

HH PUPDATE!

Astrid is a two-year-old Husky that is full of energy and is always looking for someone to play with her, whether it be her parents, her brother, or her friends at Hound Housing. Besides looking for scraps of food, her favorite activity is coming to Hound Housing to play with of her friends. After a full day there, she goes home and tries to take her parents' spots on the bed so she can get a full night's sleep.
