STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

In the Gospel today, Jesus warns us not to give in hopes of repayment, but to give open-handedly to the poor and needy. That sort of giving mirrors the bountiful giving of God, and Jesus assures us it is blessed indeed!

CATHEDRAL NEWS

ROSARY

Please join us Monday – Friday at 8:00 A.M. On Thursday the rosary will be recited with prayers offered up for the unborn and to end abortion.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

“A Holy Moment is a moment when you open yourself to God. You make yourself available to Him. You are being the person God created you to be, and you are doing what you believe God is calling you to do in that moment...you set a side self-interest, personal desire, and what you feel like doing or would rather be doing, and embrace what you believe will bring the most good to the most people in that moment.” From THE BIGGEST LIE IN THE HISTORY OF CHRISTIANITY by Matthew Kelly

Thursday is a good day for Holy Moments...to set aside other things and spend some time with Jesus in Adoration sometime between 1:00 – 3:00pm at Cathedral - no interruptions. Our world needs intercessors. Come when you can; leave when you must. Enjoy a Holy Moment.

THE CHRIST THE KING COUNCIL 16691 OF THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

Put your Faith in Action! The Knights of Columbus offers Catholic men opportunities to grow in their faith while serving their family and community. Joining our Council is an excellent way to help grow our Superior Catholic Cluster. Learn more on our Facebook page: www.facebook.com/KofC16691 or at www.kofc.org. We'd love for you to join our Council. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, September 3rd at 6:30 PM in Kress Hall. Contact Grand Knight Steve Tanko (715-392-7494) if you have questions.

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

The 2019/20 Catholic Services Appeal will be conducted on September 14th & 15th. We are one with the other churches in northern Wisconsin and with our Diocese itself. The appeal is a means by which we can all work together to support Catholic education and faith formation for all ages, support vocations, and care for our retired priests. Your participation is essential, not only to the success of the Catholic Services Appeal, but also the parish. Please join other Catholics from within the sixteen counties of the Diocese in supporting this very important appeal. No Catholic parish in the Diocese can exist on its own without the CSA.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

The theme of humility surfaces throughout the readings this week. Check this out:

- 1st Reading - "My child, conduct your affairs with humility."
- Psalm - "God, in your goodness, you have made a home for the poor."
- 2nd Reading - We draw near to Jerusalem, where Jesus and the angels dwell.
- Gospel - "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but whoever humbles himself will be exalted."

What does humility mean? What does it mean to say that a person is humble? The word is often misunderstood and misused, and yet it is an important concept in the Scriptures and Church teaching.

At its heart, humility is about our perspective of ourselves against a larger background. We are not the center of the universe! Rather, we understand that we exist in relationship to the Lord and one another.

God is the center and origin of our lives, from which we derive all grace and blessings. We are sustained in the mind of God, and invited to love the Lord with all our heart and mind, body and soul. For remember: the Lord loved us first, and out of love gave his Son to save us from our sins.

Yet the relationship is not just between ourselves and the Lord. We also exist in relationship to one another. We are part of a great communion of souls - both living and dead - and we are invited to grow in love of those around us.

Humility arises when we see ourselves clearly in the light of these relationships. We understand that our needs and wants are always set in the context of other (often far greater) concerns. When this happens we grow in awareness of how our lives interact and weave together, fostering communication, cooperation, and respect.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus tells us that we should treat everyone as a guest. Who do you tend to shun or not be nice to?

Question for Youth: God asks us to do for others without hope of repayment. This past week, what did you do for someone else for which you won't be repaid? Who are the people most in need of your generosity?

Question for Adults: Who are the people living near you that you would find it most difficult to invite to a meal in your home? Or to invite to be part of your life?

Labor Day Blessing

O God,
 you asked St. Joseph to accept your will that his wife-to-be would have a Son.
 St. Joseph accepted your will and worked with Jesus as his father and teacher.
 We seek your blessing upon all the work
 of our hands,
 and we dedicate our work to your greater glory.
 We ask your blessing upon all workers, especially those who work to make our lives easier and more enjoyable.
 We ask all this through the intercession of St. Joseph,
 patron saint of workers, in the name of Jesus your Son, in the unity of Holy Spirit.
 Amen.

St. Joseph the Worker, pray for us.
