SPOTLIGHT ON A LION

1 Year Director Jaye Brice

Our beloved Lion Claire Hornsby urged her niece to join the Biloxi Lions and the rest is history. Jaye Gilich Brice joined in 1987 and immediately went to work and hasn't stopped.

Jaye is a Biloxi native and proud of her Croatian heritage on both sides of her family tree. She graduated from Biloxi High and from LSU with a degree in Broadcast Communications. While attending LSU she was a member of the LSU Golden Girls (a dance line unit which performs with the LSU Tiger Band) and won the Miss Baton Rouge title.

She married her high school sweetheart, Buddy Brice, in 1977. Returning home in 1980 the Brices set up Buddy's pediatric dental clinic in the building which once housed her parents' grocery store. Jaye has been the office manager since its opening but she is retiring at the end of the year.

Getting back to her Lions career, Jaye has held several offices and the Presidency. But when she stepped in to help with the Biloxi Club's Camellia Queen pageant she took it to a whole new level. She successfully guided the Biloxi Club so it now offers 2 preliminary titles, the Miss Gulf Coast and the Miss Biloxi, for the Miss Mississippi pageant. The Camellia Queen pageant continues but is now known as the Miss Gulf Coast Teen.

Jaye firmly believes in offering a hand-up to young ladies. Scholarship pageants can play a part in giving the young ladies the self confidence to believe in themselves, as well as, some financial assistance towards the college of their choice.

Club Business and Announcements:

1. Spotlight on a Lion is Lion Jaye Brice. Photo front page
2. Lion Jaye gave an update on the pageants coming up in 3 weeks. She has 5 Miss Gulf Coast Teen applications at this time. None yet for Miss Biloxi/Gulf Coast pageant. However, she said the is the next several weeks there are a few pageants, one being in Tupelo, that we may receive applications from contestants that did not win a spot for the Miss Mississippi Pageant. Jaye also explained the Princesses program in which we are going to try to get a young Princess to walk on stage with a contestant in hopes we will start cultivating interest in the pageants in future years. Ads are coming in but please check with your customers. Applications for the pageants and a flyer for Ad sales are included in this ROAR
3. Lion Sec. Joe presented the September Board of Directors meeting minutes. The budget for 2022-2023 was presented Lion Treasurer Suzette and APPROVED. A membership application for Brandy Gunter was submitted and APPROVED. Pres. Melinda is Brandy's sponsor
4. The Maritime and Seafood Industry Museum's drawdown fundraiser went well with 5 Biloxi Club Lions volunteering: Lions Greg, Joe, Elijah, Tadd, Melinda in running the cook seafood to the buffet lines; Lion Jerry Dodge and wife Tami helped keep the fish and shrimp battered for cooking; and Lions Cindy and Penny working the registration/check-in table
5. Nut Sales started last week and the deadline for orders to be received is Oct. 12. The price this year for bag nuts is $15 each and for tins $22 each. Delivery is expected by the 3rd week of November. Order form on page 7
6. There was not a program today but Lion Jerry announced next week's speaker. He also said the Oct. 12 speaker from the Navy Base has canceled so we have an opening for the Oct 12th meeting if members know of anyone
7. Lion Kathryn served her delicious baked chicken with green beans meal and Lion Margot provided an assortment of pastries for dessert

TIJDENS DE SLAG OM ARNHEM.

In deze zaal herdenken wij hen. Hier zijn medaille sets te zien van Britse, Nederlandse en Poolse militairen en burgers. Zij speelden allemaal een rol tijdens de gevechten of tijdens de herdenkingen die daarop volgden. In deze zaal herdenken wij hun inspanningen en hun offers.

De vorming van de Stiltekamer is een continu proces. Alle medailles in deze ruimte zijn geschonken door veteranen, ooggetuigen en hun families. Nog altijd ontvangt het museum nieuwe schenkingen en nieuwe medaille sets. Nieuwe aanwinsten zullen in de toekomst hier ook getoond worden.

De Stiltekamer is mogelijk gemaakt dankzij een crowd fundingactie op het platform Voordekunst.nl en door vele donaties van particulieren en bedrijven. Graag danken wij in het bijzonder de volgende personen/organisaties:

THERE WERE MANY VICTIMS OF THE BATTLE OF ARNHEM. SOME DIED, OTHERS LIVED ON. ALL WERE MARKED BY THEIR EXPERIENCES DURING THE BATTLE OF ARNHEM.

In this room, they will be remembered. On display are sets of medals of British, Dutch and Polish soldiers and civilians, who all played a role during the fighting or during the ensuing commemorations. In this room, we commemorate their efforts and sacrifice.

The creation of the Remembrance Room is a continuous process. All medals in this room have been donated by veterans, eyewitnesses or their families. The museum is still receiving new donations and new medal sets. New acquisitions will also be shown here in the future.

The Remembrance Room has been made possible by crowd-funding through the Voordekunst platform and by the many donations by private people and companies. We would like to especially thank the following persons/organisations:

Monuta Help! Kind van Arnhem Gt Bijlana De Haan IT MULDER arnhem ROMINDERS S M B willems voordekunst Geharo-Drempt De heer J. Brandema CWGC

Lion Jane Meynardie is traveling abroad this week and sent this to Lion Greg from Arnhem, Holland.

The Stiltekamer Remembrance Room is for those who died during and for the survivors of The Battle of Arnhem, which took place September 17-25, 1944.

Lions International contributed to the project and is a sponsor.

Thank you Lion Jane for sharing part of your trip with us back at home.
