From the Pastor's Desk

So when it was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were shut where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in their midst and said to them, “Peace be with you.” John 20:19

May God bless you as we near the celebration of Jesus' resurrection once more! Easter is my favorite celebration of the year, and it comes to us at just the right time. In the last two years, many of us assumed that a virus was the biggest immediate threat our world was facing. Now that we are seeming to come to the other side of the Covid-19 pandemic, we are greeted daily by the news of war and violence, a situation that world leaders want to address but in such a way as to not trigger World War III. Yikes!

Closer to home, we've laid to rest many members of our Zion family this last year. Whether in the news or through personal experience, we are forced to acknowledge that evil and death are forces with which we all must reckon.

If only God would provide an answer...

Of course, that's what the celebration of Easter is all about. "Christ is risen! He is risen indeed! Alleluia!" This month, we gather to hear once more the news that God has dealt death a deathblow. Jesus came to cancel the guilt of our death-creating sin. He came to do battle with the deadly serpent who leads the whole world astray. And He won!

Can you imagine what it would have been like to be Jesus' disciples, locked up in that room on that Sunday evening? They had followed Jesus for three years and had sincerely come to believe that He was the One they had been waiting for, the Savior, the King. All of their hopes were bound up in Him. And then He died a horrible death (a death that He had repeatedly predicted, though it seems that they didn't understand). But then... "Peace be with you." It was the sound of a voice they assumed they would never hear again. And with the sound of that voice, with that word of peace, despair turned into hope and joy. Everything was different now. Jesus had conquered the grave!

"Peace be with you." Jesus, the risen One, speaks to you and to me today through His Word. He remains the conquering King, triumphant over evil and death. This news transforms everything. It's the assurance that not even the worst the world can throw at us will separate us from the love of God. It's the guarantee of the ultimate victory of good over evil. It's the source of the hope we need right now.

May God bless us as we rehearse the greatest news ever once again. May Christ's death and resurrection be your source of peace, not just this April, but every month!

Christ's peace and joy,

Pastor Scott

Notes & News

Organ Restoration

In 2017 after the first phase of our organ restoration was completed, Casavant recommended that the second phase of the restoration which involves replacing the “leathers” in all the pipes should be completed in 5 years, which brings us to 2022. The estimated cost for this work has gone up substantially from the initial estimate of approximately $45,000.00 to $65,000.00. Since we only have $35,809.00 in the organ restoration fund, we do not have the funds to complete the required work this year. As a result, Casavant was contacted to see if this second phase could be put off for a year or two. Their response was this: “At this point in time the organ is working well with the leathers not appearing to be a concern, so we could potentially push this phase back two years. Bear in mind, folks, that in two year’s time, the cost will also be higher. Right now the organ valuation is $1,200,000.00.” The Worship & Music Committee will keep you updated re - the growth in the organ restoration fund.

Used Postage Stamps Wanted

Used postage stamps to support “On Eagles Wings” who are volunteer Bible Camp teams who fly north from Yellowknife, NWT to the far reaches of the Mackenzie Delta and teach the Inuvialuit people and children about Jesus. Please leave the used stamps in the “Used Postage Stamp” box located at the front entrance of the church.

A Guide To Wearing Masks At Zion Lutheran Church

March 21st signified the beginning phases of re-opening the province of Ontario. You will no longer be required to wear masks in the church. We ask you to please consider wearing masks in densely populated areas of the church for the protection of yourself and others. Sunday mornings and other worship services are suggested dates. The worship leaders will continue to wear masks as they have close contact with people at Holy Communion.

Easter Donations

Anyone wishing to sponsor an Easter Lily or make any other Easter donations to the following funds (Building, Office, Good Shepherding, Organ Restoration, etc) is asked to contact the church office. The deadline for donations is Monday, April 11, 2022. Please note that due to the amount of donation requests received during this busy time, we request that bulletin announcements must be either e-mailed to the church office (zionoffice@nrtco.net), or legibly printed on the donation forms located at the entrances to the sanctuary, and dropped off at the office, or placed on the offering plate or in the office correspondence mailbox. In this way, your announcement will be placed in the Easter bulletin exactly the way you wish.

Lectionary Bible Study – Tuesdays 10am

Beginning in the month of April Pastor Scott will be leading a Lectionary Bible Study on a weekly basis. The study will look at the texts for the following Sunday. There is no need to prepare. Simply bring yourself, your bible, and an open mind. If you have more questions talk to Pastor.

Living Stones Worship

Please join us for an alternative worship service on April 10th at 12:30pm. Plan to arrive early and enjoy a coffee hour BEFORE worship. We will have singing, story and active prayer. The service will take place in the gym. You are invited to bring a canned item to donate to the food bank as part of our worship service. This is also Palm Sunday. Do you have cedar or pine trees in your yard? Can you bring some boughs to share? We hope to use these branches along with palms as a part of the service. See you at church!

