STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

In today's Gospel, Jesus gives His disciples – and us – a new commandment: “Love one another.” Good stewards who spend their time and talents in service to others are well on their way to fulfilling this commandment.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's start with a quick overview of this week's readings:

- 1st Reading - Paul & Barnabas are fostering the Church among the Gentiles
- Psalm - "I will praise your name forever, my king and my God."
- 2nd Reading - John's vision of a new heaven and a new earth
- Gospel - Jesus commands his disciples to love one another

The Easter season proclaims the Lord's triumph over sin and death, and inspires us to fix our eyes on Heaven as our destination and goal. United together with the Lord, we understand that we are pilgrims passing through this world - and our words and actions have power and consequence.

Think about it. The Lord commands us to love. This is not some pleasant suggestion or good-idea-if-you-have-time-to-fit-it-in...this command is our call to action: Love flows from the heart of Heaven, and in our Love on earth we practice for the day when we will stand before the Author of Love itself.

And lest we get caught up in some sort of warm fuzzy feeling about Love, we know that this command is hard to carry out! Love demands our forgiveness, patience, mercy, gentleness, peace, and understanding. Simply put, we are called to Love as Christ loves us - by laying down our lives for one another.

Love, then, is not only a principal condition for Heaven, but for the Church on earth as well. Nothing reveals our sincerity and authenticity as Christians more fully than when Love shines through our words and actions.

Our goal is Heaven, and while here on earth the Church follows the example of Christ - loving God and one another. May others see the Lord's Love in our lives today!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you make obvious that you love your family and friends?

Question for Youth: The world is full of examples of people who don't love others. What are the results of hate that you see in the world? How would the world be different if we followed Jesus' commandment?

Question for Adults: Jesus' commandment to love another is a challenge. What will you do this week to deepen the love you have for those around you in life?
