EQUIPPING THE FOUND. ENRICHING YOUR FAITH.

Reclaiming the Feast: Part 1

A Historic Christian Perspective on Halloween

Discussion Questions

1. When you hear the word Halloween, what emotions or associations come up for you – and why?
2. How does understanding All Hallows' Tide (All Hallows' Eve, All Saints, All Souls) change the way you view this time of year?
3. What does Acts 10 ("Do not call unclean what I have made clean") teach us about how we label things or people as "evil" or "off-limits"?
4. Why do you think fear and superstition so easily replace joy and remembrance in Christian practice?
5. What did you learn about how the early Church transformed pagan customs rather than avoiding them entirely?
6. How might the Church reclaim the symbols of this season (like candles, skulls, and feasts) as expressions of Christ's victory over death?
7. Which part of Church history surprised you the most, and how does it impact your faith today?

Reflection / Application

- How can your family or community redeem Oct 31–Nov 2 as days of worship and remembrance rather than fear or compromise?
- What would it look like to "reclaim the feast" in your own home this year?

Reclaiming the Feast: Part 2

A Historic Christian Perspective on Halloween

Discussion Questions

1. Before watching this session, what did you believe about the origins of Halloween?

2. What was most surprising about the history of the Satanic Panic and how it influenced the Church's thinking?
3. Why do you think so many false "ex-Satanist" testimonies were accepted in the Church during the 1970s-1990s?
4. How does understanding the truth about Wicca, LaVey, and pop culture change the way we approach conversations about witchcraft or the occult today?
5. What Christian roots did you discover behind trick-or-treating and costumes that you didn't know before?
6. What's the danger of letting fear-based narratives shape Christian practice instead of Scripture and Church history?
7. How can modern believers practically reclaim All Hallows' Tide through prayer, generosity, and remembrance?

Reflection / Application

- How can you personally be a light of truth and peace during a season that many Christians fear?
- What might it look like for your church or ministry to model this kind of redemptive understanding next year?
