

Fee Agreement for Consultation

The attorney charges $_____ for a consultation. To schedule a consultation, please read, sign and return this agreement, and tender the consultation fee in advance of the consultation. We do not accept payment via debit or credit card in person. We can only accept cash or checks in person. Personal checks can also be regular-USPS mailed to the attorney. Please make checks payable to "Sidney Childress, Attorney". The attorney CAN accept payment by credit or debit card if PayPal is used. If you would like to make payment via PayPal.com, payment is directed to the attorney via the email address childresslaw@hotmail.com

Upon receipt of the consultation fee from you, we can schedule the consultation promptly. The attorney conducts consultations by phone, by email, in person, by video-conference or some combination of the foregoing. Please let us know what you prefer. Please send any or all applicable correspondence, documentation, records or exhibits to the attorney in advance of the consultation, if you have particular questions or concerns

The purpose of the consultation is for you and the attorney to discuss the type of legal issue you have and the matters involved. The attorney will provide you with legal information based on your discussions and his/her recommendations, if any, using only the information you provide. Opinions and advice may change after a full investigation. You and the attorney may also discuss whether the attorney could be of further assistance to you, what attorney's representation could involve, and the type of Fee Agreement the attorney can offer for further legal services. However the primary purpose of an initial consultation with the attorney is not for the attorney to represent you rather the purpose is to try to give you helpful information

At the conclusion of the consultation, if you and the attorney fail to agree in writing on the nature, scope and cost of further legal services, an attorney-client relationship between you and the attorney will not extend beyond the consultation. However, all communications with the attorney continue to be protected by the rules of attorney-client confidentiality. If you would like for the attorney to perform additional services beyond the consultation, there must be a separate written representation or Fee agreement for further services

Signed by: _____ Date: _____
Print Name:

Phone: _____ Email address: _____

Regular mailing address: _____