We're Free! We're Free!

Nine of us met for lunch on Saturday, April 30th and had a most wonderful time visiting with one another. Between meeting for lunch last month and again this month, we realized how much we enjoy being together during the day, rather than night. We agreed we'd like to have lunch meetings in the future and set our next time together for Saturday, May 21st at the Sea Watch in Lauderdale-by-the-Sea. We hope to see all members on this day!

We really enjoyed meeting and getting to know Kathleen's new friend Lyric and hope she will join us when she's in town. It's always a treat to see Nan Winterstein. She promised she'd drive down from Sanford once in a while to visit us again.

Fort Lauderdale High School Awards Night Wednesday, May 11, 2022 6:00 p.m.

Each year since 1997 (24 years), the Quota Club of Fort Lauderdale has awarded a $1000 scholarship to the Fort Lauderdale High School senior who is going to college and who has recorded the most community service hours.

A member of our club has always announced the award in person at the high school's Awards Night. However, since the COVID Lock Down, President Emily has provided a video announcement. This year we are thrilled to be able to make this announcement in person once again.

Scholarship Committee Chair Verra Roth is in touch with BRACE advisor Cammy Wolf and information on the winner this year will be provided in the next Chatterbox.

Next Social & Meeting!

Saturday
May 21, 2022 (Noon)

Sea Watch on the Ocean
2001 South Ocean Blvd.
Lauderdale-by-the-Sea
