

Celebrating Ten Years of the DATA Act The First Open Data Law in the US

December 4, 2025
Washington, DC

Join us as we commemorate a decade of progress under the DATA Act - celebrating the legacy that fuels innovation, the visionaries shaping tomorrow's infrastructure, and XBRL open standards enabling the International Digital Ecosystem Architecture (IDEA) that is making it a reality.

Engage in collaborations that accelerate digital construction management systems based on open standards and data interoperability to promote innovation and competition.

Roundtable Discussion

2:00 PM – 4:00 PM

National Institute of Building Sciences - 2121 K Street NW

Digital Ecosystems Enabling Next Generation Infrastructure

Welcome - Jay Kline, National Institute of Building Sciences (NBIS)

Implementing the LEI - Peter Warm, Global Legal Entity Identifier Foundation (GLEIF)

Converting DOT PDFs into actionable data - Carson Whitaker, IntraData-Exchange

Implementing the IDEA for next generation Infrastructure – K. Dixon Wright, OB Alliance

Smart Infrastructure – Andres Carvallo, Host of Digital 360 Summit and Digital Round Table

Guests will be introducing their stakeholder role and engagement with digital initiatives.

Evening Dinner & Tribute

5:00 PM – 7:00 PM

The Capital Grille, 601 Pennsylvania Avenue NW

The DATA Act Honorees

Alfred Berkeley

Barry C. Melancon

Campbell Pryde

Congressman Darrell Issa (Invited)

Louis Matherne

Mark Bolgiano

Mike Willis

Senator Mark Warner (Invited)

Together, we honor the people, agencies, and trade associations whose leadership continues to transform data into public value with operational gains.

Please RSVP to dixon@srcdis.com