Rolling Stone | Culture Council Package

The Rolling Stone Culture Council is an exclusive, invitation-only community for leaders, creators, and innovators in the arts, entertainment, and cultural space. The Culture Council connects influential individuals from sectors like music, entertainment, art, fashion, and media, providing a platform for collaboration, networking, and sharing insights. Members can contribute articles, participate in discussions, and leverage the platform to amplify their voices and influence within their field.

Culture Council Membership also has amazing benefits for your online reputation. Being associated with the prestigious Rolling Stone brand, provides enhanced credibility and visibility. Publishing articles and sharing expertise on a recognized platform helps establish authority and thought leadership in your industry. This increased exposure opens the door to more opportunities, partnerships, and a stronger personal brand, ultimately elevating your professional reputation in the digital space.

Rolling Stone Culture Council Qualifications

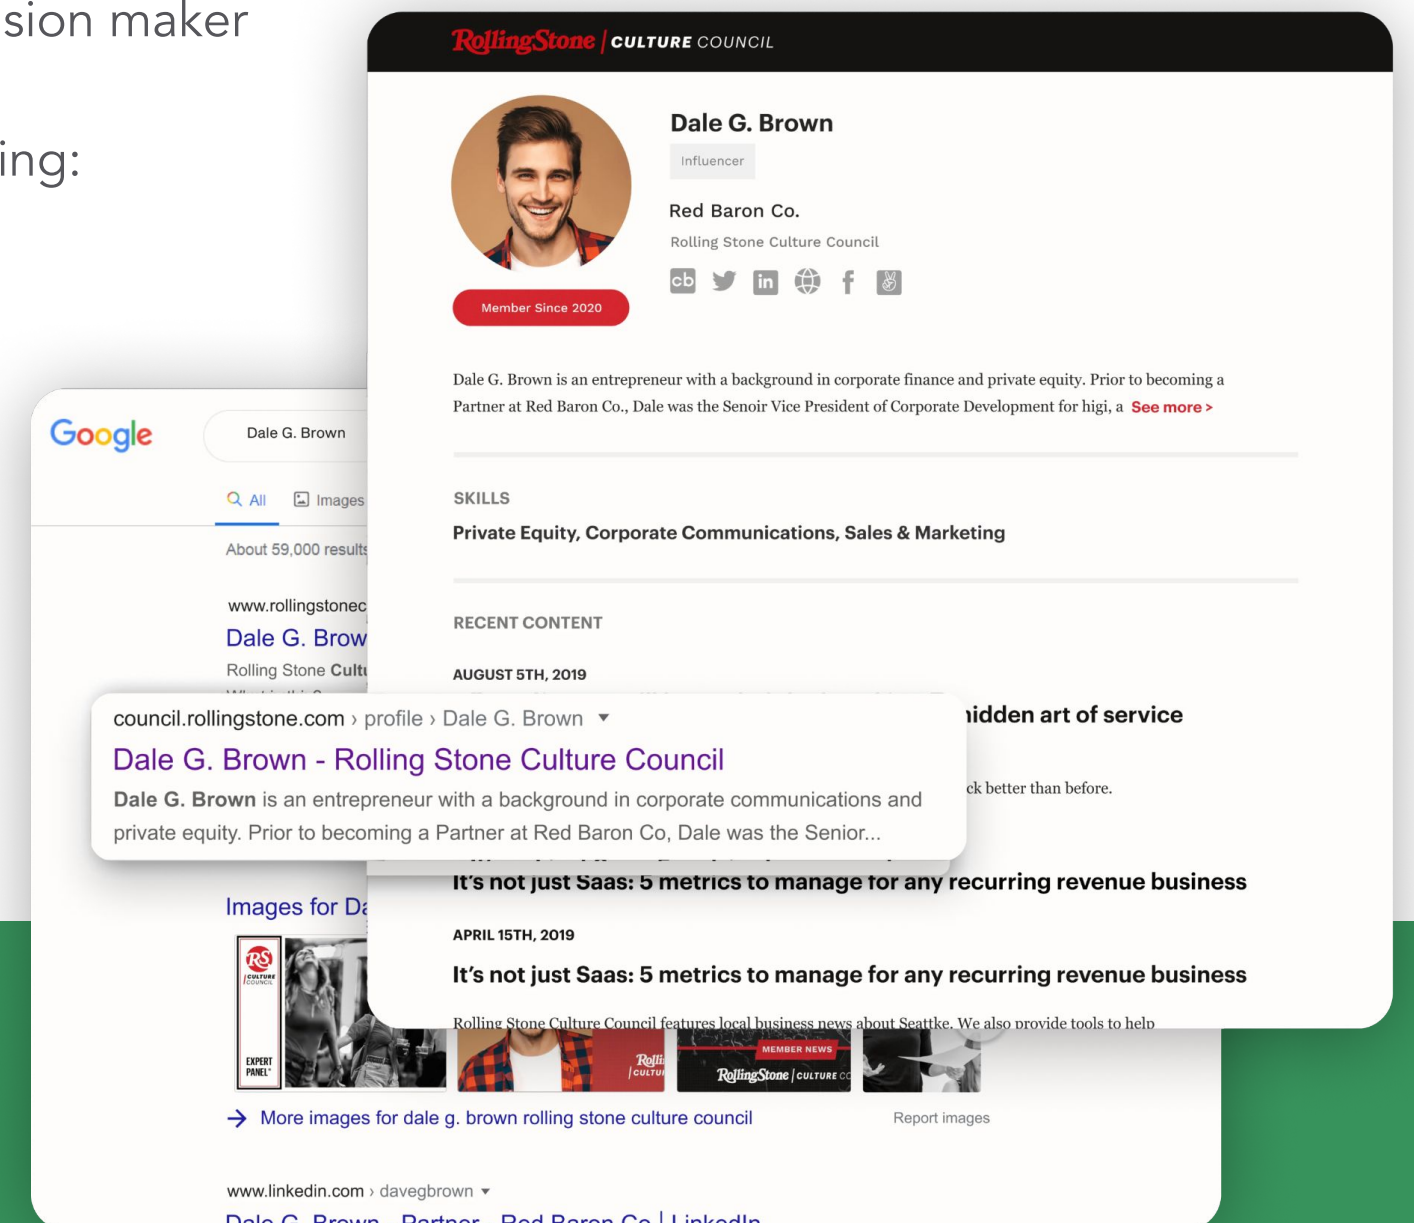

To be considered for membership in the Rolling Stone Culture Council, candidates must hold at least one of the following titles at a company that generates at least $500K in annual revenue or has obtained at least $1M in total institutional funding:

- ✓ Owner/founder/co-founder
- ✓ C-level executive
- ✓ Vice president and above who leads a region/division
- ✓ Head of a regional department or principal decision maker

If you do not meet the above criteria, you may also qualify if you meet at least one of the following:
