Zion Lutheran Church is located on the traditional unceded, unsundered territory of the Anishinaabe Algonquin People. The Algonquin People have inhabited and cared for these lands long before today. We take this time to show our gratitude and respect to them, and to the land for all that it provides us. We embrace the responsibility to help ensure that the next generations of land stewards are respectful and grateful for the bounty of this land on which we all live, work, play, and worship.

From the Pastor's Desk

The month of June is a very important month in Canada.

June is National Indigenous History Month.

National Indigenous Peoples Day

June 21st is National Indigenous Peoples Day. This is the 26th year it has been celebrated and it is a day for all Canadians to recognize and celebrate the unique heritage, diverse cultures and outstanding contributions of First Nations, Inuit and Métis peoples. The Canadian Constitution recognizes these three groups as Aboriginal peoples, also known as Indigenous peoples.

Although these groups share many similarities, they each have their own distinct heritage, language, cultural practices and spiritual beliefs.

In cooperation with Indigenous organizations, the Government of Canada chose June 21st, the summer solstice, for National Aboriginal Day, now known as National Indigenous Peoples Day. For generations, many Indigenous peoples and communities have celebrated their culture and heritage on or near this day due to the significance of the summer solstice as the longest day of the year.

How we will honour National Indigenous History Month

1. A land acknowledgement will be printed in our bulletin weekly and our monthly newsletter. It is important to recognize whose land we gather on. During the month of June the land acknowledgement will be spoken at the beginning of the service.
2. On Sunday June 26th we will acknowledge National Indigenous Peoples Day by crafting a worship service with elements honouring the rich history of the people.
3. We will participate in the Eastern Synod book study. We will read Five Little Indians by Michelle Good. It is the story of five former residential school survivors. More information about this can be found in the pages that follow. Local Lutheran Churches from the Ottawa Valley area have been invited to participate.

Why now?

Why not? Indigenous people have lived on Turtle Island (their name for the land) for centuries before the Europeans ever arrived. It is important to recognize the injustices they have faced in treaty negotiations and residential school abuses, and the fact there are hundreds of Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women (MMIW).

On the third weekend in August you may consider attending the annual Pow-Wow at the Pikwakaganan Reserve on Golden Lake.

From the winds of the East, West, North and South, may the Creator be with you always.

Pastor Scott

Worship

Thank you to Ellen Vandersleen and Wayne Kirk for leading service March 27.

Thank you to the choir for leading our Lenten services.

The first service "Living Stones" worship service was April 10, 2022.

Continuing Education

May 16-20 2022 – Online – Festival of Homiletics (another word for preaching) – by Luther Seminary, Minnesota hosted from Denver Colorado – 42 Speakers – agenda 8:30 – 8:30 everyday - $95 instead of $450. Funds coming from my Continuing Education account.

Eastern Synod Transitions Retreat May 16-17 in Niagara Falls.

I have since found out that there is a subsidy of $200 from Synod for travel from the Valley. I will most likely be taking the train from Oshawa. The cost will be cut severely for Zion.

Although these two events overlap I will be trying to fit the Festival of Homiletics into time that I have free. Fortunately the sessions I miss will be available to be online afterwards.

Respectfully Submitted,

Pastor Scott

6. Correspondence

- A letter dated April 4 was received from Jean Rutz who is planning to retire from the position of church secretary effective Thursday December 15. Jean has given enough advance notice to allow time to find a replacement and to arrange job shadowing prior to her departure. The job posting will be advertised both internally and externally as a part-time, contract position.

