STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

When Jesus asked the Samaritan woman for a drink of water, He opened the door for a life-changing relationship with Him. Scripture says her testimony drew many others to Him as well. We, too, must be ready to respond whenever and wherever the Lord speaks to us and be prepared for it to change our lives!

CHICKEN DINNER**

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED**

The Chicken Dinner will be held on Sunday, April 26th. As always, we depend upon generous Cathedral Parishioners who volunteer their time and talent to make the dinner a success. You are invited to sign up for one of our many volunteer shifts. Middle and high school students are encouraged to participate or sign up as a family and enjoy a delicious meal together before or after your shift. Sign-up sheets are in back of the church after every Mass for dinner helpers and volunteers to bake desserts. If you can donate a couple of hours to this event it will be greatly appreciated! Sign-up early to get the time slot you prefer. Contact the Parish Office with any questions (715) 392-8511. Thank you!

ROSARY

Please join us on Monday-Friday at 8:05 A.M.
On Thursday the rosary will be recited with prayers offered up for the unborn and to end abortion.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

In ancient times, people would make a pilgrimage to the nearest cathedral on a holy day. This may have required a journey of ten, twenty, fifty miles. With modern transportation, such a journey is easily accomplished....Drive there, spend a little time in that holy place, and drive home....There is something about travel that reminds us that we are just passing through this place we call earth. It is easy to forget this essential truth, and when we do, our values and lives become distorted. We are pilgrims on a journey."

REDISCOVER THE SAINTS ~ by Matthew Kelly

Soon, people from the diocese will travel to the Cathedral for Chrism Mass. How easy it is for us to come to the Cathedral - on Thursday between 2:00 and 5:00pm and spend time with Jesus - just sit in silence and adore - or do some spiritual reading - or walk the stations - or say a rosary or just be still and know that He is God. Come when you can; leave when you must.
A Lenten pilgrimage. .

WEEKLY MEDITATION

As we enter into the heart of Lent, we encounter two readings that speak of a fundamental human need: to satisfy our thirst. We have all known moments of thirst, accompanied by the profound satisfaction of a cool drink of water. The relief is tangible, and the sensation reveals in a direct way how our bodily needs can be fulfilled.

In the first reading the people are grumbling to Moses in their thirst for water. A miracle is performed by the power of God, and the people once again witness the Lord's presence in their lives.

In the Gospel of John, Jesus is standing by a well and strikes up a conversation with a Samaritan woman. Here, however, there is more than just physical thirst; the Lord speaks to her heart and satisfies a deep longing for spiritual life. In turn, she goes back to the villagers and brings them to Jesus...so that their spiritual thirst might be quenched as well.

Today we reflect on the reality of physical thirst to help us understand the longing in our souls. What's missing in our lives? Do we have an ache, an emptiness that longs to be fulfilled?

There are many temptations and distractions in the world that promise fulfillment: drugs, alcohol, sex, money, power, fame, beauty...but all of these ultimately leave us empty. They are pleasing for a moment, but we long for something lasting.

Jesus Christ is the answer. The Lord comes to us in our need, knows our sins, and invites us to draw into his grace. Christ speaks to the deepest longings in our hearts and offers the love, joy and peace that reign supreme in the halls of Heaven.

May we draw close to the Lord today in our need, trusting in his compassion and mercy to quench our spiritual thirst!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you experience Jesus helping and loving you?

Question for Youth: Jesus revealed himself to an outcast of society. How can you be “living water” to the outcasts of your school? Society? The world?

Question for Adults: When you are tempted to try to satisfy your “thirst for meaning” through some other means, what keeps you coming back to the living water of intimacy with Christ? Through what means do you experience Christ’s power in your life: Sacraments? Scripture? Prayer? Others?

SOMETHING YOU CAN DO FOR OUR PRIESTS, BISHOP, AND DEACONS

Would you be willing to do something easy and yet incredibly powerful and helpful for our priests, bishops, and deacons (and seminarians and religious)? Recently, this idea was mentioned on Real Presence Radio, to do every day, and it only takes 15 seconds:

For our priests, every day stop and say:

Hail Mary,
Full of Grace,
The Lord is with thee.
Blessed art thou among women,
and blessed is the fruit
of thy womb, Jesus.

Holy Mary,
Mother of God,
pray for us sinners now,
and at the hour of our death.
Amen.
