now known as The Miss Gulf Coast Teen Pageant, for over 60 years has offered young ladies an opportunity to obtain scholarship funding.

The Miss Gulf Coast, now in its 3rd year, offers the same opportunity for scholarship funds but adds a bit of lagniappe. For the young ladies ages 18-25 it is a preliminary pageant for the Miss Mississippi Pageant. Our pageant coordinator and director, Lion Jaye Brice, spent countless hours working with the Miss Mississippi Pageant organization to ensure the Mississippi Gulf Coast would be recognized and represented at the Miss Mississippi Pageant. And, of course, the Miss Mississippi winner advances to represent Mississippi at the Miss America Pageant. Mississippi needs another young lady to wear the crown of Miss America. Who knows she may be your next door neighbor.

Come join the Biloxi Lions Club's friends and family in giving our contestants the support they deserve.
