FROM THE PASTOR'S DESK July/August 2023

The apostles gathered around Jesus, and told him all that they had done and taught. He said to them, "Come away to a deserted place all by yourselves and rest a while." For many were coming and going, and they had no leisure even to eat. – Mark 6:31

Beloved of God,

We all know what it feels like to be harried; to see the accumulation of half-completed chores and unfinished projects pile up at home or at work while we try to get a handle on another day's demands: work, childcare, laundry, meal planning, sports, lessons, volunteer activities, exercise, emails, lawn care, and on and on. If you're like me you are perpetually longing for that "light at the end of the tunnel" when the desk will be cleared, the chores will be done, the "honey-do" list will be completed, and there will be space for one huge SIGH, a day to kick-back and to savor life.

In The Fiddler on the Roof, Tevye the milkman sings about how he would use that "down" time—a time he imagines would surely be his, if only he "were a rich man." The sweetest thing of all, he croons, would be studying "the holy books with the learned men seven hours every day." We all have dreams about how we would use our time if we only had the time. The point, of course, is what we choose to do now with the time that we have; how we pattern our lives now, not in some imagined world that, in reality, we will never realize. When the apostles returned from the missionary journey on which Jesus had sent them, they were full of stories and experiences they wanted to share about what they had seen and done and taught. Mark tells us that their ministries met with some success. [6:13] Jesus was well aware of the demands of ministry, and how their enthusiasm and growth had to be matched with time away, time to unwind, to reflect, and to receive. The journey onto which he had invited them, after all, was not a sprint but a marathon. So, after he listened to all they had to share, he invited them to “come away and rest a while.” It is a pattern into which he invites us as well. One of the great gifts from the tradition of our Jewish forbearers is the Sabbath. A day each week of community supported down time, a pattern whose origin the tradition traces back to the very beginning of creation and God’s own actions. [Genesis 1]. Sabbath is a time for resting, a time for rekindling our spiritual life, reconnecting with family, giving rest to beasts of burden, being restored through a rhythm that will enable life to carry on for the long haul. In our chronically overworked society, Sabbath time must seem to most of us like a distant dream, yet the fact is for century upon century real people in real life have practiced that tradition. Maybe it’s time to take it back. My own pattern has been to carve out concentrated “Sabbath” time during the summer. This year, I’m mingling my time away from the parish with opportunities to share in the ministry at Camp Lutherlyn’s Family Camp. I will be spending respite time at the cottage and will be travelling to see my family. I plan on spending lots of time around the pool too. Whatever your plans are these two months, I hope that you, too, will take time to heed Jesus’ call to “come away and rest for a while.” I’ve found that it’s often during the time away that the things that have been hazy in my life, the question marks, the puzzles, become clarified. I pray the same for you. May God grant you refreshment this summer ~ whether you are home or away, whether we meet here at the Lord’s Table, at a mountain trailhead, or on a ferry bound for places beyond. May God’s deep peace inhabit your soul.

With you on the Way,
Pastor Scott

Summer Stewardship

We wait all year for those “lazy, hazy, crazy days of summer” (as the old song goes), and then we fill them with vacations at the beach, camping trips in the woods and flying to far-off places. It’s no wonder that church attendance dips in the summer. But while you are relaxing, your church continues to be busy – with regular worship, social activities, caring for sick and the homebound members, planning weddings, baptisms and funerals, and ministering to the hungry and homeless in your community, and your pastor and church staff still need to be paid, as does the electric company. So, here’s the problem: The bills continue to roll in even when you’re away, and many congregants have not planned to keep their offerings current when they are on vacation. That’s why so many congregations face a cash crunch in the summer months. But here are some ideas for how to help your congregation maintain its finances in the summer months.

Pay it forward: Your congregation would love to receive your summer offerings – or part of them – in advance. If you know you’re going to be away, plan ahead by offering more in the weeks in advance of your time away from church.

Make it up: Alternatively, when you get back from your time away, give a little more in the weeks that follow in order to make up for the lost weeks.

Use your envelopes: Are you a check-writing person? Then simply fill in advance your offering envelopes with your weekly gift. If you have a check in every envelope, then on any given Sunday you need only to bring that day’s envelope and whatever earlier Sunday envelopes are there.

