STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

In the Gospel story of the first Palm Sunday we hear that the owners of the ass had only to be told, "The Master has need of it," to give the animal gladly. Do I give as readily to the Lord's work?

FROM THE RECTOR'S DESK*CHRISM MASS*THANKS FOR A GREAT CELEBRATION!

The annual Chrism Mass on Tuesday, April 9th, hosted by our Cathedral family was a blessed success. Thanks go out to all who helped with this special celebration: Bishop James Powers, Paul Birch, the Parish and Chancery Staff, Jim & Deb on our Maintenance Crew, Kurtz Catering, Cathedral School students, and the 30+ Cathedral parishioners who helped in so many ways: parking, greeters, ushers, hospitality, serving the luncheon, set-up and clean-up, preparing the oil containers, etc. The diocese experienced the very best of our hospitality for this important event.

THE PROCESSION OF GIFTS FOR THE POOR ON HOLY THURSDAY

The liturgy of the Lord's Last Supper on Holy Thursday evening has a focus on service. This is shown by the ceremony of washing of the feet. The example is Christ's washing of the apostles' feet at the Last Supper.

With its focus on service, the Holy Thursday liturgy also includes a procession of gifts of food and money for the poor. This is our assembly's gift of service to others this night. For these reasons, we will make a procession of our gifts to the sanctuary before the altar and place them in baskets provided. These gifts will go to St. Vincent de Paul, and the Rice Bowls go to Catholic Relief Services.

GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION FOR THE HOLY LAND

On Good Friday, our parish will take up the annual Good Friday Collection for the Holy Land. Your financial contribution helps to support the struggling Christian community and to protect Christianity's holiest places.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

How many times throughout our lives have we made the sign of the Cross? Stop and think: at Mass; meal prayers; morning & evening prayers; special gatherings; and moments of blessing and grace. This simple action, which we teach to children at an early age, invokes a connection with the passion of Jesus.

We adorn our homes with the Cross. A crucifix is a common gift to a new home; they are placed in bedrooms and common areas as a reminder that Jesus is the source of our help and strength.

We adorn ourselves with the Cross in many ways: a crucifix on a chain; a cross in our pocket; earrings; rings; bracelets; and all the extra cards, bookmarks, figurines, and miscellaneous items that remind us that Jesus died on a Cross.

The passion we read every year on this day focuses our attention on the central mystery of our faith. Out of love for us God sent Jesus, who gave his life on the Cross that we might have eternal life. Through his suffering and death, we recognize that God has made a pathway possible that we might all journey through this life to the gates of Heaven.

The Cross teaches us many lessons:

- * Life is difficult, and at times painful
- * Weakness and sin are part of our experience
- * God identifies with our pain
- * God dies that we might have life

At the core of our teaching the Cross stands as the testament of God's love for us. On one hand the Cross is an embarrassment – after all, why would God (all powerful, all knowing, supreme) choose to be humiliated? Does that not mean that God is weak? Why could God not take away our sins in a way that showed majesty and splendor?

Yet on the other hand, the Cross is a statement that God meets us where we are in life. In our weakness, in our humiliation, in our low moments of doubt and sin God comes to us. Jesus, like us in every way but sin, understands our pain because through his Cross he shares in the suffering of the world. He knows us, and loves us even more.

Every time we make the sign of the Cross may we recall what the Lord endured for us. May the Cross be our strength as we trust in God's love, and may we seek to follow that love as we journey through this life toward the world to come.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: In your own words, what does the suffering and death of Christ mean to you?

Question for Youth: How can you spend time with each member of your family this week in a way that will communicate your love for them?

Question for Adults: What sacrifices have you made this week to show your love for others? What sacrifices have others made for you?

CATHEDRAL NEWS

ROSARY

Please join us Monday – Friday at 8:00 A.M. On Thursday the rosary will be recited with prayers offered up for the unborn and to end abortion.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"Keep awake with me...You should be awake and praying not to be put to the test...Had you not the strength to keep awake one hour?" This is the week we remember Our Lord's Agony in the garden...and his disappointment in finding the apostles sleeping each time he checked and His saying these words. This week during the Triduum there will be no adoration Thursday afternoon. But after Easter, we will resume adoration - Thursday – 1:00-3:00 PM. Remember His words. This week, participate in the special liturgies of Holy Week. Blessings.

ATTENTION CATHEDRAL GARDEN CLUB MEMBERS
 There will be a short meeting in Kress Hall after the 10:30 A.M. Mass on April 14th (Palm Sunday) to discuss the gardening issues for the coming summer. Lots to talk about. New members are always welcome to join any time. ~ George

SOCIETY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

Mark your calendars for our upcoming Anniversary Celebration Breakfast on Sunday, May 5th in Kress Hall at the Cathedral.

Door prizes, great music, AMAZING silent auction items (best year ever!), and a delicious pancake, egg and sausage breakfast.

The breakfast is FREE - donations to help us continue our work are always welcome.

If you or someone you know is in need of spring and summer clothing - we have a great supply to give to those in need - please call for an appointment. Our next meeting is on Tuesday, April 23th at 6pm at the Catholic Charities Building, 1416 Cumming Avenue. Join us! 715-398-4039.
