THANKSGIVING FOOD BASKETS

Service Chair Dorothy Siebert is coordinating our 3rd Annual Food Drive for God's Little Lambs families. As of today members are committed to providing 14 baskets each filled with 29 food items.

Food should either be brought to the Zeber home by Thursday, November 15th or Dorothy has offered to pick up baskets if necessary.

Delivery to God's Little Lambs will be Friday morning, November 16th.

HOLIDAY BAZAAR
Tuesday, December 4th Meeting

Two of our favorite events are our holiday bazaars, where we bring gently used or new items we no longer need and sell to our Quota sisters at reasonable prices.

Favorite sale items – jewelry, decorations, baked goods, books, cards, household items. Put on your thinking caps and bring your sale items to the 12/4 meeting!

PACE Center for Girls Broward is with Leila Billings.

Fall Fundraiser

Saturday, November 3rd, found 21 Quotarians and guests at the Zeber home for a fall dinner party to raise funds for Operating accounts. A wonderful time was had by all. Special thanks to Ken Zeber for all his support.

Members and guests were thrilled to have Eiko Alzamora (right) entertain throughout the evening with her keyboard. Eiko is a junior at the Sagemont Upper School in Weston. Her dream is to become a Biomedical Engineer. Although she is fascinated with science and robots, music has been a big part of her life. She believes that to perform music connects you to people, places and lifetimes away. She learned to play piano when she was 11 years old.

Many thanks to Verra Roth for introducing Quota to this young lady.

SOUTH FLORIDA WELLNESS NETWORK

South Florida Wellness Network's "Strikes Against Stigma" bowling event was successful and fun. The picture below was posted to their Facebook page, along with the following thank you for our $300 donation. The Quota logo also appears with their list of supporting organizations.
