- August 2 – 112 vehicles shown
- September 6 – 70 vehicles shown
- October 4 – 81 vehicles shown
- Total vehicles – 536; Monthly average – 89.33

➤ Swap Meet

Considering a change in venue... that's an ongoing conversation. Turnover of about 100 cars/ hour, Search & Rescue had six vested personnel to help
Plan for getting more publicity for both vendors and visitors (Yellow Book, which is actually for sale right now. Pete Rocco has copies for $5)

➤ Car Show

Car Show is in the new Yellow Book.
Some trophies are leftover for the next show, which will cut down on expenses. There will also be sponsors.

Comments were all positive.

2026 will be the weekend before Father's Day.

➤ Steak Fry and Picnic

- 38 Members and guests attending
- Master Chef Rich Brookes grilled the steaks (and he once again refused to be reimbursed for the meat)
- DJ provided the Club's 60th Anniversary Cake
- Still enough yellowjackets for everyone even though the headcount was lower

• Christmas Party, December 14 at Carino's in Albany – Sign up is required today. Sign up sheet is going around) – 2-5 pm.

- Heather and Pete are still working on the menu and trying to figure out if family style or buffet. The club will have the big dining room, there will be no space limitations.
- There will be the white elephant gift exchange! It's optional, but always a lot of fun. Last year's limit was $20.

K. New Business:

- Sign up for 2026 Refreshments, Presentations and Garage Tours are going around ○ Will go around until people are signed up
- Potential Hood River overnight trip in 2026 – Bart is absent and cannot report on the results
