Dogs of the Month

Scout and Ollie

Scout and Ollie were born and bred in Advance, NC at Lanbur Beagles. Lanbur is owned by Jon Woodring, a well-known breeder, who has bred and shown many beagles. The most famous of the beagles Jon bred was K Run's Park Me in First "Uno", who won at the Westminster Dog Show 2008. Both Scout and Ollie are related to Uno. My son Ben picked out Scout in 2011, without telling me he was going to look at puppies. With Ben still there, Jon called and said, "Dr. White, Ben has picked out a puppy, if it's ok with you, I will let him bring him home and if you don't like him, you can bring him back." Of course, once I laid eyes on that beautiful puppy, there was no way I was sending him back. A year later, Ben decided that Scout needed a companion. Once again, I got the call from Jon about Ollie and then we had two. The boys are 1 year and 2 months apart. In April, Scout turned 13 and Ollie 12. When we moved from Winston-Salem to Advance, we were fortunate to find Hound Housing. They love their time there and are always happy to go.
