§ 6340. Definitions. For the purposes of this article:

1. "Extreme risk protection order" means a court-issued order of protection prohibiting a person from purchasing, possessing or attempting to purchase or possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun.

2. "Petitioner" means: (a) a police officer, as defined in section 1.20 of the criminal procedure law, or district attorney with jurisdiction in the county or city where the person against whom the order is sought resides; (b) a family or household member, as defined in subdivision two of section four hundred fifty-nine-a of the social services law, of the person against whom the order is sought; or (c) a school administrator as defined in section eleven hundred twenty-five of the education law, or a school administrator's designee, of any school in which the person against whom the order is sought is currently enrolled or has been enrolled in the six months immediately preceding the filing of the petition. For purposes of this article, a school administrator's designee shall be employed at the same school as the school administrator and shall be any of the following who has been designated in writing to file a petition with respect to the person against whom the order is sought: a school teacher, school guidance counselor, school psychologist, school social worker, school nurse, or other school personnel required to hold a teaching or administrative license or certificate, and full or part-time compensated school employee required to hold a temporary coaching license or professional coaching certificate.

3. "Respondent" means the person against whom an extreme risk protection order is or may be sought under this article.

4. "Possess" shall have the same meaning as defined in subdivision eight of section 10.00 of the penal law.

§ 6341. Application for an extreme risk protection order. In accordance with this article, a petitioner may file an application, which shall be sworn, and accompanying supporting documentation, setting forth the facts and circumstances justifying the issuance of an extreme risk protection order. Such application and supporting documentation shall be filed in the supreme court in the county in which the respondent resides. The chief administrator of the courts shall adopt forms that may be used for purposes of such applications and the court's consideration of such applications. Such application form shall include inquiry as to whether the petitioner knows, or has reason to believe, that the respondent owns, possesses or has access to a firearm, rifle or shotgun and if so, a request that the petitioner list or describe such firearms, rifles and shotguns, and the respective locations thereof, with as much specificity as possible.

§ 6342. Issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order. 1.

the mental hygiene law. Such application for a temporary order shall be determined in writing on the same day the application is filed.

4     2. In determining whether grounds for a temporary extreme risk 5 protection order exist, the court shall consider any relevant factors 6 including, but not limited to, the following acts of the respondent:

7     (a) a threat or act of violence or use of physical force directed 8 toward self, the petitioner, or another person;

9     (b) a violation or alleged violation of an order of protection;

10    (c) any pending charge or conviction for an offense involving the use

13 shotgun;

14    (e) any history of a violation of an extreme risk protection order;

15    (f) evidence of recent or ongoing abuse of controlled substances or 16 alcohol; or

17    (g) evidence of recent acquisition of a firearm, rifle, shotgun or 18 other deadly weapon or dangerous instrument, or any ammunition therefor.

19    In considering the factors under this subdivision, the court shall 20 consider the time that has elapsed since the occurrence of such act or 21 acts and the age of the person at the time of the occurrence of such act 22 or acts.

23    For the purposes of this subdivision, "recent" means within the six 24 months prior to the date the petition was filed.

25    3. The application of the petitioner and supporting documentation, if 26 any, shall set forth the factual basis for the request and probable 27 cause for issuance of a temporary order. The court may conduct an exam-28 ination under oath of the petitioner and any witness the petitioner may 29 produce.

30    4. A temporary extreme risk protection order, if warranted, shall 31 issue in writing, and shall include:

32    (a) a statement of the grounds found for the issuance of the order;

33    (b) the date and time the order expires;

34    (c) the address of the court that issued the order;

35    (d) a statement to the respondent: (i) directing that the respondent 36 may not purchase, possess or attempt to purchase or possess a firearm,

38 rifle or shotgun possessed by such respondent shall be promptly surren-39 dered to any authorized law enforcement official in the same manner as 40 set forth in subdivision five of section 530.14 of the criminal proce-41 cedure law;

42    (ii) informing the respondent that the court will hold a hearing no 43 sooner than three nor more than six business days after service of the 44 temporary order, to determine whether a final extreme risk protection 45 order will be issued and the date, time and location of such hearing, 46 provided that the respondent shall be entitled to more than six days 47 upon request in order to prepare for the hearing; and (iii) informing 48 the respondent the he or she may seek the advice of an attorney and that 49 an attorney should be consulted promptly; and 50    (e) a form to be completed and executed by the respondent at the time 51 of service of the temporary extreme risk protection order which elicits 52 a list of all firearms, rifles and shotguns possessed by the respondent 53 and the particular location of each firearm, rifle or shotgun listed.

