THE CHURCH OF
JESUS CHRIST
OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

“Throughout our lives, we must deal with change. Some changes are welcome; some are not. There are changes in our lives which are sudden, such as the unexpected passing of a loved one, an unforeseen illness, the loss of a possession we treasure. But most of the changes take place subtly and slowly”.

“Day by day, minute by minute, second by second we went from where we were to where we are now. The lives of all of us, of course, go through similar alterations and changes. The difference between the changes in my life and the changes in yours is only in the details. Time never stands still; it must steadily march on, and with the marching come the changes.”

Ideas for Service (more coming each week)

- Share one of your spiritual memories with a family member, friend, or neighbor.
- Tell a family member or friend how much you appreciate them. Ask if there is anything you can do to help them today?
- Share a copy of “The Restoration of the Fullness of the Gospel of Jesus Christ: A Bicentennial Proclamation to the World” with a friend or neighbor.
- Remember that successful invitations to learn about the restored gospel require:
 1. Your love.
 2. Your example.
 3. Your use of the Book of Mormon.
