WEEKLY MEDITATION

Let's start with a quick recap of the readings this week:

- 1st Reading: Jeremiah will be strengthened to preach a difficult message
- Psalms: We proclaim God's goodness, especially when life is tough
- 2nd Reading: The Love of God shapes and directs our lives
- Gospel: Jesus encounters opposition at Nazareth

The first reading, psalm, and Gospel all refer to moments that challenge us. The prophets encountered it, the Psalmist sings about it, and the Lord himself met resistance and opposition to the message he proclaimed. But note this: in spite of the difficulty they did it.

Sometimes saying what needs to be said is unpleasant and unwelcome. We might want to avoid it or wish someone else could do it, but there are times in life when it's up to us to deliver a tough message. *We know what needs to be said...*and that it's up to us to speak.

The key is how we say it. How does our intention, our desire, and our tone convey a tough message? The answer is found in the second reading: Love. The love of Christ guides and directs every aspect of our lives - including those times when we are called to speak about a difficult topic.

This notion of "what" and "how" shows up repeatedly in the spiritual life:

- What refers to the issue, content, and "facts" of a situation or circumstance
- How refers to the manner in which it is conveyed - the way we do something

Our faith calls us to confront the reality of life, particularly when things are tough. We need not fear engaging a difficult situation; rather, we draw on the love of Christ to guide us - both in what we say and how we say it - trusting that the Lord will provide us with the grace we need.

Let's face it: Life is tough! But when the going gets tough, the tough get going...guided by God's love.

Supporting the Blanket Ministry

The Cathedral Blanket Makers are nearing the creation of their 250th fleece blanket! These blankets are given to adults and children who are visited by the Society of St. Vincent de Paul. Those who are struggling sometimes need blankets for warmth, but more often this gift provides them with comfort in knowing that there is a loving and caring community that embraces them in their time of need. Blankets have been given to women leaving abusive situations, families after fires, those who are sick or homebound, and to children and adolescents as Christmas Gifts, for example.

Blankets will be blessed at the Masses the weekend of February 9th and 10th. Those in this ministry will be collecting donations at the entrances of the church after Mass to help in the purchase of fleece. You are welcome to join them in cutting and tying the blankets in Kress Hall. Upcoming dates are advertised in our bulletin.

Kwik trips-Milk Moola milk caps has come to an end

Over the last several months Kwik trip has been assessing the impact of this fundraising program. In doing so, they discovered that the cost to administer the program has outweighed the dollars Kwik Trip directly funded to help the participants. Because of this, they have made the decision to end the Milk Moola program and reallocate our efforts and donations in a different direction – in order to more effectively serve our communities.

CHASA will be collecting Milk Moola thru March 22nd and turning them in for one last time.

While studying John Calvin, Martin Luther, and the Protestant doctrine of "faith alone" for his Ph.D. in Reformation History, he began to read the works of St. Augustine, to whom his professors pointed as the origin of Protestant theology. As he continued to study with the purpose of being a Calvinist apologist and converting Catholics to Protestantism, he was persuaded by the Truth of the Catholic Faith. Dr. Anders entered the Church in 2003 with his wife and five children.
