

1. Practise forming your letters correctly and write these words: dog, hen, quack, fish, rooftop, brush, three, paint.	2. Using the phonemes (sounds) below, how many words can you make? ch, sh, th, ee, ai, igh, oa, oo, l, p, f, t, s, m, n Remember our double letters phonics lessons, can you write any double letter words? Eg: bigger, kitten	3. Choose your favourite story and draw a picture showing the setting and the characters from it. Can you label them with adjectives around them?
4. Using a stop watch, find out how fast you can read your list of high frequency words. Now try and write them as fast as you can. Try it again another day. Can you beat your score?	5. Find a relaxing place to read your favourite book. 	6. Using one of your games or toys, give instructions to a friend or relative to explain how to play it. Don't forget to use imperative verbs, eg: Stick, place, put