Use banking bill pay: Lots of people find online banking services a convenient way to pay their monthly car loan, mortgage, light bill and other routine expenses. Why not your church offering, too? Many online banking services will cut a check and send it to the church for you.

Enroll in Pre-authorized Giving (PAR): Your offerings will go right to the church in the amount and the time frame you specify.

Adjust your weekly offering: To calculate a weekly offering amount, most people take their annual donation amount and divide it by 52, since there are 52 Sundays in a year. The problem comes when they miss a Sunday and have to play “catch up.” To get around this, instead, estimate the minimum number of those 52 Sundays a year you are likely to be in church and divide your annual amount accordingly. Of course, these methods are beneficial not only for the summer months, but also for the whole year through. Those who embrace giving as a spiritual discipline often find that their lives of faith are enriched and their sense of joy and fulfillment is deepened. Choosing a regular-giving strategy can help you to discover the joys of generosity.

Carefor

Greetings,

We want to invite you to be part of Carefor Health & Community Service's The Grand Parade campaign. The Grand Parade is a family-friendly fundraiser walk held on Saturday, September 16, 2023 that helps support local charities that provide essential care and service for aging Canadians. The Grand Parade is a moment to take to the streets across Canada to publicly honor aging friends and family while fundraising for charities that serve them faithfully.

Many seniors in the Ottawa Valley are struggling right now. Eighteen percent of them are considered low-income and require additional support. For over 100 years Carefor has been a key agency offering services to our community's seniors to help them age with choice and dignity. We believe everyone wants to age without worry, but for many of our seniors, this is a challenge. That's why we're marching.

Carefor is joining the Grand Parade to make sure seniors receive the support they deserve. Funds raised through the Grand Parade will go to offering services to Ottawa Valley seniors by ensuring the monthly rents at our retirement homes stay within reach of all seniors, to our transportation program to help seniors get to essential medical appointments, and to ensuring our meal delivery program keeps our seniors fed and healthy.

We're inviting you to march for Ottawa Valley seniors with us. We're looking for people like you to form a team and walk for seniors. The money your team raises means more seniors in the Ottawa Valley staying out of the hospital and long-term care, more seniors being able to age at home longer, and more seniors who no longer can age at home being able to afford a safe space to live in our two retirement homes, Carefor Civic Complex and Carefor Mackay Centre.

Show Ottawa Valley seniors that they're seen. Join us on September 16th.

Register a team online. Go to thegrandparade.org - <https://thegrandparade.org/location/pembroke> Select our city and community. You will find Carefor listed. Once registered, invite team members. You may even want to have multiple teams from your company or challenge your peers to do the same. Invite family and friends to donate to your walk, in support of our cause. There are all kinds of tools and resources to make it easy. Show up for the event where you will meet hundreds of community members and organizational leaders. It's that easy!

We want you to join us. When our community cares for everybody, we all thrive together. Your support and involvement in this campaign will make us more able to address the needs of vulnerable seniors in our community and to help make our community a better place.

Present: Erica Deloughery, Susan Dupuis, Karen Gauthier, Jill Kellough, Michael Lange, Pastor Sue Nevile, Kathy Nieman, Pastor Scott Schellenberger, Denise Schizkoske, Gerry Vandersleen (treasurer).

Guests: Steve Boland, Krista Grosskleg, Al Kellough, Justine Mutlow (Emergency Shelter Task Force).

