Pageants

As of today, we have 7 teen contestants and 5 Miss Gulf Coast contestants! We are looking forward to having our pageants this Saturday.

Melvin Jones Rededication

The 54th Annual Rededication to Lionism will be January 15th at the Melvin Jones International Memorial at Fort Thomas, Arizona.

Nut Sales

We still have some packages of nuts for sale! If you have any ad sales to collect, please see if you can get the money turned in soon so we can close this project.

Citizen of the Year

We will be presenting the Biloxi Citizen of the Year award this coming February. More to come on this.

Scout Coupe

The drawing will be at our meeting on December 15th.

Gun Raffle

The sight committee has tickets for a gun raffle. Tickets are 1 for $20 or 6 for $100.

District 30-S Mid-Winter Convention

The Mid-Winter Convention will be January 21 - 22 at our very own Gulf Hills Resort. Even though it's local, please consider reserving a room there. They are offering a special early bird rate, but only if the District reserves a minimum amount of rooms. Also, the Ocean Springs Lions Club was asked to run the Hospitality Room. They are a small club so let's pitch in to help them out! More to come on this.

Guest Speaker

Our guest speaker was Dr. Wayne Rodolfich, Superintendent of the Pascagoula-Gautier School District. He has served in this position since 2005 and is the longest serving Superintendent in the district's history. He was named State Superintendent of the Year in 2020, and led the district in winning the Governor's Award of Distinction from the Mississippi Association of Partners in Education for the district's comprehensive response to the COVID 19 pandemic. He has been named to the Hall of Fame at St. Martin High School, Mississippi Gulf Coast Community College and most recently, Delta State University. He is an advocate for Career Pathways for all students to engage and help them find their passion in life before they leave high school, giving them a clear vision for their future.

Meetings are noon every Wednesday at the Maritime and Seafood History Museum

The ROAR Editor had a 1 PM meeting and had to leave the meeting early so there is no synopsis of his presentation.
