This Week

The big event this week was the kNOw Knife Crime mini-marathon that all Sefton schools took part in on Wednesday. We welcomed runners from Sacred Heart and sent some runners to Forefield Juniors in a relay. We're all fundraising for bleeding control kits & cabinets outside our schools. Thank you for the donations that have already been made. So far, the Crosby schools have raised £2,140 and over £10,000 has been raised across Sefton. If you'd like to make a donation or share the link please visit <https://www.cashforkidsgive.co.uk/campaign/charity-champions-liverpool-the-north-west/fundraisers/the-capital-learning-schools-cluster/> Our homepage has a link to photos of the day and a link to the kNOw Knife Crime campaign page set up in memory of our former pupil Colin McGinty. Also on our homepage, please watch the video involving our Year 5s, Rosie and Louis, about the 'Breathe Better Air' campaign led by Friends of Rimrose Valley.