7. Committee Reports

- Property- the property committee met March 14 and the next meeting is scheduled for April 19. The doorbell at elevator entrance is being repaired. The doors to the sanctuary at the back of the church need to be replaced; awaiting 3 quotes for replacement. Some of the roof shingles need to be repaired. The entrance walkway needs to be revamped so that it is safer. An agreement has been drafted by legal counsel for the foodbank property which will be presented to the congregation at a congregational meeting. The Miller Street property has been appraised and the appraisal has come in lower than expected. The tenant of the Miller Street property is behind on this year's rent, in addition to $6 600 from the previous year. Legal counsel will serve the tenant a notice of eviction, and action is being sought to regain some of the rent owing. The tenant is aware we are planning on selling the property. Sand removal from the parking lot needs to be arranged.
- W & M- there will be 2 quiet communion services/month. Pastor Scott is happy that volunteers have come forward to fill previously vacant worship leader positions. The first Living Stones worship was held this past Sunday (April 10). There were 34 people in attendance and the service was well received by those in attendance. A council member raised a question regarding the postlude and how some are confused as to whether they can leave while it is playing. The main reason for people remaining during the postlude is to minimise the distractions while the song and hymnal credits are displayed at the conclusion of the service.

- Social Ministry-there is a meeting on April 19 about the soup and sandwich fundraiser on May 1 after the service. Funds raised will go the Ukraine. Ham and scalloped potato meals were made and delivered to shut-in members of the congregation on March 15.
- Pulse Ministries- Messy church has been going very well. 32 people were in attendance at the last messy church (including volunteers). The children, and adults, present had fun and it was a positive worship experience. The youth group has had one meeting; the most recent meeting had to be cancelled due to the presence of Covid in the classrooms at school. Candace Rose Smith has volunteered to help out. Confirmands are encouraged to bring a friend to youth group meetings.

8. Ongoing Business

- Personnel Committee- in camera discussion.

9. New Business

- Meeting format- council members were asked for input on what type of meeting format they prefer, Zoom vs in person. Hybrid meetings were suggested so that those who can make it in-person can and those that can't, can attend via Zoom. Susan will look into this option for the next meeting.
- Conflict of Interest and Privacy forms- these need to be signed by council members. These will be handed out at the next meeting for signing.
- Request for Saturday Night Services-discussed reinstatement of Saturday evening worship. Council agreed to follow the recommendation of W & M. The Saturday evening worship will not be re-instated however, we will offer a 2nd quiet mid-week service instead.
- Keys to the building- it's uncertain who all has keys to the church. Gerry mentioned it is likely best to keep the locks as is and make some phone calls to see if some still have a key and can return them if they are no longer needed.
- Camp Lutherlyn Spring Work Day- will be May 28th. Volunteers are needed; volunteers with pick-up trucks are required.
- Privacy and social media- a reminder to ask permission to post pictures on social media, especially when children are involved.
- In camera discussion.

Motion to adjourn: The meeting adjourned at 8:50pm.Moved: Michael Lange.
Seconded: Jamie Mackinnon.

Next meeting is scheduled for May 10, 2022 at 7pm. Devotions will be given by: Susan Dupuis.

National Indigenous History Month – June Book Study

The Eastern Synod Circle for Reconciliation and Justice (CRJ) will coordinate a Synod-wide book study for the month of June, National Indigenous History Month.

The CRJ has chosen the book Five Little Indians* by Michelle Good. It can be bought in bookstores, ordered online in ebook or paperback, or borrowed from your local library. It is available through Goodminds, an Indigenous independent outlet.

Michelle Good is a writer of Cree ancestry and a member of the Red Pheasant Cree Nation in Saskatchewan. Five Little Indians, released in April 2020, is her novel about five young people emerging from a remote residential school where they had been sent as small children.

The book has been recognized with several honours including the Governor General's Literary Award. It was chosen by Amnesty International Canada for their Book Club Readers' Choice of 2021.

We will meet on Wednesday June 8th at 7pm in person for an opening discussion. We will then gather Wednesday June 29th at 7:00pm for a closing discussion.

You will have an opportunity to join two zoom session hosted by the Eastern Synod. You can do this on your own.

Join two Zoom sessions that will be held in June. Before reading the book, you can attend a kick-off session "Introduction to Five Little Indians Book Study" on June 2nd, 7 to 8 pm EDT, that will give some background about the book and the author, and why it has been chosen for study.

The concluding session "Book Study Wrap-up" will be held on June 20th, 7 to 9 pm EDT. In the first part we will ask participants to share what they found to be most meaningful and important about the book. The second part will be devoted to a discussion of the meaning for our congregations as we seek to live into truth and reconciliation moving forward.
