COPS 'N KIDS

On February 13th, Service Chair Dorothy Seibert delivered boxes of brand new books to the Broward County Sherriff's Department in Oakland Park. These books were donated by Quotarians and Ms. Joan Tomlinson, a member of St. Mark the Evangelist Episcopal Church. The 120 books in the boxes that were donated by Joan had quite a journey! These books, A Paw-fect Party, were given to Joan by a friend. Knowing of Quota's Cops 'N Kids program, Joan gave them to Nan Mercer, who passed them along to Dorothy, who delivered them to the Sherriff's Department. The books will ultimately be given to local children to develop good community relations and encourage the children to read.

Deputy Charles Howard, Cops 'N Kids Liaison, was not present that day, but Patrol Sergeant Mike Paparella, Deputy Mike Fazio and staff were "happy to have their pictures taken and sincerely thanked Quota for the abundant contribution."

In Dorothy's words, "They were absolutely thrilled with such treasure."

We also thank Mindy Edsall, Emily McCrater, and Verra Roth for the variety of books they contributed.