54    5. If the application for a temporary extreme risk protection order is 55 not granted, the court shall notify the petitioner and, unless the 56 application is voluntarily withdrawn by the petitioner, nonetheless

2 protection order. Such hearing shall be scheduled to be held promptly, 3 but in any event no later than ten business days after the date on which 4 such application is served on the respondent, provided, however, that 5 the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional time to 6 allow the respondent to prepare for the hearing. A notice of such hear-7 ing shall be prepared by the court and shall include the date and time 8 of the hearing, the address of the court, and the subject of the hear-9 ing.

10 6. (a) The court shall, in the manner specified in paragraph (b) of 11 this subdivision, arrange for prompt service of a copy of the temporary 12 extreme risk protection order, if any, the application therefor and, if 13 separately applied for or if a temporary extreme risk protection order 14 was not granted, the application for an extreme risk protection order, 15 any notice of hearing prepared by the court, along with any associated 16 papers including the petition and any supporting documentation, 17 provided, that the court may redact the address and contact information 18 of the petitioner from such application and papers where the court finds 19 that disclosure of such address or other contact information would pose 20 an unreasonable risk to the health or safety of the petitioner.

21 (b) The court shall provide copies of such documents to the appropri-22 ate law enforcement agency serving the jurisdiction of the respondent's 23 residence with a direction that such documents be promptly served, at no 24 cost to the petitioner, on the respondent; provided, however, that the 25 petitioner may voluntarily arrange for service of copies of such order 26 and associated papers through a third party, such as a licensed process 27 server.

28 7. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other 29 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
30 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 31 temporary extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order 32 no later than the next business day after issuing the order to such 33 persons or agencies. The court also shall promptly notify such persons 34 and agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 35 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess 36 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after 37 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. The court 38 also shall report such demographic data as required by the state divi-39 sion of criminal justice services at the time such order is transmitted 40 thereto. Any notice or report submitted pursuant to this subdivision 41 shall be in an electronic format, in a manner prescribed by the division 42 of criminal justice services.

43 (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a temporary extreme risk 44 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-45 diately report the existence of such order to the federal bureau of 46 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from 47 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme-48 diately report to the bureau the expiration of any such protection 49 order, any court order amending or revoking such protection order or 50 restoring the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shot-51 gun.

52 8. A law enforcement officer serving a temporary extreme risk 53 protection order shall request that the respondent immediately surrender 54 to the officer all firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's 55 possession and the officer shall conduct any search permitted by law for 56 such firearms. The law enforcement officer shall take possession of all

1 firearms, rifles and shotguns that are surrendered, that are in plain

2 sight, or that are discovered pursuant to a lawful search. As part of 3 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for 4 firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession in a manner 5 consistent with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the 6 criminal procedure law.

7 9. Upon issuance of a temporary extreme risk protection order, or upon 8 setting a hearing for a final extreme risk protection order where a 9 temporary order is denied or not requested, the court shall direct the 10 law enforcement agency having jurisdiction to conduct a background 11 investigation and report to the court and, subject to any appropriate 12 redactions to protect any person, each party regarding whether the 13 respondent:

14 (a) has any prior criminal conviction for an offense involving domes-15 tic violence, use of a weapon, or other violence;

16 (b) has any criminal charge or violation currently pending against him 17 or her;

18 (c) is currently on parole or probation;

19 (d) possesses any registered firearms, rifles or shotguns; and 20 (e) has been, or is, subject to any order of protection or has 21 violated or allegedly violated any order of protection.

22 § 6343. Issuance of a final extreme risk protection order. 1. In 23 accordance with this article, no sooner than three business days nor 24 later than six business days after service of a temporary extreme risk 25 protection order and, alternatively, no later than ten business days 26 after service of an application under this article where no temporary 27 extreme risk protection order has been issued, the supreme court shall 28 hold a hearing to determine whether to issue a final extreme risk 29 protection order and, when applicable, whether a firearm, rifle or shot-30 gun surrendered by, or removed from, the respondent should be returned 31 to the respondent. The respondent shall be entitled to more than six 32 business days if a temporary extreme risk protection order has been 33 issued and the respondent requests a reasonable period of additional 34 time to prepare for the hearing. Where no temporary order has been 35 issued, the respondent may request, and the court may grant, additional 36 time beyond the ten days to allow the respondent to prepare for the 37 hearing.

38 2. At the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, the 39 petitioner shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing 40 evidence, that the respondent is likely to engage in conduct that would 41 result in serious harm to himself, herself or others, as defined in 42 paragraph one or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental 43 hygiene law. The court may consider the petition and any evidence 44 submitted by the petitioner, any evidence submitted by the respondent, 45 any testimony presented, and the report of the relevant law enforcement 46 agency submitted pursuant to subdivision nine of section sixty-three 47 hundred forty-two of this article. The court shall also consider the 48 factors set forth in subdivision two of section sixty-three hundred 49 forty-two of this article.

