STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

Today's reading from Revelation offers a vision of the City of God, the New Jerusalem. "But," the bishops' pastoral on stewardship reminds us, "that 'life to come' is in continuity with this present life through the human goods, the worthy human purposes, which people foster now."

WEEKLY MEDITATION

I find the words of the Lord in the Gospel tremendously comforting:

*"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you.
Not as the world gives do I give it to you.
Do not let your hearts be troubled or afraid." (John 14:27)*

How often do we need to hear these words! How often do we find ourselves disturbed and upset by the frustrations and fears of life?! And yet, Jesus - who knows us better than we know ourselves - consoles and comforts us with a peace that flows on the wings of the Holy Spirit from the heart of Heaven.

We crave peace: in our hearts, our homes, our work, our community. There is a tranquility that comes when we are united with one another, free from discord, doubt and misunderstanding. God's peace empowers us to walk through the challenges of life with a quiet conviction that we will face whatever comes before us with the guidance of Christ.

Two key thoughts thus emerge:

1. Where do I need to foster peace in my life?
2. How can I share God's peace with others?

Are there parts of my life that hunger for peace? Bring them to prayer. Are there ways that I can be an instrument of peace, in my own life and in the lives of others? Act now. God's peace is for the asking and the Holy Spirit is present to renew us with this blessed gift.

May we leave behind our fears and anxieties, turning to Christ for the strength and guidance we need to embrace our lives with joy.

Peace be with you!

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: How do you experience the peace which Christ offers us?

Question for Youth: Jesus told us to trust in the Holy Spirit to help guide our lives. How can you be open to what the Holy Spirit might say to you?

Question for Adults: How do you experience the peace which Christ offers us?

TENTS NEEDED FOR SUMMER HOMELESSNESS

With area shelters running full, families with children and pregnant mothers seeking assistance with shelter, and motel costs rising (with some weekends already booked for tourists) - we are running into our annual need for tents. If you have any usable tents to donate or other camping gear please call us. At times we are able to help with a short motel stay until people can get into shelter, however the wait for a shelter bed can be weeks this time of the year. Please pray for these families and for an increase in shelter options and affordable housing in our community.