Excused: Jamie MacKinnon

1. Opening: The meeting was opened at 7:00pm. The opening devotion was given by Susan Dupuis.
2. Approval of Agenda: The agenda was reviewed. Additions: no additions.
Motion to approve agenda: Jill Kellough. Seconded: Michael Lange.
3. Approval of Minutes: The previous council meeting minutes of April were reviewed previously via email.
Motion to approve minutes: Kathy Nieman. Seconded: Karen Gauthier.
4. Steve Boland reporting on emergency plan: Steve Boland passed out a report from the Emergency Shelter Task Force, who have been meeting every two weeks since the annual meeting. At the Feb 26 annual meeting, Steve asked the congregation to consider opening up a temporary shelter at the church in order to respond to emergency situations. The task force developed a mission statement, done in accordance with Jesus' teachings, and in particular Matthew 25:40: "Truly I tell you as you did it to the least of these who are members of my family you did it to me." The terms of reference set the foundation for what needs to be done...provide a safe place, reflect the teachings of Jesus, be compassionate and supportive in a non-judgmental way, and provide the necessary essentials of life to those needing temporary emergency shelter. Steve reviewed the items that are key to moving forward with the development of the temporary emergency shelter and noted lots more work needs to be done. Also, in order for the plan to work, there needs to be a community response and other community partners involved. The task force outlined the key items required to move forward with the development of the plan, one of which includes the approval of Church Council to proceed with the plan development and another which includes the engagement of members of Zion. A motion was developed which reads: "Council accepts the report of the Emergency Shelter Task Force and agree that they proceed with the development of a Temporary Emergency Shelter Program at Zion Lutheran Church." Moved by: Jill Kellough. Seconded by: Denise Schizkoske. Motion approved unanimously by Council.
5. Finance Report: From the comparative income statement and comparative balance sheet, Treasurer Gerry Vandersleen highlighted: regular offerings are up, gas expenses are significantly higher, church insurance is up $2300, and office supply expenses are up. At present, the higher deficit is primarily due to increases in both office expenses and the price of natural gas.

The heating system and condensate tank replacement was discussed and Barry informed us that the tank should be in by the end of May. The roof shingle replacement still ongoing. Signage at the church for emergency access was discussed. Al will check with a few sign places for pricing. It will need "Main Entrance" and address on the sign. A new garage is ready to be installed and conversation about placement was discussed. Brent will see about getting it transported to the Church property. Thank you Algonquin College Students! Kevin is getting a quote on parking lot sweeping Wednesday May 3rd from McRae's. ### Celebrating God As We Serve Others

Present: Pastor Scott, Blaine Sack, Gayle Seegmiller, Lorraine MacKenzie, Diane Hammel, Sandra Graham, Cheryl Sack, Michael Lange, Joan Lehman

Regrets: Pastor Sue, Ellen Vandersleen, Koit Rull

Welcome and Opening Devotions: Gayle welcomed everyone and Pastor Scott opened the meeting with a prayer.

Approval of Agenda: Approved with the addition of Worship Assistants under Miscellaneous

Approval of Last Meeting's Minutes: Approved online

Committee Reports:

Pastor Scott:

- 8 funerals and 6 baptisms have been conducted since January 1st.
- Confirmation will take place on Reformation Sunday.
- Pastor Scott is pleased with the way the new opportunities for worship singing have come to fruition. A variety of musicians and the use of various instruments have enhanced worship and created a different atmosphere.
- Having the traditional service and the Living Stones service held at the same time seems to be working out fine. What is most important and what truly matters is that everyone is worshipping the same God.
- A grant for the equipment has been submitted and we are waiting for a response.
- A committee to plan for the 140th Anniversary celebration is being formed.
- Beginning June 25th and for the month of July we will be using the semi-continuous lectionary. This lectionary tells the continuous story in Genesis throughout the summer months.
- Pastor Scott will be on holidays from July 31 to August 27th. Sermons for two Sundays will be available from Bishop Michael Pryce and Bishop Susan Johnson. Gayle will look into getting coverage for the other Sundays.

Blaine Sack: Church Musician

- Choirs are finished until late August / early September.
- The Singing of the Psalms resource is not in yet. Blaine will follow-up to find out the status of the order.
- Blaine would like to attend the Summer Institute of Church Music Conference in person this year. It is held in Whitby from July 9th - 13th. Blaine is tentatively planning on taking Sunday July 16th off.
- Blaine shared that funeral services are becoming more complicated. Family members often request specific music which requires more time on his part to find and practice the selected pieces. As per Blaine's employment agreement he informed the committee that he will be increasing his rate for funerals to $175.00 to account for the added complexity of the service. He will notify the funeral homes of the change.
- Blaine looked into the tuning of the grand piano in the sanctuary. To reduce costs, the tuner will coordinate with several other churches in our area to arrange a date that works for all. Once a date is set, the tuner will notify Blaine.
- We will continue to use Setting 2 for June and July.

