EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"Christianity has not been tried and found wanting; it has been found hard and not tried." G.K. Chesterton

Sometimes it seems the same is true of Adoration. Once you have tried it, you understand what a blessing it is for you...and though it is sometimes hard to make the commitment to come, once tried; it is not so hard to be at Cathedral on Thursday, sometime between 1:00-3:00pm. Come when you can...

WEEKLY MEDITATION

In the book of Hebrews we hear how living our faith can be compared to running a race. A cloud of witnesses (the Angels and the Saints) are cheering us on, and we set our eyes on a great prize at the finish line.

Yet we know that a race can be filled with difficulty. Our endurance is tested, an injury may occur, an accident or change in circumstances can overturn our best plans. Both Jeremiah and Jesus experienced these types of trial and anguish, reminding us that it happens in our lives as well.

So where do we find our strength? The answer comes from the Psalm Response: Lord, come to my aid! In our need we call upon God for the grace we need to face our challenges and keep our eyes fixed on the Kingdom of Heaven.

May we look to the Lord for what we need today, and even if we fall...trust that Christ will pick us up and set us on the path that leads to life.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: What is one way you can be closer to Jesus today?

Question for Youth: We are assured that God will be with us as we go through life, so what strategy do you use to keep God in mind as you deal with the ups and downs of life as a young adult?

Question for Adults: Share about a time when life's struggles were so difficult for you that you nearly "threw in the towel." What signs did you see then that God remained with you?

20th Sunday in Ordinary Time

"There is a baptism with which I must be baptized, and how great is my anguish until it is accomplished! Do you think that I have come to establish peace on the earth? No, I tell you, but rather division. From now on a household of five will be divided, three against two and two against three." Lk 12:50-52
