CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL

Thank you for filling out a Catholic Services Appeal envelope. For those who did not fill one out, please do so before you leave church today. No gift is too small, and our parish is trying to reach 100% participation. By making your gift today you can save the parish time and expense. There are many challenges that face us today. The shortage of priests is one such challenge. The responsibility our parish has to help provide diocesan services and ministries such as support for vocations and the education of seminarians is an answer to that challenge.

If you have not yet made your gift and would like to do so online, please go to www.superiorcathedral.org and click the Donate Now button.

WINTER SAFETY

Winter is here, and while we try to keep the sidewalks and steps free from snow/ice as best we can, Mother Nature doesn't always follow our schedule!

Please be careful when attending events by sticking to the main walk ways. If the weather changes quickly, there are shovels and salt/grit bins at every entrance.

WEEKLY MEDITATION

Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe November 23-24, 2019

What an exciting time of year! As a friend of mine says, "It is the High Holy days; the Triduum of Chocolate: Halloween, Thanksgiving, and Christmas!" If you look in the shops, the mailboxes, the catalogues, the periodicals and the pop-up ads on your phone or on your computer, you can't help to miss that we have entered into this sacred season. I am almost so accustomed to it by now that I do not even notice it any more. I used to react to it with Christian indignation decrying how secularism was chipping away at the sacred as holiday wares went on sale earlier and earlier. Now I hardly notice as the mad rush toward Christmas begins to take up steam somewhere in June.

But, this Sunday we have our own celebration. It is a great one! It is a solemnity! The Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe. This past year, we have celebrated Jesus' conception, his birth, his life of ministry, his teaching, his suffering, his death, his resurrection, his ascension, his sending of the Holy Spirit, his gift of the Church, and now his everlasting guidance for that Church.

Today, it is not sufficient for us to try to puzzle out what the regal images that we have received from the middle ages of Jesus seated on a throne wearing a crown might mean for us today in an age where we do not identify with small fiefdoms ruled by kings and lords. That age is gone. Today, we must ask ourselves the real question at the heart of that Image of Jesus as King. For, if he is King, he rules not only the universe, not only the Church, not only my heart, but my will.

Today, do I turn my whole heart and my whole will over to Jesus?

Peace and Blessing.
Deacon Arthur Gil de Lamadrid

Question for Children: Jesus is always kind to those who love him. How do you show your love for Jesus?

Question for Youth: This week we celebrate Christ the King. In the best sense of the word, a King is someone who cares for the people under his care, and also has authority over them. When have you felt Jesus' care for you? How do you allow Jesus to have authority over you?

Question for Adults: As you think about Jesus on the cross, having compassion on the "good thief," what lesson do you draw from it for your own life?

RESPECT LIFE

Prayer of the Elderly by Saint Pope John Paul II

Grant, O Lord of life, that we may savor every season of our lives as a gift filled with promise for the future. Grant that we may lovingly accept your will, and place ourselves each day in your merciful hands. And when the moment of our definitive "passage" comes, grant that we may face it with serenity, without regret for what we shall leave behind. For in meeting you, after having sought you for so long, we shall find once more every authentic good which we have known here on earth, in the company of all who have gone before us marked with the sign of faith and hope. Mary, Mother of pilgrim humanity, pray for us "now and at the hour of our death." Keep us ever close to Jesus, your beloved Son and our brother, the Lord of life and glory. Amen!

Life Fact: Did you know that 99% of your muscles are present in your body and brain activity is detectable just 49 days after you were conceived? Just imagine, all those miles you've run and tests you've passed were possible because you have life! Thank you, God, for life.

IT'S NOT FILL THE BUS---IT'S BUY THE BUS!!!

Sister Gaudensia Mwanyika, OSB, is here from Tanzania. She earned her undergraduate and graduate degrees from the College of St. Scholastica and returned to Tanzania to open a Catholic school for the children there. She currently serves children from ages pre-K through second grade, many of whom are extremely poor. She has a van and a small bus to transport the children who live more than 5 miles away, but she needs a bigger bus. She is visiting here now trying to raise enough funds to reach that goal. The College of St. Scholastica has agreed to help her with a fundraising dinner, and she invites you to attend.

A Thanksgiving Prayer

Good and gracious God,

You do all things well.

You make the sun and rain come,

nurturing the earth, making it fertile and fruitful.

Through Your gift of creation and the work of our hands,

we reap an abundant harvest.

We give You thanks for Your many gifts that sustain us;

*for health and home, dignified labor,
for family, friends, neighbors,
and those whom -- today -- we may still consider enemies.*

*As we reflect in thanks this day,
may we remember those who lack something we have.*

*May our gratitude move us to love,
serve, and give.*

*Together we rejoice in Your gifts,
and in Your abundant life!*

Amen.

Happy Thanksgiving
