article. In all cities
23 with a population of less than one million, an application for a search 24 warrant based either in whole or in part on paragraph (b) of subdivision 25 four of this section, must be made to a court between the hours of 6:00 26 A.M. and 9:00 P.M. unless circumstances reasonably require that such 27 application be made at another time, in which event such circumstances 28 shall be stated in the application for the warrant.

29 (b) A request that the search warrant authorize the executing police 30 officer to enter premises to be searched without giving notice of [~~his~~] 31 ~~their~~ authority and purpose, upon the ground that there is reasonable 32 cause to believe that (i) [~~the property sought may be easily and quickly~~
33 ~~destroyed or disposed of, or (ii)~~] the giving of such notice [~~may endan-~~ 34 ~~ger~~] is likely to create an imminent danger to the life or safety of the 35 executing officer or another person, or [~~(iii)~~] (ii) in the case of an 36 application for a search warrant as defined in paragraph (b) of subdivi-37 sion two of section 690.05 for the purpose of searching for and arrest-
38 ing a person who is the subject of a warrant for a felony, the person 39 sought is imminently likely to commit another violent felony, or [~~may~~ 40 ~~endanger~~] is likely to create an imminent danger to the life or safety 41 of the executing officer or another person. In order for a request that 42 a search warrant authorizes the executing police officer to enter prem-
43 ises to be searched without giving notice of their authority and purpose 44 be granted, such request shall show that extreme circumstances are 45 involved, which for purposes of this article are when the giving of such 46 notice is likely to create an imminent danger to the life of the execut-47 ing officer or another person, only where the application pursuant to 48 this paragraph lists specific facts that giving such notice is likely to 49 create such imminent danger to the life of the executing officer or 50 another person. No warrant issued under this paragraph can be used to 51 search a residence for a controlled substance, as defined by section 52 220.00 of the penal law. Any controlled substance, as defined by 53 section 220.00 of the penal law, found in a residence during a search 54 based on a warrant issued under this paragraph can be subject to 55 seizure.

Such determination shall include evidence stating why a warrant that requires an officer to knock and announce their presence shall not be issued.
