UPDATE ON PRESIDENT SHEILA

Our President Sheila continues to amaze. After her major, major surgery she was up on a walker within days and bright and cheery as though nothing had happened. She does admit to being a little more tired than usual. Doctors feel the operation was a great success.

Sheila advises we should wait to send food to the house as her appetite and taste buds are not as they should be quite yet. The club sent a lovely plant and will send flowers in the following weeks. Husband Bob has been constantly at her side. VP Emily now thinks she's President Sheila's mother. 😊

Quota International Convention is being held in Washington, D. C., this month (July 10-14). As noted in President Sheila's Email to all members, her doctor is very pleased with her recovery, but has told her not to travel. Carol Zeber will be representing the club, in Sheila's place.

God does answer prayers, doesn't he? He's surely listened to all of us and everyone else who loves her. Sheila has such a hopeful and positive outlook. It brings to mind a quote that is worth remembering for all. "Worrying does not take away tomorrow's troubles, it takes away today's peace." President Sheila certainly lives this message. She seems totally at peace today and says all the cards and messages have been critical to her sense of well being and healing. She thanks everyone from the bottom of her heart.