What does it mean to be LIVING STONES?

The term living stones in 1 Peter 2:5 is used as a metaphor to illustrate the secure and intimate relationship believers have with Jesus, who is described in the previous verse as the “living Stone” (1 Peter 2:4). Together, these two verses picture how Christ and His followers are joined by God: “As you come to God, the living Stone—rejected by people but chosen by God and precious to God—you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ” (1 Peter 2:4–5).

The foundation of God’s building is, Jesus Christ, the “living Stone.” The “living stones,” in turn, are believers who come to Jesus and place their lives upon this foundation. The living Stone is “precious” to those who believe (1 Peter 2:7), but some people reject the Living Stone in order to build their lives their own way, not God’s way (see Psalm 118:22 and Luke 6:46–49). Unbelievers cast this living Stone aside, not caring that Jesus is the only true foundation upon which they can build securely (1 Corinthians 3:11).

In a metaphor much like that of the living Stone, Jesus is described as the chief cornerstone in Ephesians 2:19–22. Peter references Jesus as the cornerstone in Acts 4:11–12, stating that “salvation is found in no one else, for there is no other name under heaven given to people by which we must be saved.” God accepts no one who refuses to become a part of God's building. And God is just like all builders—God has a foundation upon which all workers must build (Matthew 7:24–27).

Believers, then, are the “living stones” of the church that Jesus promised to build (Matthew 16:18). As living stones, we have new life in Christ (2 Corinthians 5:17). As integral parts of the building of God, we have security in Christ (John 6:37). As the Master Builder, God places living stones just where God wants us to be (1 Corinthians 12:18). As living stones, we are connected to one another in the body of Christ (Romans 12:5). Our Lord, the foundation Stone, is alive forevermore and will never crumble. We will be supported eternally.

Peter goes on to describe the function of the living stones: to “declare the praises” of Him who called us out of the darkness of sin into the light of life and glory (1 Peter 2:9). This is the “job description” of a living stone: a speaker of praise, a declarer of truth and love and light. The spiritual house God is building is designed for God's glory, and we, the living stones, glorify the God in all we do (1 Corinthians 10:31).

Praise Group

Would you like to help lead worship at the Living Stones service? We are looking for musicians, singers and action leaders to help with the music portion of the service. We are also looking for those that can help by doing a reading or set up/take down and tech support. Do you or your family have gifts and talents in these areas? This is the time to let the Pulse team know!

We will have a meeting of those who would like to help with music on Thursday, March 31st at 630pm in the LOUNGE by the elevator at church. Please bring your preferred instrument, a binder and a music stand if you have one. If you don't play an instrument but sing or have rhythm we need you too! If you are just curious and want to check things out, please come and find your place praising God. We will meet for approximately 1 hour and discuss our next meeting at that time.

See you at church!

Pulse Youth Group

The youth group will meet on the second and fourth Friday of every month with the hopes of meeting more often in September. All of your friends are welcome to join us.

We will meet in on Friday April 8th and Friday April 22nd at 6:30 pm. In May, we will meet on Friday, May 27th at 6:30pm.

Youth Lock-in/overnight Friday May 6th – 6:30pm – Saturday May 7th

The youth group is gathering for an overnight event at the church. Everyone gets “Locked-in” thus the name. There will be a theme for the lock-in that is yet to be determined.

How Fortunate We Are!

Written and Submitted by Wayne Kirk

As I traverse throughout our beautiful city placed in the Upper Ottawa Valley on the now peaceful Ottawa River, I can't help but be thankful to our Savior for as all things, creating it to remain the same even now in my boomer years. Once back home with time to contemplate, visions of other just as beautiful cities in the Ukraine have almost been annihilated and far from their natural beauty. For now and likely into the distant future our residents need not worry about our schools, hospitals, old age , personal residences and municipal government buildings mirror the images from the Ukraine. The only time you'll see the members of our community scramble in huge crowds would be a Black Friday sale at the local retailers. The war torn cities in the Ukraine have citizens scrambling for their safety and lives and not for saving a few dollars on some insignificant merchandise on sale. We still retain our homes, possessions and connections with our friends and loved ones while thousands of miles away others lose everything including their freedom and homeland. Can't imagine awakening one morning and view from my picture window explosions, fire and smoke unwarranted by a relentless vicious enemy. Hold each other close and be very thankful for how fortunate we are by not taking for granted the existence we now enjoy. If the only effect is an increase in the price of commodities, we are still the blessed ones. Please continue to pray for those in peril. We never know when it may be our turn for the prayers of others.