50 3. (a) After the hearing pursuant to subdivision one of this section, 51 the court shall issue a written order granting or denying the extreme 52 risk protection order and setting forth the reasons for such determi-53 nation. If the extreme risk protection order is granted, the court shall 54 direct service of such order in the manner and in accordance with the 55 protections for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section 56 sixty-three hundred forty-two of this article.

1     (b) Upon issuance of an extreme risk protection order: (i) any 2 firearm, rifle or shotgun removed pursuant to a temporary extreme risk 3 protection order or such extreme risk protection order shall be retained 4 by the law enforcement agency having jurisdiction for the duration of 5 the order, unless ownership of the firearm, rifle or shotgun is legally 6 transferred by the respondent to another individual permitted by law to 7 own and possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun; (ii) the supreme court 8 shall temporarily suspend any existing firearm license possessed by the 9 respondent and order the respondent temporarily ineligible for such a 10 license; (iii) the respondent shall be prohibited from purchasing or 11 possessing, or attempting to purchase or possess, a firearm, rifle or 12 shotgun; and (iv) the court shall direct the respondent to surrender any 13 firearm, rifle or shotgun in his or her possession in the same manner as 14 set forth in subdivision five of section 530.14 of the criminal proce-
15 dure law.

16     (c) An extreme risk protection order issued in accordance with this 17 section shall extend, as specified by the court, for a period of up to 18 one year from the date of the issuance of such order; provided, however, 19 that if such order was immediately preceded by the issuance of a tempo- 20 rary extreme risk protection order, then the duration of the extreme 21 risk protection order shall be measured from the date of issuance of 22 such temporary extreme risk protection order.

23     (d) A law enforcement officer serving a final extreme risk protection 24 order shall request that the respondent immediately surrender to the 25 officer all firearms, rifles and shotguns in the respondent's possession 26 and the officer shall conduct any search permitted by law for such 27 firearms. The law enforcement officer shall take possession of all
28 firearms, rifles and shotguns that are surrendered, that are in plain 29 sight, or that are discovered pursuant to a lawful search. As part of 30 the order, the court may also direct a police officer to search for 31 firearms, rifles and shotguns in a respondent's possession consistent 32 with the procedures of article six hundred ninety of the criminal proce- 33 dure law.

34     4. (a) The court shall notify the division of state police, any other
35 law enforcement agency with jurisdiction, all applicable licensing offi-
36 cers, and the division of criminal justice services of the issuance of a 37 final extreme risk protection order and provide a copy of such order to 38 such persons and agencies no later than the next business day after 39 issuing the order. The court also shall promptly notify such persons and 40 agencies and provide a copy of any order amending or revoking such 41 protection order or restoring the respondent's ability to own or possess
42 firearms, rifles or shotguns no later than the next business day after 43 issuing the order to restore such right to the respondent. Any notice or 44 report submitted pursuant to this subdivision shall be in an electronic 45 format, in a manner prescribed by the division of criminal justice 46 services.

47     (b) Upon receiving notice of the issuance of a final extreme risk 48 protection order, the division of criminal justice services shall imme-
49 diately report the existence of such order to the federal bureau of 50 investigation to allow the bureau to identify persons prohibited from 51 purchasing firearms, rifles or shotguns. The division shall also imme- 52 diately report to the bureau the expiration of such protection order and 53 any court order amending or revoking such protection order or restoring 54 the respondent's ability to purchase a firearm, rifle or shotgun.

55     5. (a) If, in accordance with a temporary extreme risk protection 56 order, a firearm, rifle or shotgun has been surrendered by or removed

1 from the respondent, and the supreme court subsequently finds that the 2 petitioner has not met the required standard of proof, the court's find-3 ing shall include a written order, issued to all parties, directing that 4 any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant to such 5 temporary order shall be returned to the respondent, upon a written 6 finding that there is no legal impediment to the respondent's possession 7 of such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

8 (b) If any other person demonstrates that he or she is the lawful 9 owner of any firearm, rifle or shotgun surrendered or removed pursuant 10 to a protection order issued in accordance with this article, and 11 provided that the court has made a written finding that there is no 12 legal impediment to the person's possession of a surrendered or removed 13 firearm, rifle or shotgun, the court shall direct that such firearm, 14 rifle or shotgun be returned to such lawful owner and inform such person 15 of the obligation to safely store such firearm, rifle, or shotgun in 16 accordance with section 265.45 of the penal law.

