STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

The Good Samaritan was also a good steward, giving his time and his treasure to meet his neighbor's need. At the end of this familiar story, Jesus urges his hearers – and us
 – to go and do the same!

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"Knowing that intercessory prayer is our mightiest weapon and the supreme call for all Christians today, I pleadingly urge our people everywhere to pray. Believing that prayer is the greatest contribution that our people can make in this critical hour, I humbly urge that we take time to pray - to really pray." General Robert E Lee 1863

Words from a patriot pleading for citizens to use the mightiest weapon in a critical hour for the nation. Our nation, families, world, church, still have critical problems...and prayer is still our mightiest weapon. If you can come to Adoration and spend time in prayer in the presence of Our Lord, wonderful! If not pray where you are...in adoration, thanksgiving, contrition and petition...When we have 1:00-3:00pm Adoration Thursdays at Cathedral, come when you can; leave when you must.

The Porter's Potluck: A Celebration of Blessed Solanus Casey – Tuesday, July 30th

Join us on Tuesday night, July 30th in Kress Hall for "The Porter's Potluck" a meal, presentation, and time of prayer to celebrate the memorial of Blessed Solanus Casey.

Born in Prescott, Wisconsin, Fr. Solanus served God's people as a Capuchin Franciscan priest for more than 50 years before his death in 1957. Fr. Solanus, who lived in the city of Superior in the 1880s and 1890s, was elevated by the Catholic Church to the distinction of "Blessed" in November 2018.

After a potluck dinner from 6:00 to 6:30 p.m., parishioner and seminarian Dan Tracy will give a presentation on Fr. Solanus. Dan has extensively researched Fr. Solanus' life after learning that he too studied as a Diocesan seminarian in Milwaukee. Following Dan's presentation, at 7:30 p.m. there will be an opportunity for prayer and a blessing with a relic of the True Cross. A first-class relic of Blessed Solanus Casey will also be available for veneration.

If you would like to bring any food or drink items for the potluck dinner, please contact Dan Tracy via e-mail at dtracy@sfs.edu

WEEKLY MEDITATION

The story of the Good Samaritan takes many of us back to our elementary school days of religious education. It's worth taking a moment to examine the structure of the context within which the parable is located in chapter ten of Luke's Gospel:

- v. 25 - The lawyer's question
- v. 26 - Jesus' counter-question
- v. 27 - The lawyer's response
- v. 28 - Jesus' imperative & command
- v. 29 - The lawyer's 2nd question
- v. 30-36 - The Good Samaritan parable
- v. 37a - The lawyer's response
- v. 38b - Jesus' imperative & command

The first half of this passage pertains to the notion of eternal life and what we must do - loving God and one another. This is a recap of the two Great Commandments, and we all generally nod our heads in agreement at the lawyer's answer.

The second half, however, pushes the question "Who is my neighbor?" as Jesus uses the parable to point out that all people - regardless of race, color, religion - are our neighbor. Remember: the Samaritan is not Jewish, yet fulfills the command of loving the neighbor!

The takeaway for us today happens on many levels:

1. Our words and actions define us - especially when we are in challenging situations.
2. Who are the people in my life that are difficult to love?
3. How might I take steps to love these "neighbors" God sets before me?

While there are many ways to demonstrate our love for the Lord, a clear example occurs when we act in kind and merciful ways toward one another. May we clearly see our neighbors and respond to their needs with the love of Jesus Christ.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us to love today. Name a time when you showed your love for your family or friends during the past week or two.

Question for Youth: The Samaritan reached out to a stranger and helped him. Who are the strangers who you could reach out and help in the coming week or month? How will you respond?

Question for Adults: Jesus tells us today to love God, our neighbor and our self. How will you love God this week? How will you love your neighbor this week? How will you love yourself this week?

15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"A man fell victim to robbers as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho. They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead. A priest happened to be going down that road, but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side. But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight."

Lk 10:30b-31, 33
