2019 AWARDS NIGHT

Jaleesa Smith

Volunteered 1600 Community Service Hours

Carol Zeber and Verra Roth attended the Awards Night at Fort Lauderdale High School on Wednesday, May 8th.

Since 1997 QI Fort Lauderdale has annually awarded a $1000 college scholarship to the Fort Lauderdale High School senior who has accumulated the most community service hours.

This year's award went to Jaleesa Smith who volunteered 1600 hours of service to Girl Scouts, her church, and band. Jaleesa will be attending Agriculture and Mechanical University (A&M University) in Tallassee, Florida.

Twenty-four students have received this award over the years – a total of $24,000.

Many thanks to Verra Roth for the photographs.

5TH ANNUAL REGION 8 CONFERENCE ST. AUGUSTINE, FLORIDA

Friday Night Social on the Beach Patio

Denese Edsall, RD Patsy, Cindy Hurd, Emily McCrater, Sheila Morris

Seven Fort Lauderdale Quotarians attended the 5th Annual Region 8 Conference in St. Augustine, Florida, the weekend of April 26-27 -- President Sheila, VP Emily, Treasurer Carol, Denese, Tory, and Verra. It was a wonderful time of friendship, fellowship, leadership and sharing. President's reports were outstanding this year as R8 Director Patsy Permenter requested 5-7 minute Power Point presentations depicting each club's Quota year.

Pirate's Night was great fun as Pirates surrounded us. We thoroughly enjoyed them and took in some historical facts in the process.

We also enjoyed QI VP Luz (Rina) Maria Gonzalez and her message from QI, as well as the Leaders as Listeners session on Sunday. We each answered five questions, answers to remain anonymous. We look forward to hearing the results of all Regions' input.

In the following weeks, look for the Region 8 Conference report with Director Patsy's final report and the many pictures.

Elk's Members Visit Quota

When friends Mindy Edsall and Doug Satran realized they both belonged to organizations with similar goals, i.e., children and disadvantaged children, they thought it might be nice if we talked about "partnering" in some aspects. With that in mind, it was arranged for Elk's Lodge #2407 Exalted Ruler Kim Sullivan and Trustee Doug to visit QI Fort Lauderdale's May 7th meeting.

Exalted Ruler Kim spoke to us about their work with children and desire to purchase books for them. They've received a large grant and will be using the money to purchase a multitude of books to provide the opportunity for children to come to their lodge and borrow two books per month. Quota offered to also introduce them to our Cops 'n Kids program and to the officers at the Oakland Park Sherriff's Department.

In addition to working with children, the Elk's are very active in working with veterans.

Mindy Edsall, Doug Satran, and Kim Sullivan

Many Thanks

With sincere gratitude
For your kindness.

Carol & all the wonderful ladies from Ft Lauderdale Quota,

Thank you so very much for the "listen up & Turn it down" supplies! These are greatly appreciated.

We appreciate you sharing those with us and plan to put them to good use.

If any of you are ever up
our way, please give me a call.
Would love to meet up with you.

We are right on the interstate and a good stopping point for lunch & dinner.

Thanks again!

Maura Celine

Thank you from
