

I'm not robot

Continue

Tunnel to towers charity rating

Tunnel to towers foundation charity rating. Is tunnel to towers a good charity to give to. Is tunnel to towers a legitimate charity. Is tunnel to towers a good charity. learning teaching jim scrivener summary

Since 9/11, we have been helping America's heroes by providing mortgage-free homes to Gold Star and fallen first responder families with young children and by building specially-adapted smart homes for catastrophically injured veterans and first responders. We are also committed to eradicating veteran homelessness and helping America to Never Forget September 11, 2001.

Sign Up for E-News, Updates, and Events We take a look at the history and mission of the Tunnel to Towers Foundation, and explore whether or not it is a good charity to donate to. Checkout this video: Introduction Tunnels to Towers is a charity that was founded in 2002 to honor the memory of Stephen Siller, a New York City firefighter who lost his life during the 9/11 terrorist attacks. The charity's mission is to "honor the memory of Stephen Siller and all first responders who made the supreme sacrifice on September 11, 2001 and to support our nation's military heroes and their families." Tunnels to Towers has received a number of positive reviews from Charity Navigator, an independent charity watchdog organization. As of December 2018, Tunnels to Towers had an overall rating of four out of four stars, with a perfect score of 100 out of 100 for its financial health and accountability & transparency. The organization has also received a Gold Seal of Transparency from GuideStar, another leading charity watchdog. In addition, Tunnels to Towers has been named one of the "10 Best Charities Everyone's Heard Of" by Money magazine and one of the "100 Best Charities" by Worth magazine. So, is Tunnels to Towers a good charity? 82530811261.pdf Based on the reviews from Charity Navigator and other respected organizations, it appears that Tunnels to Towers is indeed a reputable and worthy charitable organization. If you are looking for a charity to support that helps military heroes and their families, Tunnels to Towers would be a good choice. What is Tunnels to Towers? Tunnels to Towers is a non-profit charity founded in 2002 in response to the events of September 11, 2001. The organization is committed to honoring the sacrifices made by first responders and military personnel who have been killed or injured in the line of duty. The charity was founded by retired FDNY firefighter Stephen Siller, who was on duty when the World Trade Center towers collapsed. He was unable to reach the towers but worked tirelessly to clear debris and help rescue those who were trapped. Sadly, he lost his life that day. In honor of Stephen and all those who have made the ultimate sacrifice, Tunnels to Towers raises money to support families of fallen first responders and military personnel, as well as provide financial assistance to injured veterans and first responders. The organization also builds homes for severely injured veterans through its Smart Homes for Soldiers program. Tunnels to Towers is a highly rated charity, with an A+ rating from Charity Navigator and a 4-star rating from CharityWatch. It receives high marks for its financial health and transparency, and most of its expenses go directly towards supporting its programs (less than 5% goes towards administrative expenses). If you are looking for a worthy charity to support, Tunnels to Towers is a great option. Founded in 2001, the Stephen Siller Tunnels to Towers Foundation is named for a New York City firefighter who lost his life on September 11, 2001. The foundation's mission is to honor and support first responders and military personnel who have been injured or killed in the line of duty. The foundation achieved national prominence in 2012 when it launched the Building for America's Bravest program. This initiative builds specially adapted homes for severely injured service members. To date, the foundation has built 78 homes nationwide, with more than 50 more in progress. In addition to its housing program, the foundation also provides financial assistance to first responders through its Fallen First Responder Relief Fund.

This fund helps families of fallen first responders with funeral expenses, mortgage payments, and other bills. The foundation also provides college scholarships for children of fallen first responders through its Scholarship Fund. The Tunnels to Towers Foundation has an excellent reputation, and it has earned an A+ rating from the Better Business Bureau. It is also a top-rated charity on Charity Navigator, with a perfect score of 100 out of 100. What other charities does Tunnels to Towers partner with? Tunnels to Towers partners with several charities, including the Stephen Siller Foundation, the Gary Sinise Foundation, and the Tunnel to Towers Foundation. These charities help support the Tunnels to Towers mission of providing housing and financial assistance to military veterans and first responders. How can you donate to Tunnels to Towers? There are a few ways that you can donate to Tunnels to Towers.

The easiest and most popular way to donate is through their website, www.tunnel2towers.org. You can also donate by check or money order. Checks or money orders can be mailed to: Tunnels to Towers Foundation 2361 Hylan Boulevard Staten Island, NY 10306