17 6. The respondent shall be notified on the record and in writing by 18 the court that he or she may submit one written request, at any time 19 during the effective period of an extreme risk protection order, for a 20 hearing setting aside any portion of such order. The request shall be 21 submitted in substantially the same form and manner as prescribed by the 22 chief administrator of the courts. Upon such request, the court shall 23 promptly hold a hearing, in accordance with this article, after provid-24 ing reasonable notice to the petitioner. The respondent shall bear the 25 burden to prove, by clear and convincing evidence, any change of circum-26 stances that may justify a change to the order.

27 § 6344. Surrender and removal of firearms, rifles and shotguns pursu-28 ant to an extreme risk protection order. 1. When a law enforcement offi-29 cer takes any firearm, rifle or shotgun pursuant to a temporary extreme 30 risk protection order or a final extreme risk protection order, the 31 officer shall give to the person from whom such firearm, rifle or shot-32 gun is taken a receipt or voucher for the property taken, describing the 33 property in detail. In the absence of a person, the officer shall leave 34 the receipt or voucher in the place where the property was found, mail a 35 copy of the receipt or voucher, retaining proof of mailing, to the last 36 known address of the respondent and, if different, the owner of the 37 firearm, rifle or shotgun, and file a copy of such receipt or voucher 38 with the court. All firearms, rifles and shotguns in the possession of a 39 law enforcement official pursuant to this article shall be subject to 40 the provisions of applicable law, including but not limited to subdivi-41 sion six of section 400.05 of the penal law; provided, however, that any 42 such firearm, rifle or shotgun shall be retained and not disposed of by 43 the law enforcement agency for at least two years unless legally trans-44 ferred by the respondent to an individual permitted by law to own and 45 possess such firearm, rifle or shotgun.

46 2. If the location to be searched during the execution of a temporary 47 extreme risk protection order or extreme risk protection order is joint-48 ly occupied by two or more parties, and a firearm, rifle or shotgun 49 located during the execution of such order is owned by a person other 50 than the respondent, the court shall, upon a written finding that there 51 is no legal impediment to the person other than the respondent's 52 possession of such firearm, rifle or shotgun, order the return of such 53 firearm, rifle or shotgun to such lawful owner and inform such person of 54 their obligation to safely store their firearm, rifle, or shotgun in 55 accordance with section 265.45 of the penal law.

1     § 6345. Request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order. 1.
2     If a petitioner believes a person subject to an extreme risk protection 3     order continues to be likely to engage in conduct that would result in 4     serious harm to himself, herself, or others, as defined in paragraph one 5     or two of subdivision (a) of section 9.39 of the mental hygiene law, 6     such petitioner may, at any time within sixty days prior to the expira-7     tion of such existing extreme risk protection order, initiate a request 8     for a renewal of such order, setting forth the facts and circumstances 9     necessitating the request. The chief administrator of the courts shall 10    adopt forms that may be used for purposes of such applications and the 11    court's consideration of such applications. The court may issue a tempo-12    rary extreme risk protection order in accordance with section sixty-13    three hundred forty-two of this article, during the period that a 14    request for renewal of an extreme risk protection order is under consid-15    eration pursuant to this section.

16    2. A hearing held pursuant to this section shall be conducted in the 17    supreme court, in accordance with section sixty-three hundred forty-18    three of this article, to determine if a request for renewal of the 19    order shall be granted. The respondent shall be served with written 20    notice of an application for renewal a reasonable time before the hear-21    ing, and shall be afforded an opportunity to fully participate in the 22    hearing. The court shall direct service of such application and the 23    accompanying papers in the manner and in accordance with the protections 24    for the petitioner set forth in subdivision six of section sixty-three 25    hundred forty-two of this article.

26    § 6346. Expiration of an extreme risk protection order. 1. A 27    protection order issued pursuant to this article, and all records of any 28    proceedings conducted pursuant to this article, shall be sealed upon 29    expiration of such order and the clerk of the court wherein such 30    proceedings were conducted shall immediately notify the commissioner of 31    the division of criminal justice services, the heads of all appropriate 32    police departments, applicable licensing officers, and all other appro-33    priate law enforcement agencies that the order has expired and that the 34    record of such protection order shall be sealed and not be made avail-35    able to any person or public or private entity, except that such records 36    shall be made available to:

37    (a) the respondent or the respondent's designated agent;
38    (b) courts in the unified court system;
39    (c) police forces and departments having responsibility for enforce-40    ment of the general criminal laws of the state; 41    (d) any state or local officer or agency with responsibility for the 42    issuance of licenses to possess a firearm, rifle or shotgun, when the 43    respondent has made application for such a license; and 44    (e) any prospective employer of a police officer or peace officer as 45    those terms are defined in subdivisions thirty-three and thirty-four of