Contemporary Services:

- The committee decided that the term "contemporary" will refer to the Living Stones service.
- After doing some research Blaine suggested we use the term "blended" to refer to services that have the traditional liturgy and framework but may include different music than the traditional service.

Phase Two of the Organ Restoration:

- Blaine has reached out to Casavant for an updated estimate for the organ restoration and is waiting on a response.
- The restoration includes replacing the leathers in all 2100 pipes. Because each pipe is a different size all the leathers need to be manufactured manually, which is a huge undertaking.
- The approximate timeline for completing the job is 2 ½ to 3 months.
- If this work is to be completed next summer, we will need to book in the fall.
- Blaine has agreed to do a presentation to explain the organ restoration process at a future date. Thank you Blaine.
- It was suggested by both Michael Lange and Pastor Scott that a 140 Anniversary fund be established and include the organ restoration as well as other projects. This would allow for easier distribution of the funds. The committee agreed with the suggestion.
- Currently, there is approximately $56, 958.09 in the restoration fund.

Altar Care:

- The fridge repairs have not been completed yet. Sandra Graham will ask Allen to follow-up with the service technician.

140th Anniversary Plans:

- Lorraine MacKenzie, Kathy Nieman and Blaine Sack have agreed to be part of the Anniversary committee. Volunteers are welcome so please reach out to any member of the committee for more details.
- Plans for an anniversary dinner, having a 140th Anniversary Banner and having an organ recital are some of the things the committee is considering.
- Funds raised will go to having the organ restored and to purchase All Creation Sings hymnals for the pews. Additional projects may also be discussed by the committee.

Waterfront Service:

- Gayle will put an announcement in the bulletin to remind people to bring their own plates and cutlery to the potluck.

Technology:

- Diane reports the sound system is working well in both the kitchen and nursery.

Miscellaneous:

- Worship Assistants
  - Lorraine shared that volunteers for worship assistants are dwindling.
  - Gayle will put a note in the bulletin requesting that anyone interested in helping out can contact Lorraine for details.
- Baptismal Banner
  - The baptismal banner has not been updated since 2019. Cheryl Sack has graciously offered to take on this task. Thank you Cheryl!

Next Meeting:

- Tuesday, August 29, 2023 @ 7:00 p.m.

NOTES AND NEWS

Pastor Scott will be away July 31st - August 27th. Pastor Leena Jensen will be on call during this time. She can be reached at (705) 688-3439.

Congratulations to Michael Rombeiro and Rebecca Vandersleen who were married Saturday July 1st 2023!
May God bless you with a lifetime of happiness.

Exercise Class

Our July seniors exercise classes will be resuming on July 24th. Be sure to bring a friend! For more information, please call Susan Dupuis 343-369-2057 or Karen Gauthier 613-735-2360. All costs and instructors will be provided by Home and Community Care (Formerly the LHIN).

Confirmation Camp

July 9 -14 Confirmation Camp Cost $150. Permission forms will be required.

Worship & Music

At the Worship & Music meeting on June 6th there was a discussion as to what should be called a contemporary service. It was agreed that the Living Stones service is the contemporary service. When the music in a service involves the Living Stones band but the rest of the service is in the regular format, it will be called a Blended Service. The Living Stones service will continue to be held in the parish hall on a monthly basis (summer excluded) while the blended service will be held in the sanctuary approximately every 6 weeks.

ZLW Meeting

The next Faith and Life program will be a Picnic At Pansy Park scheduled for September 6 Least Coin – Bunco and Pot Luck – Ellen and Pam

First Step Options

We are in need of Pull-Ups, any size diapers, formula – Good Start Stage 1 & 2 & Good Start Plus Stage 1, second-hand summer clothes – boys' and girls' 2T – 4T, a highchair and baby gate. Your help is truly appreciated. We are also in need of bags to transport material items to our clients! Now that a majority of stores have gone to reusable bags or the option of purchasing bags, we have found it very difficult to keep a good stock of bags for delivering material support to moms and dads. If you happen to have disposable or reusable bags just taking up space at home, we would love to take them off your hands. Please drop them off Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday from 10 am to 4 pm, 337 Murray Street, Pembroke (613)-635-7440
