STEWARDSHIP OF TREASURE

We are called to be good stewards of our personal vocations. St. Paul's prayer to the Thessalonians is therefore ours, too – "that our God may make (us) worthy of his calling and powerfully bring to fulfillment every good purpose and every effort of faith."

CATHEDRAL NEWS

ROSARY

Please join us Monday – Friday at 8:05 A.M. On Thursday the rosary will be recited with prayers offered up for the unborn and to end abortion.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

"Lord, help me to sit in silence and let You work in my heart." We have trouble sitting in silence. Thursday at Cathedral from 1:00 - 3:00pm we can do that. We also have trouble letting God work in our lives; we don't want to give up control. Two good things to work on in Adoration. Come when you can; leave when you must.

CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for filling out a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. By making your gift today you can save the parish time and expense. There are many challenges that face us today. The shortage of priests is one such challenge. The responsibility our parish has to help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocations and the education of seminarians is an answer to that challenge.

If you have not yet made your gift and would like to do so online, please go to www.superiorcathedral.org and click the Donate Now button.

THE CHRIST THE KING COUNCIL 16691 OF THE KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS

We'd love for you to join our Council. The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 5th at 6:30 PM in Kress Hall. Contact Grand Knight Steve Tanko (715-392-7494) if you have questions.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

What shall we make of Zacchaeus? The Gospel of Luke shows this encounter between him and Jesus. Consider these points about Zacchaeus:

- He is a chief tax collector - no one likes him!
- He is wealthy and powerful.
- He is "short of stature" so he has to climb a tree to see Jesus.
- He repents, giving half his possessions to the poor and promising to pay back fourfold to anyone from whom he has extorted money.

Tax collectors were despised in the Jewish culture. They were Jews who collaborated with the Roman Empire and often used unscrupulous ways to get money from their neighbors. Thus the title "sinners" was commonly given to them as people who flagrantly rejected God's law.

Now add to this attitude the element of the ridiculous. Here is a wealthy, powerful, short, sinner...standing in a sycamore tree to see Jesus! Something is going on in his heart, and as the crowd blocks his view (and he can't get near) he does the only thing he can to glimpse the Lord.

And that means that he stands out. His repentance - and God's merciful grace - now become a public act. People see Zacchaeus and Jesus, they grumble, and the Lord shows that no one is left out of God's mercy. Here are a few final questions to ponder today:

1. Like Zacchaeus, is there something in me that is calling for a change of heart?
2. Am I willing to make a change, even if it means calling unwanted attention to myself?
3. Am I like the crowd, grumbling when someone experiences mercy?

God's mercy is present to the world. Zacchaeus made the change, encountered the Lord, and received the transforming grace of Christ. His example shows us the way to experience the love of Jesus in our hearts today.

Fr. Andrew

Question for Children: Jesus showed that he loved Zacchaeus by having supper with him. How does Jesus show his love for you?

Question for Youth: Jesus saw Zaccheus as he was – mistakes and all. What masks, if any, do you hide behind so others won't see who you really are? Who do you trust to see your true self?

Question for Adults: Why do you suppose Jesus was so kind to Zacchaeus? What lesson do you draw from this reading regarding those who are considered "public sinners" today?
