From the Pastor's Desk

A Friend Loves at All Times – Proverbs 17:17

My holidays have been days of rest, days of rejuvenation in creation and time spent with family and friends. It has been wonderful. Thank you also for respecting my time away.

The highlight of my summer happened somewhere different – Camp Lutherlyn. Camp Lutherlyn is a holy place where children come to enjoy God's creation, make friends, and make memories that last forever. A common thing to see each day were campers exchanging friendship bracelets. Kids had their strings attached to water bottles making the bracelets all day long. It was kind of cool.

After lunch one day, a child from Zion who attends Messy Church said to me, "Pastor Scott, can I make a friendship bracelet for you?" I was so surprised but so happy. I said to her, "Yes please! No one has ever made me a friendship bracelet at camp before! This is awesome! Seriously, no one! You have made my day!" I wear the bracelet every day and probably will ask for a new one when it wears out. It is a simple gift but one given in friendship.

Friendship is a very special thing. It takes effort to keep a friendship going. Usually there is a care and concern that goes deeper than just people we meet in our community. They are people we can laugh with and cry with. Friends are people we can rely on when need them. Friends share things that are important to them like their faith.

Back to Church Sunday September 29

During the month of September, I encourage you to talk to people about your church. Tell them why Zion is important to you. Tell them what you enjoy the most and the type of people that are a part of Zion. Then take it one step further and invite them to church on Sunday the 29th. Be sure to be clear that you are not trying to recruit them but rather you want to share the place and community where you experience God's love each week. Also make sure you let them know that everyone is encouraged to invite someone and that there is a potluck and Lutheran potlucks are something to see. If they choose not to come that is okay. You have invited them and that is the most important part of the journey. If not this time maybe they will come to church another time.

The Alpha Program

The Alpha Program is a course that offers an opportunity for individuals to take part in an eleven-week course beginning Thursday, September 19th. The course talks about different faith topics. Some of you may wish to join us for this program. The course is also meant for "seekers" or "new members" or "curious friends." Each session begins at 6:00pm with a half an hour of refreshments and then continues with an open discussion not a lecture, about basic questions of faith. If you feel like you might benefit from this opportunity to talk about faith, I encourage you to come. Invite a friend to come with you. This is not a book study or bible study. So, seekers, members and curious friends. if you think that you could use some brushing up on your faith, please come. Talk to me if you have questions. Do not be surprised if I personally invite some of you to join the group. I think you would enjoy it.

An Invitation

1 Chronicles 16:11 says, "Seek the Lord and his strength; seek his presence continually!" It is my invitation to you that you continually know the Lord is our best friend. He never gives up on us. The Lord loves us unconditionally. Day after day, open your hearts to the Lord and know that he is waiting to hear your prayers.

In the name of the God who loves us,

Pastor Scott

The Loss Of A Loved One

Wayne Kirk

As we mature all realize that inevitably death will become a consequence of being born. Mortality is something we must endure, hopefully after reaching longevity average for the human species. After being subjected to the emotional rollercoaster which accompanies the loss of a loved one, none is as devastating as losing of a child. We are not supposed to outlive our children. Whether an accidental death or succumbing to one of many incurable diseases, it can be one of the most difficult happenings in life.

On June 1st of this year we laid to rest one of my identical twin sons Warren in the family plot. Uncontrollable sadness overwhelmed the mind and body when recalling the wonderful times spent together in former years.

Thanks go out to all members of Zion's congregation who passed on their sincere condolences. I must admit it relieved a large percentage of the pain.

There are still devastating diseases that are the demise of many. Early onset Alzheimer's is one which is especially unforgiving and for which there is no cure. A heredity condition in which the stages reduce a strong and intelligent individual to a vegetative state where they don't even know their own name. If there is one good thing about this disease, is that the brain feels no pain unlike cancer and other afflictions. Unfortunately my other son is not far behind his brother. Losing your children certainly challenges your faith and beliefs.

For me I always recall God's promise of eternal life for the baptized and believers. Perhaps I will someday be rewarded when our Lord decides to provide us with a family reunion in his mansion.

My son is now at rest beside his loving mother who also passed from the same disease in her forties. May God bless them and keep them. May his face shine on them and be gracious to them. May he look upon them with favour and give them peace.

Amen.

Blaine Sack: Church Musician

- Since the organ is out of service, the grand piano in the sanctuary is well used. The next tuning will occur at the end of August/beginning of September.
- The pianos in the Parish Hall are played regularly and have held their tune. Since these pianos are not on a regular tuning schedule, Blaine will check with the piano tuner to see if tuning is recommended and how much it would cost.
- Reassembly of the organ is scheduled for the week of August 26th. The 3rd payment (3 of 4) is due at the end of the summer.

- Choir practices are finished for this singing season. Practices will resume the first week of September. Possible changes to the Men's practice schedule will be discussed at a later date.

- Blaine will be away on continuing education/professional development the week of July 8th attending the Summer Institute on Church Music. This will also include Sunday, July 14th as vacation.
- Blaine will also be on vacation Sunday, August 25th.
- During his absence, Blaine will arrange for someone to supply.
