STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Paul and Barnabus encountered both violent rejection and joyful acceptance of the message that they preached. We, too, may meet with mixed reactions when we use our gifts in the service of God. But, the Gospel assures us, the reward for those who follow faithfully is eternal life.

THANK YOU!

We want to recognize and thank all who helped to make the chicken dinner a success! Thank you to all the 130+ volunteers who gave their "time & talent". Many have helped with the dinner for many years and for some, this was their first time; many worked multiple shifts, some worked all day, some helped out both Saturday and Sunday; some brought friends, family members and even the whole clan; some even came from outside the parish (from as far away as Minneapolis and even Colorado)! From erecting the banner the week before until the last dish is washed and put away...we couldn't do it without you! Thank you to the sponsors who gave their "treasure" to defray dinner expenses – once again, all expenses were covered! Thank you to the many who provided a delicious variety of desserts. Thank you to the staff for their valuable support. Special thanks to Fr. Andrew and Fr. David for helping serve beverages. And to our Guests...THANK YOU for your long time support of the Cathedral Parish Dinner! Sixty-one years and counting!!!!

WEEKLY MEDITATION

The Scripture readings this week are filled with an uplifting message: we are invited to be part of the Lord's family of faith. Check out some high points from the readings:

- 1st Reading - Paul & Barnabas are a "light to the Gentiles"
- Psalm - "We are his people, the sheep of his flock"
- 2nd Reading - the great multitude of every "nation, race, people, and tongue"
- Gospel - Jesus knows his sheep and they follow him

Consider some points that follow from these incredible readings:

1. The Good News of Christ is preached to all people. There is not limit or boundary; all have access to the Lord.
2. The Lord claims us! What's more, like the Psalmist, we can boldly claim our relationship to the Lord and trust in his love.
3. The divisions that often separate us on earth (race, creed, nationality, language) simply do not exist in heaven; we are one family.
4. We are known by the Lord - who calls us by name - and we follow Him.

If this unity is thus part of the reality of our Family of Faith, perhaps now is a good time to practice this unity here on earth? Perhaps today we can cross the boundaries and divisions that keep us from one another as we continue to share the Good News in our words and actions?

As disciples we have been given an example of unity; our lives today provide plenty of opportunities to foster it. May the grace of Easter inspire us to be a light to one another, after all - we are members of a vast and diverse family!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus promises to guard us like a shepherd does the sheep. How do you experience his loving care in your life?

Question for Youth: Jesus said “My sheep hear my voice; I know them, and they follow me.” How does Jesus speak to you? What new path is he asking of you?

Question for Adults: What is your experience of being a follower of Christ, of being cared for and guarded with him as shepherd?

CATHEDRAL NEWS

ROSARY

Please join us Monday – Friday at 8:00 A.M. On Thursday the rosary will be recited with prayers offered up for the unborn and to end abortion.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

God, You could have saved thousands of worlds with one word; a single sigh from Jesus would have satisfied Your justice. But You, Yourself, Jesus, purely out of love for us, underwent such a terrible passion...and all Your self-abasement is solely the work of Your mercy and Your inconceivable love. On leaving the earth, O Lord, You wanted to stay with us, and so You left us Yourself in the Sacrament of the Altar...here is the remedy for all our ills.

Diary of St. Maria Faustina Kowalska #1747

Adoration from 1:00-3:00 P.M. Thursday, at Cathedral. Come when you can; leave when you must.
