REPLENISHING GOD'S LITTLE LAMBS PLAYGROUND

Martin Luther King, Jr. Day - Service Project

By Kim Brodsky

Friday, January 12th, was a truly wonderful (and exhausting) day! As part of a Martin Luther King Jr. service day project, I volunteered to assist Miss Carol Stevens at God's Little Lambs. GLL had been awarded a grant that enabled Miss Carol to purchase items to refresh the children's playground.

As this was my first time at the facility, she gave me a tour and I am greatly impressed with all the work they have done to transform a gym into a wonderful child care/learning facility.

Miss Carol had much work planned for the volunteers who also included a Reverend and members of his youth group ministry. We all got to work right away ... building a new sandbox and filling it with a "rubber" mulch which would be more sanitary than sand; constructing a new playhouse complete with a slide; painting; and shoveling and spreading new mulch throughout the play yard. What I enjoyed most was having great conversations, getting to know everyone, and working as a team.

I am so proud of our Quota club and the support all the members give to God's Little Lambs. Just another day of being proud to be a Quota International of Fort Lauderdale member!
